Clipped Hair and Pretty Ears In For Winthrop

It seems as if the era has hit for Winthrop. Off in Charleston with trendy length hair and returning with parking are definitely Winthrop girls when Winthrop didn't want them.

A HELLO A PLAY
Writing to Eileen Holmes, of the Daily, she says, "I'd really like to have a chance to see the "Tallahulah" with the little-known Tallahulah Bankhead. Miss Tallahulah Bankhead is a new star."

And from the Journal: "Evelyn L. Jeffers, of the school, said she hadn't realized how much damage was done to her hair by the cold, rain, and wind of the season."

BANKHEAD YOUNG GORGED
The little-known Miss Tallahulah Bankhead who played a rip of the first of the three stars in "Tallahulah" is greatly amused over the fans who appear at the show and wonder where they got her in their

"A Day At Winthrop With Spartanburg Girls' Features State Sunday Paper

Arthur Gurley, photographer and sports editor of the Spartanburg Journal, spent a day on the campus recently, and took back with him a set of pictures of Spartanburg girls on the campus. It was a nifty layout the Sunday Herald-Journal made of Gurley's pictures, and The Johnsonian is reproducing most of the page for its readers.

Not only did the Herald-Journal devote the second best page of its Sunday issue to Winthrop, but it sent The Johnsonian prints of all the pictures, together with the original plate being used in this issue. For that gesture The Johnsonian says "Thank you".

Used in the series of photos were four Spartanburg girls, picked for their photogenic qualities, one from each class in school. Helen Hair for the freshman class; Elizabeth Staton for the sophomore, Katherine Jett for the juniors, and Sarah Hicks for the seniors. More than 70 Spartanburg county girls are registered at Winthrop for the current year.

Winthrop Girls Do 'Everything And Nothing' Over Holidays

Penny-Pinchers Recipe

Dr. Margaret Morris, dean of the College of Education, is the first to admit that the girls to make in the kitchen instead of going to the stores with select material. Her recipe is for:

Frank T. Smith's Chocolate Cake

The cake is moist and delicious, and the chocolate flavor is balanced with the sweetness of the raisins. Perfect for any occasion, this recipe serves.

For 2 cakes

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 3/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup raisins

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 350°F (175°C). Grease two 9-inch round baking pans.
2. In a large bowl, whisk together the flour, sugar, cocoa, baking powder, and salt.
3. In a separate bowl, whisk together the milk, oil, eggs, and vanilla.
4. Add the wet ingredients to the dry ingredients and stir until just combined.
5. Fold in the raisins.
6. Pour the batter into the prepared pans and bake for 25-30 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted into the center comes out clean.
7. Allow the cakes to cool in the pans for 10 minutes, then remove from the pans and cool completely on a wire rack.
8. Serve the cake at room temperature.

Variations

- Substitute applesauce for 1/2 cup of the milk to make the cake moist and dense.
- Add 1/4 cup of chopped pecans or walnuts for a crunchy bite.

Cooking Tip

- Store the cakes in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 5 days.
- For a special occasion, top the cake with whipped cream and a dusting of powdered sugar.

Recipe Source

Dr. Margaret Morris, dean of the College of Education, shares her family recipe for Frank T. Smith's Chocolate Cake, which has been a family favorite for generations.

WHILE AWAY:

Last weekend girls indulged in practically every kind of recreation. From post-holiday gatherings we gather that there was much good bowling, plenty of dancing in all forms, and Martha Richards even indulged in a bit of boating in the Massey Lake. Nona Thomas, who said she's looking forward to a spring trip, added that she's planning to go to the Sunnyside festival during spring holidays.

The forerunner, however, we feel is still to come.
