Columbia, Special.—The executive committee of the Temperance Law and Ordes league, which was pragnared fair week, met in the city last week and prepared an address be issued to the people of South Carolina. Constitution, and by laws were also adopted. It was decided to put a man in the field at Sonce. The necessary cided to put a man in the field at once. The necessary expenses must be met by voluntary contributions. All who are interested in the welfare of the state are urged to send contributions to treasurer of the league, Mr. Howell Morrell, of Horrell, Richland county.

After the adjournment of the committee meeting, the chairman, Capt. J. W. Hamel, editor of the Kershaw Era, stated that the mem bers are very much in earnest they have met with much encour-agement and expect to succeed. In

Christmas Gifts

In selecting Christmas gifts, either for old, for a lady or gentleman, the following FOUR POINTS are looked for almost without exception by the giver, and always appreciated by the

- A gift should be appropriate to the receiver. A fine piece of strictly high class Jewelry is acceptable to almost any one at any time.
 A gift that is useful is preferable to useless trinkets, such as cheap jewelry and poorly made silver novelites.
- made silver novemes.

 3. A gift should be beautiful (to please the eye) as well as useful, and beauty in Jewelry depends upon design, style and finish.

 4. A gift should be durable as well as beautiful to serve as a lasting as well as pleasing reminder of the eye.

We buy only the finest goods, use only the best and most reliable workmen, and tell you what an article is when you buy from us.
