Ann Marchant Bull Robinson '43

Ann Marchant Bull Robinson was born in Columbia, SC on June 21, 1923. She was the daughter of William Pinckney Bull and Nettie O'Neil Walker. She was one of the first people to attend and graduate from Dreher High School. She graduated from Winthrop College with a degree in physical education. While at Winthrop she was involved in the band where she was secretary and also played saxophone and she was in Sigma Gamma Nu a club for physical education majors.

After graduation, Ann went to Washington to work for the War Department. After World War II Ann taught physical education at Erskine College where she met and married Robert Mack Robinson, Jr. They had four children. She was also an educator in Memphis, TN. She was treasurer on the Board of Trustees and Long Range Capital Campaign Chair for Bonclarken Conference Center in Flat Rock, NC. She was inducted into Bonclarken's Hall of Fame for her contributions as a Servant Leader.

Ann Bull Robinson passed away on August 5, 2011.
