The Alumnae Issue

Next week the Alumnae Association will edit The Joanhillian. The alumnae secretary, after being asked the staff for the privilege of getting out an alumna issue, was authorized to go to all of the alumnae in the State. The staff, complying with the request, give the issuing of an alumna issue that purport to come out in our examination week, releases the student editors. The paper, while not usual subscriptions, but is sent to alumnae on the campus. As all of the matter will pertain very largely to alumnae issue, although the issue will not be sent to subscribers, it is hoped that as a result of this issue, the staff, complying with the request, give the alumna interest in the paper will be considerably increased and that to alumna subscriptions will grow in consequence.

Basketball

The basketball season for 1923 closed Tuesday with a final victory for the Senior team. This victory may justly be termed highly successful, and honor is due not only to the winning team, but to all those who took part. Splendid playing and true sportsmanship were put up a strong fight and the winning of the silver cup was not only certain shots at that goal, but face to face with her guard. Matthews, Senior side center, was swift and sure with the ball, and MeLuren. How a Customer Profited By Our Advice

"I've got $50 in my savings account and $20 in bonds. I need $50 cash. What shall I do—draw out the money or sell the bond?" a savings customer asked one of our officers.

"Solitaire," was the reply. "Remove from your pocket, pay the lass gradually, slowly, and you'll have the bonds close and still have the savings account. You'll be better off, because you'll be earning interest on your entire $50."
