WASHINGTON LETTER.

Lodge Defends Roosevelt—President's Explanation Satisfactory to Those Who Were Already Satisfied—Washington in Ice—Dr. Wiley's Food Test.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 7, 1904.—On the 5th inst., before a resolution of deep sympathy from the House of Representatives, while the Senate has passed a resolution ordering the District Commissioner to inspect all places of amusement in Washington and report. A modern fire alarm system is to be established in the White House at once and the employes of that mansion, something like 150, are to be drilled as a fire brigade. There was a rumor that the president would do the drilling, but this is unlikely.

A representative in Congress from Montana has opened the Chinese question. He wants the government to build a wire fence along the Canadian boundary to keep the Chinese out. Of course the wires are to be kept alive with electricity.

Dr. Wiley, chemist, after feeding a number of young men for some months upon food prepared with salicylic acid, has abandoned the experiment for the present, since it has been demonstrated that such food seriously injures the health. One man claims that the food cured him of rheumatism. Food prepared with borax also proved to be unhealthy. "I feel as if my insides had been tanned with the stuff," was the way one of the subjects expressed it.

The very wise and optimistic Secretary of Agriculture says no panic is possible in this country so good as the farmer can produce good and salable crops. Our surplus crops sold abroad last year amounted to $376,000,000. He adds that the state of Texas alone sent sixty millions of dollars in 1903 to Canada to purchase grain and farming lands. But panic has taken place without regard to the condition of the crops; there is little connection between them.

It is getting to be dangerous for a well-prepared widow to show friendship for a professing man considerably her junior, especially if she happens to be a rich countess. At least the Countess Esterhazy has been sued for $100,000 damages by a woman who feels that the Countess has won her husband's affections. The Countess objected to taking the papers when they were served, but as they came with a lot of ostensible Christmas presents she yielded, protesting. She is a prominent society woman in Washington, and did not even know that her male friend was married.

The Colton Ginning Report.—On Friday evening last, "wide open stood the doors" of the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stone, and the gentle breeze that softly caressed the rosy cheeks of smiling maidens and their courtly cavaliers, were fragrant with the welcome that wafted thence and that surrounded that home with an indefinable charm that makes it ever a shrine at which all devotees of pleasure are wont to worship.

Never did the hostess look more queenly, never did she dispense hospitality with more lavish hand, and never did wit, mirth and laughter so characterize an entertainment.

The parlors and dining rooms were a bewitching display of flowers, ferns, palms, mirrors, rose colored lights, crystals, china and dainty vases. The festooned portieres indicated the dividing line between the reception hall and the dining hall, where on flower-decked tables were "festal dainties" that would have satisfied Epicurus himself even on his blackest and most unreasonably mood.

The guests in whose honor the evening's entertainment was arranged, were two attractive cousins of the hostess, Misses Hattie and Estelle Cornell. The former was really handsome in an opal-tinted silk and the latter was a becoming glow of mouseline-de-soie and white silk.

A salient feature of the evening was a geographical contest. The cards on which the questions were written were of rough water-color.

The latest wholesale quotations show the following to be the prices at the ports: The manufacturers will pay 60 cents per unit for phosphoric acid, 70 for potash and $2.40 to $2.50 for ammonia. The plant food in a ton of the standard fertilizer would cost the manufacturer $12.60. That would leave him $7.40 for paying freight, mixing, sacking and shipping. There is about the same difference between the cost and selling price of all goods.

The cost of the acid-potash 10.4 cents per unit of material wholesale is $8.80. The price in carload lots is $16, leaving for the manufacturer $9.20. Kainit is quoted at ports of entry at $4.05 a ton. There is no mixing to be done. Yet the manufacturers ask about $5 to $6 for handling the goods. Last week nitrate of soda was quoted at $2.10 a hundred in New York. Your correspondent has not learned what the dealers in the up country ask for handling that.

But the manufacturers have the farmers in a hole. They have to buy from a company in the combination or let it alone. All the small factories are said to have been forced into the combination. Farmers, whether they want a sack or a hundred tons, can buy only from the agents. The price has been fixed and all make the same deals.

