New National Book Awards Nominee – A Government Document?

Yes, in the list of nominees for the prestigious National Book Awards, you will find a government document! The 9/11 Commission Report is among five nominees in the nonfiction category. This account of the events surrounding September 11, 2001 has sold over one million copies since its release in July, 2004!

The full report can be checked out from Dacus Library or purchased through bookstores and discount stores. It is also available to you full-text online from GPO Access at <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/911/index.html>.

The National Book Awards winners will be announced on November 17th.

Come see us in the Government Documents Department (upstairs in Dacus Library).
