Wyllie Mill Letter. Wyllie Mill, Jan. 8.—A negro man by the name of Wallace Thum...

Their Reward is High. The following story from the New York Independent, is evidently true...

Master Ernest Black, of Rock Hill, spent last week with Master Harley Jordan.

I have now been an itinerant Methodist preacher almost twenty-eight years. My salary since I was married...

Mr. J. C. Pittman and son, Mr. Sam Pittman, went to Lancaster gold mine one day last week to visit the former's son, Mr. Joe Pittman and family.

We have arranged to offer free with The Lantern, for a limited time only, the Farm and Fireside, a good home, farm, stock and poultry paper...

Miss Hattie and Master Joe Nunery spent a day and night not long ago at B. J. White's of Lyles.

Remember that you can get the Farm and Fireside free with The Lantern, if you ask for it, and have your subscription paid for this year—before it is too late.

Mr. J. E. Nunery spent Wednesday and Wednesday night in Chester, S. C. Mr. George and Miss Many Nunery spent several days not long ago with relatives near Fort Lawn.

Other combinations. Many ladies desire more stories and reading about dress and fashions than we can give in The Lantern.

Mr. Hilliard Pittman, of Rieburg, spent Sabbath with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pittman.

What is the matter with the who-knif-writers? There is hardly any more news one letter in the paper...

Mr. J. F. Leaptrout, who has served as director of the Springdale band for the past ten months, has tendered his resignation, the same to go into effect today. The band will secure the services of some other professional musician as soon as possible. This organization is now in splendid condition in every respect, and the outlook is extremely bright.

Preaching at Mt. Zion.

The executive committee of the Chester Baptist Association met in this city Friday afternoon in the office of the clerk of court with the majority of the members present. In the absence of the chairman, Rev. E. D. Wells, Rev. C. W. Salter served in that capacity. Capt. W. H. Edwards acted as clerk. The committee took action on a request from Mt. Zion Baptist Church for financial assistance in securing a pastor. On motion it was decided to extend this assistance. Rev. J. H. Yarborough, of Fort Lawn, will undertake the work, giving to the church one Sabbath in each month.

Child Badly Burned.

The infant daughter of Mr. Patterson, Springdale Mill, was very seriously burned at her parents' home last Wednesday afternoon. She was seated in a rocking chair by the fire in company with two brothers, both small boys. These little boys began to play and in their gambols knocked the child out of her chair into the fire. The little girl was fearfully burned in the face and in addition to the burns thus received she was badly scalded by the contents of a vessel which happened to be on the fire. Dr. H. E. McConnell was called in and dressed the burns. The child is reported as considerably improved, and she will probably recover.

Mr. A. M. Aiken is wearing a handsome gray suit made from a piece of jeans woven in Oconee county. The material of the suit is from the same mill as the material of which was presented to Uncle Joe some weeks ago by Congressman Wyatt Allen.

Our Place in Statuary Hall.

Yorkville, S. C. Jan. 10th, 1906.

To the Editor of "The Lantern":

Dear Sir: We, the undersigned, representing the Kings Mt. Chapter, D. A. R., Yorkville, S. C., wish to call your attention, and that of your readers to work, in which we beg your cordial help and cooperation. It has long been a source of regret and mortification that South Carolina has no representative in the National Statuary Hall at Washington.

"The Statuary Room was the old Hall of Representatives, and it was the scene of the debates of Webster and Clay, Adams, Calhoun and others whose names are indelibly associated with the history of congress. In 1861, at the suggestion of Senator Morrill, of Vermont, the room was set apart as a National Statuary Hall, to which each state might send the effigies of two of her chosen sons in marble or bronze, to be placed permanently here.

No South Carolinian ever views these state statues erected by practically all the states of the union, in memory of the "chosen sons," without wondering why our own place has been so long empty, and wishing that we too, could point with pride to a representative, occupying the space allotted to South Carolina.