There can be no possible competition except the effort made by the smaller companies to get their goods off at the fixed price. The manufacturers and their agents are independent and they make little of the protests of farmers against the high price of fertilizers saying that the farmers will buy when the time comes whatever the price may be. They are obliged to have their agents to come to our price.

Such is the condition today. Farmers may hold meetings and protest, but it appears that combination has the grip on them for this season. No sort of legislation will help them out. If the manufacturers wish to add 25 per cent to the price for the spring trade there is no law to prevent it and no sort of competition to stop their movement.

Domestic Troubles.—It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's Little Liver Pills around. King's trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c. at all druggists. T. & F.

How We Catch a Cold.—A cold is sometimes contracted while remaining inactive for a while in an uncomfortable room or a cold draught and by failing to sleep under nice conditions. But most colds are caught while sleeping too cold at night. Deep sleep causes sluggish circulation which renders the system susceptible to change of temperature. To prevent colds, sleep under plenty of cover. To cure colds use Rydies' Elixir, it cures the severity and shortens the duration of a cold and prevents Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Consumption. T. S. The Fertilizer Problem.—SPRINGFIELD, January 5.—Special to News and Courier. Last Saturday the Beech Island Farmers' Club met and discussed the fertilizer question in a business way. They protested against the advance in the price of fertilizers and the low price paid to cotton seed. They allege that cotton seed oil mills ran the price down to $12 a ton, and they announced it as their intention to keep their seed low when the mills are offering $18 a ton. They will also go before the legislature to advocate the manufacture of commercial fertilizers by the state.

In talking with a prominent fertilizer agent a few days ago he said that the price was too low last season; that a certain company had put the price down in order to run all small and competing companies out of business. Failing in that they had the price raised this season and now they have the price too high.

It would be well to consider how the matter stands. The fertilizer acid 2 per cent potash and 1 per cent ammonia, called a standard fertilizer, will be considered. It contains 15 pounds phosphoric acid and 40 each of potash and ammonia. The total plant food is 240 pounds. Besides this there are 1,200 pounds of filler worth nothing to the farmer. That grade of goods is now sold at $20 a ton cash in this market.

Consider the price paid for the plant food by the manufacturer. The latest wholesale quotations show the following to be the prices at the ports: The manufacturers will pay 60 cents per unit for phosphoric acid, 70 for potash and $2.40 to $2.50 for ammonia. The plant food in a ton of the standard fertilizer would cost the manufacturer $12.60. That would leave him $7.40 for paying freight, mixing, sacking and shipping. There is about the same difference between the cost and selling price of all goods.

Ruth Cleveland is Dead.—PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 7.—Ruth Cleveland, the eldest child of ex-President Grover Cleveland, died at the Cleveland home here today very unexpectedly, the immediate cause of death being a weakening of the heart action during a mild attack of diphtheria. Dr. Wickoff, the attending physician, said that Miss Cleveland had been ill with a mild form of diphtheria for four days and that the heart affection was not anticipated.

The Cleveland household is grief-stricken over the death of the eldest daughter and the first messenger of condolence are being received. The private school which Ruth attended has been closed for the rest of the week out of respect.

President John N. Finley of the College of the City of New York, Mr. Cleveland's personal friend, has come here to make all arrangements for the funeral. The interment will take place tomorrow.

In response to many inquiries President Cleveland gave out the following statement today: "After a few days' illness, which began with an attack of tonsillitis and developed yesterday suddenly into diphtheria, our eldest daughter, Ruth, died today suddenly."

Ruth Cleveland was born on Oct. 3, 1891, in her father's residence at 681 Madison avenue, New York, after Mr. Cleveland had served his first term as president. She was named after Mrs. "Baby Ruth" was a great favorite in Washington society during her father's second term in the White House. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland have four remaining children.

It is now understood that it was the child's illness that prevented Mr. Cleveland's attendance at the dinner to Mayor McClellan in New York on Jan. 4.

The funeral services will be conducted at the Cleveland home, conducted by Rev. Matiland Bartlett, Mr. Cleveland, with President Finley, of the College of the City of New York, Dean Andrea West and a few intimate friends will accompany the body to Princeton cemetery, where interment will take place. It is said the other children show no signs of diphtheria.

