MAYTIME IS THEME OF FETE

May Day Recalls Old South
Willimon To Crown Laye In Ceremony Beginning At Five O'Clock Tomorrow

Recalling the era of the Old South, the delicate music, beautiful women in bouffant skirts, the slow and gracious living, tomorrow's May Day will be a memorable event. The chiffon, the entire Music Department for the Maytime theme, will transform the dining room into a flower garden for Junior-Senior tomorrow night.

Domitory Bill Now Awaits House Action

Making flowers, arranging tables, painting murals, sending invitations, preparing food, and making costumes are some of the jobs of these juniors who are shown here putting the finishing touch to Maytime decorations for Tomorrow's May Day. The most important task of all is to ensure that the entire party will proceed according to schedule.

The Winthrop College Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Derrill, will be heard again at eight o'clock in the Winthrop college auditorium. Miss Jean Clark, assistant director of the chorus, has received requests from all the classes for a special performance to conclude the evening. The program will include such well-known songs as "Ootid News From Heaven," "The Near Old South," and "The Land of a Thousand Lakes."

McMahan Heads Junior-Senior Workers

McMahan has been elected president of the Junior-Senior Workers. Other officers include: Miss Louise Birthright, vice-president; Miss Betty Johnson, secretary; and Miss Dorothy Sharp, treasurer. The minor offices for the three senior classes will be filled by election, and these will consist of: President, Miss Rosemary Braly; vice-president, Miss Betty Johnson; and secretary, Miss Evelyn Williams.

Placement Serves Both Girls And State

Hardin Announces Holiday Plans

The idea that a college has completed its work with a graduate only when she has secured a position of usefulness to herself and the State guides Winthrop's placement system. In its many activities, said Mr. J. K. Kelly, Placement officer, one of the most important is the placement of the graduate. He explained that the placement officer is fully equipped to aid the graduate in securing a position which will be satisfactory to both parties.

Junior-Senior Workers

The Junior-Senior Workers, under the leadership of Miss Jean Clark, have been busy preparing for the May Day celebration. The program will include songs, dances, and games, as well as a special performance by the Winthrop College Chorus.

Second Dance Scheduled For Annual Junior-Senior Tomorrow Night

With "Maytime" as the theme, and flowers and dancing as the order of the evening, the Junior-Senior Ball will be held on May 10 at the disposal of the Inquirer. Too.

SOPHOMORES ELECT MINOR OFFICERS

As a meeting of the young sophomores, the Student Body's class officers were elected by a majority vote. The students were active in their choice of officers, and the results were announced by the secretary of the Student Body.

The complete schedule of events for the week will be announced early this week. The programs include a variety of activities, such as dances, teas, and meetings, and will be held in the evening hours at the disposal of the campus community.

The Board of Trustees met this week to consider the recommendations of the placement committee. The members, who are elected by the students, are responsible for the coordination of all activities related to the placement of graduates.

Janitor's Son Spends Leisure Time Painting

By FANNY COWAN

His spare moments are not spent idly wheeling on street corners, as is often the way of other colored boys his age, James Biggs Jr., 17-year-old son of "John," Janitor of Kimball hall, utilizes his leisure time with a hobby in which he has been interested for some years now.

He has also painted some of his work which he has done for friends and relatives, and he has been provided with a number of houses which he has painted, in addition to the window boxes.

He has been much admired by his friends and relatives, and he is very pleased with the results.

When it comes to winning the good looking ballots, Miss Deed was ranked second in the eyes of the judges. She was the lady who received the most votes.

One word: "Miss Deed is a beautiful lady." Her beauty was evident in every corner of the ballroom. She stood out among the other contestants, captivating everyone with her grace and poise.

Athletic Banquet Enjoys Off-Court Chat

BY BETTY MANNAGAN

The annual Athletic Banquet was held recently at the College. The banquet was attended by over 500 people, including student athletes, coaches, and other members of the Athletic Department.

The evening began with a buffet dinner, followed by speeches and awards presentations. The banquet featured several guest speakers, including former Carolina basketball star, who shared his experiences and insight into the game.

Several awards were presented to student athletes for their outstanding performances during the past season. The banquet also served as an opportunity for the Athletic Department to thank all the dedicated coaches and support staff who contribute to the success of the athletic programs.

The evening concluded with a social hour, allowing everyone to enjoy each other's company and celebrate the achievements of the past season.

From the tailored shirts worn by the faculty to the neatly coiffed guests, the atmosphere was warm and inviting. The laughter and chatter filled the room, creating a joyful and enjoyable evening for all.

WHOSE WRITING HOME ONCE A WEEK IN MAJORITY AND THEIR LETTERS, ALMOST WITHOUT EXCEPTION ARE NEWSY, TO MOTHER AND DAD BOXES FROM HOME CONTAIN FOOD AND CLOTHES, COME FREQUENTLY AND WITHOUT FAIL. ONE FIFTH SEND JOHNSON HOME, AND NOT MANY HOME-TOWN PAPERS COME—USE OF WEEKENDS VARIES.

Knowing that thoughts of home have a big hook in the Winthrop mind, the Johnsonian tried to find just how closely the lassies in busy and white keep in touch with the home folks. We found that some of them write once a week, that they write many letters, that they come from every two weeks in the persons of the perpetual list of acquaintances that have gone up to "Mother and Dad", that the average girl doesn't send The Johnsonian, that she drops them before the week-end, that she takes them after the week-end. By the week-end she has her home letters in, and there's no telling what may happen to them. And Winthrop is exporting cooperation from the "town girls" in filling in the place.