The Kings Mt. Chapter is desirous of starting a movement to remedy this long standing neglect. We have written to every woman's organization in the state, asking them to join us in petitioning the legislature to appropriate at this present session the sum of $2500 (twenty-five thousand dollars) for the purpose of erecting a statue of John C. Calhoun in the National Statuary Hall in Washington.

We regard Calhoun as South Carolina's most representative man. He was for forty years the most conspicuous and influential figure in National politics; he was representative, senator, secretary of state and vice-president.

We do hope that you will give us your support and help in this work. We wish through your paper to appeal to every Carolinian man and woman, to honor this draft upon your patriotism and beg them to respond to the effort we are making to have our beloved state take her rightful place in the Hall of the Nation.

We shall be exceedingly obliged, if you will give this letter a place in the columns of your paper.

Very Respectfully Yours,
Mrs. VIRGINIA MASON BRATTON,
Miss LESSIE D. WITHERSPOON,
Mrs. S. M. MORREY,
Mrs. G. M. O'LEARY,
Mrs. WALTER B. MOORE—Regent.

WANTED—To employ four men who can give good references to sewing machines and collect on no accounts. Can give assistance if necessary to get men. Ad. 31009—Sew. Machine Co., Chester, S. C.

Back from New Orleans.

Messrs. J. G. L. White and T. J. Cunningham have returned from the meeting of the Southern Cotton Association in New Orleans. In a conversation yesterday Mr. White expressed himself as very highly impressed with what was done by the association. He is convinced that in Harvie Jordan the cotton growers have the right man, a fine speaker, and he enjoys the unbounded confidence of the entire membership.

Mr. White says that a spirit of harmony prevailed the meeting and the entire assembly pledged itself to work for the attainment of the purpose which now seem so nearly in sight. About 2,500 delegates were in attendance on the meeting, all of the cotton growing states being well represented, except the extreme western states which have marketed their cotton.

Mr. E. E. Smith, of this state, addressed the convention, and as might have been expected he received quite an ovation. Mr. White says that the delegates irrespective of state applauded the eloquent son of South Carolina and expressed a desire to have him labor in their states.

The Man from the City.

The city man said he was struck
Upon the rural life.
No longer wished to run amuck
In noise and dust and strife.
Said he, "I'd like to hush the eggs,
And dig the new, mown hay,
And monkey with the humping pigs,
And milk the cows for whey."
"I'd like to pick the cream and cheese
And dig the apple crop,
And feed a team of pure white geese
And feed the chickens loose."
"It would be fun to groom the pigs
And curry off the cows
And hitch the roosters into rigs
And work the threshing plows."
"I would be a treat to shell the oats
And pick the buckwheat flour,
And gather wilds from the goats
And sort them by the hour."
"I'd like to cultivate the bees
And pump the pale-blue milk,
And pick the pumpkins from the trees,
And do things of that ilk."
"I'd like to pick the little lambs
And skin the gentle leams,
And gather in the fresh smoked hams
And put the wags in pens."
"I would be the bluest for me
I fear not for work or strife,
I need the rest, you see."
—Exchange.

"No, I never go to vandyvas shoes," said the collector, refusing the invitation.

"Why not?" asked his friend.

"Because I've gotten of it. In my business most everybody gives a song and dance of one kind or another."—Detroit Free Press.

One Bird Barred.

"Can we keep birds?" inquired Mr. Youngstonsband, who was looking at the fat.

"Well, you can keep canaries and such birds as them," replied the general landlord, but there's one bird barred from these apartments.

"What bird is that?"

"Stork," Louisville Courier-Journal.

Debt Collector: I have called to get payment of an account against your master.

Servant (promptly): My master's not in.

Debt Collector: Why, I saw him go in at the door a moment ago.

Servant: Yes, but he saw you and was over the back wall in a jiffy.—London Tit-Bits.

Suffrage leader: You don't seem the least worried about the fact that women are crowding men out in every profession.

Mr. E. E. Smith, no, mum. They'll never crowd men out in de tramp profession, mum.