A Very Close Call.—"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and very nervous. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." "I was sickly, run-down people all ways gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists." Price 50 cents.

She's a Bird.—Mrs. S. William Robbin, of Louisville, Ky., was recently married to David Buzzard. It is her fourth matrimonial venture. She was a Miss Martin, of one of the best known Bourbon county families. She first married Robert Crow. He died and she married John Sparrow six months afterwards. She and Mr. Sparrow did not agree and she divorced him. Mrs. Sparrow became Mrs. William Robbin, but again a divorce was found advisable. After a year of lonely life, Mrs. Robbin has become Mrs. David Buzzard. She has two Crow, one Sparrow, one Robbin and a Buzzard at her home. Mrs. Buzzard is a bird, it there is anything in a name.—Albany (Ga.) Herald.

Saved From Terrible Death.—The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt, of Barretton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned the tide of joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most reliable cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Cost, bottles Free and 50c. 50c. Trial bottles Free at all druggists. T. & F.

Congratulations.—Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We now have five children and have used it to all of them with good results. For sale by J. J. Stringfellow. T. & F.

Lines has the keen sense of humor and has enlisted many a dinner with bright talks. At a recent Chamber of Commerce dinner he carried off the anecdotal honors with the following story: "At the time of King Edward's recovery from his threatened fatal illness with appendicitis," he said, "thanksgiving services were held all over the kingdom. At one of these the services were to close with the singing of a well known hymn, which happened to be in the pack of the books used in that parish. "Let us close the services," the pastor said, "by singing the hymn, 'Peace, Perfect Peace,' in the appendix."—Newark (N. J.) Evening News.

Why More Circuits?
In view of the crowded dockets, the special terms and the cry for additional circuits and judges, the inquiry suggests itself to one who drops into a temple of justice during a term of court, "Why don't they get busy?" The judge is reading a newspaper. The applicant is running through the papers in search of a case that can be tried, but most of them have to be continued.

What's the matter? Why is the court not at work? No case ready. Why about Smith's case? Witnesses absent, think they can be here by tomorrow evening, and the case is set for the next day. Why don't they try Brown? His lawyers say they have not had an opportunity to get the case ready and they ask to adjourn until tomorrow. The court hesitates a minute but grants the request. The grand jury comes in and promises to set the wheels in motion. A true bill is returned against William Thomas, alias Bill Thompson, alias Will Tompkins for larceny. He has no lawyer and pleads his own case, affording much amusement, and is convicted, after continuing some unnecessary time. George Washington is charged with perjury. He has no counsel and a young lawyer is requested by the court to represent him. The attorney gets an older lawyer to assist him and they ask for a little time, which request appears reasonable. The case of the state vs. Grover C. Whites called. He is charged with trespass after notice—shooting ducks on the reservation of Benjamin F. Farmer. For some reason, there seems to be a revival of interest. Another lawyer draws up to the side of the solicitor, and several others appear to have a common interest in the defense. They get a young lawyer to indigument them for a few moments, and beckoning to Mr. White and some other distinguished looking gentlemen, they retire to a jury room. In about 10 minutes they return and beg to inform "his Honor" that they are really very anxious to go on with the case, and hope to be able to do so during the term, but several important witnesses who were expected today have not arrived; they must have mistaken connection, surely they will be here on the morning trial. It is also true that the attorney who has had charge of the case chiefly has been suffering with a bilious attack. Yet he will sacrifice his own comfort and take the risk of serious illness, against the protest of his physician, unless he is unable to get out. It is learned later that the most important witness did not arrive and the attorney had a turn for the worse, and the case was continued.

During the week drags its weary length through the courts and civil dockets, and court finally adjourns before its time is out with half or more of the cases continued, out of consideration for the advantage, convenience or good will of persons who do not feel inclined to go to trial, and therefore are not ready, after months of time to prepare.

During the term the grand jury in its report takes occasion to thank the presiding judge for his "uniform courtesy." The reports for the daily papers, as well as the local papers, are unanimous in their commendation. "It is the first time that judge So-and-so has presided in this county, and he is making a fine impression. The members of the bar, who are best qualified to judge, are especially pleased with his rulings."

It is true that persons interested in staying off cases had pretty much their own way and most of the court's time was being wasted, but then the judge was indulging in "uniform courtesy" and "making a fine impression," and no one in particular felt that it was his business to kick.

Most of our South Carolina judges are excellent men, incorruptible and impartial, upright in their own lives and zealous for the reign of law and the punishment of crime, but few of them are of stern enough stuff to buck the crowd and expedite the work of the court. They would not sacrifice justice for a "fine impression," yet in the kindness of their hearts they permit interested parties to impose upon them and the public.

We believe that the remedy for the crowding of dockets and the delay of business is in the hands of the judges, without any additional circuits or special terms. Let the courts we have get busy before we make any more courts.

We have seen examples of the dispatch of business that were complete proof of our contention, and we have to refer to some of these on our next issue.

Miss Susan B. Anthony's 84th birthday is to be extensively celebrated on Feb. 15th. She taught 25 years and then devoted her time largely to temperance work and anti-slavery work, but chiefly to the cause of woman suffrage.

Progress, the organ of the American Woman Suffrage Association, says:

"She has lived to see woman have the right to vote in four states, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and Idaho, where they vote on all questions just as the men do. In addition they vote on some questions in over twenty other states."

"President Roosevelt is the only man who has ever occupied the office of Chief Executive of our Nation who has, in his public career, asked a legislative body to endorse the question of woman suffrage. This Mr. Roosevelt did when he was Governor of the State of New York."

It will be seen that Mr. L. E. Sigmon, of Blackstock, has several young home-raised mules for sale. These mules are about as tough as a pine knot and do not have to go through a spell of sickness before they are acclimated. If taken care of, they are good for 20 or 25 years. Every farmer in Chester county, ought to have a young mule for sale. In this case, of course there would be no market for them in this county, but they would go like hot cakes in Fairfield, York, Lancaster and Union.

Letter to Dr. H. E. McConnell, Chester, S. C.

Dear Sir: You understand chemistry; how'd you like to earn $1000?

Leads lead-and-zinc—that's the name of our patent that takes fewer than ten mixed pills—weighs just as long as lead-and-zinc is made of white-lead, white-zinc, its color, turpentine dryer, and linseed oil.

If any chemist finds any adulteration in this patent will pay his bill, and $1000 besides.

It's nobody's business what we put in our patent, or how we make it, we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and linseed oil, ground together by machinery, are the stuff to paint with; and lead-and-oil mixed by hand is not.

We want it known that one word describes the best paint in the world; and that word is Devco.

Are you coming to paint?

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.

Prompt Payment.

Mr. J. W. Wax, secretary of the Endowment Rank K. of P., of this section, informs us that he forwarded death proofs of Mr. Saling Heyman, on December 28, and he received a check for $1,000 on January 6, the only nine days paying the claim. One of the important features of this order is the great promptness with which it pays its death claims.

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's a new stuff for Buckle's Pain-Expeller. Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, toos, etc, at all druggists.

Gotham Is Great.
The net bonded debt of the city of New York is $334,169,491, with a temporary debt of $68,000,000. The net increase in the city's debt for the years 1902 and 1903 is $67,142,747. Think of it: in two years it has increased ten times as great as the total debt of South Carolina. Gotham is a great city—The State.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and saps ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child grows up, the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passages, yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar bottles. Write for a sample bottle by mail.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle and mention this paper.

W. R. NAIL'S RED RACKET STORE.

Just received another Big Lot of Odd Beds. These beds were bought before the advance, consequently can save you money.

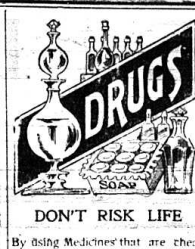

See our Big Stock of Racket Goods, consisting of Notions, Shoes, Hats, Crockery Ware, Glass Ware, Agate Ware and Tinware. Remember these goods do not come to us through the regular credit channels, but from bankrupt merchants and cripple credit concerns. Many of them rated high but who bet their existence upon the tiger of time and were swept like chaff before the pitiless blast of the pitiless storm, and whose epitaph is written in the lonely dirge, "Gone." Yes, we are now receiving goods from the great auction sales of the north, thus you will readily see we can in many instances, sell at prices away below the actual cost of production. The hammer of the sheriff does not injure the fabric, but it everlastingly shivers the price. Live and let live is our motto.

Wishing one and all a happy and prosperous New Year, I remain your humble and obedient servant,

On last Tuesday afternoon the Herald Press was stopped in order that a short notice might be inserted of the marriage of Prude Ratterree and Miss Sidie Friedheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Friedheim. That notice ran through a portion of our edition. The marriage was not a surprise to many of the intimate friends of the contracting parties, nor was it so to the reporter, but it was to many of our citizens. The marriage was without fuss or furor, but it cemented in the bonds of eternal love two hearts that lived for each other and their blended lives will doubtless be as happy, just as beautiful, just as successful, as if they had been surrounded by song and music, flowers and marriage bells, mistletoe and holly, and the usual scene of beauty in which the beaux and belles of the community were given an opportunity to display their best. Prude Ratterree is a fine young business man, his habits are good, he is clever and genial and will be a good husband to the woman who has trusted her heart and hand to his keeping. The bride is sensible and sweet-tempered and was the dol of her father's heart. Nothing was said to the old folks about this marriage, and while they would have preferred to have had the news broken to them earlier, they have forgiven all and taken the groom and his bride into their continued love and esteem. They are boarding with Mr. J. E. Reid. On Wednesday they were the guests of honor at a dinner at the home of the bride's parents at which Mr. Friedheim proposed a very loving toast to their health and long years of happiness. -Rock Hill Herald. Bullrun Grange will meet Saturday 10th at 11 o'clock. All members are urged to attend. W. Y. WHITE, Master.

Lee's Birth-Day. The 9th will be an interesting day in Confederate circles. Crosses of Honor will be presented to a number of veterans, and at that occasion Mr. James F. Hart, of Yorkville, will deliver an address. It is expected that the stones to be erected at the graves of the unknown Confederate dead in Evergreen cemetery will be in place by that time. The stones are here and work on them is in progress. Those especially in charge are much pleased with their appearance. The flag pole on the grounds, the flag is made and it will be thrown to the breeze that day. The following program was handed us after the foregoing was set up: Opera house 10:30. Prayer by Rev. H. O. Judd, chaplain Walker-Gaston camp. Song - Bonnie Blue Flag. Address - Maj. Jas. F. Hart. Song - The Vacant Chair. Bestowal of Crosses by Chester Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy. Music - Dixie. INTERMISSION. Reassemble at opera house at 11:30 and proceed to cemetery. Address by Maj. Hart. Unveiling tablet to unknown Confederate dead, by little Misses Lottie Klutz and Kattie James, grand-daughters of veterans. Response, accepting the work, by R. B. Caldwell, E. q. Mrs. J. Q. Hood will have charge of the music. It has been found that the stones cannot all be placed before the 19th, and therefore only one will be erected as a representative, the work to be pushed to completion afterward. It is known to our readers that these markers were secured not under the auspices of any organization, but by the efforts of Col. J. W. Reed, in which, of course, he had the cooperation of many others. Following are the names of the veterans who will receive crosses on this occasion: Atkinson, J. B. Bigham, J. W. Boyd, G. W. Caskey, Inos. Cornwall, E. E. Curawell, W. J. J. Dave, R. C. Gibson, A. Gibson, C. H. Hough, J. M. Hudson, Inos. G. Kigo, R. F. Hamilton, Randolph, Ligon, J. N. Mehaffey, W. W. McWatters, S. M. Several Reasons Why the JEWELS Are the Best Ranges on the Market:

They are very heavy and are substantially and mechanically built, are lined with extra heavy asbestos sheeting, which keeps an even temperature in the oven.

The oven bottom is made in sections so as to prevent warping.

The excelsior is perfectly balanced and drops down without a jar, forming a nice bread shelf on which to slide the pans out.

They also have the new broiler attachment and draft feed as well as the dumping ash grate, heavy fire box linings, and a tight warming closet that keeps food warm and moist.

The Jewels have stood the test of time, and are more universally used than any other range. You can find that out for yourself
