Rosa Cannon Hancock Shuler '43

Born in Lee County, she was a daughter of the late William Louie Hancock and Elizabeth Franklin McSween Hancock. She graduated from Winthrop College with a degree in home economics. While at Winthrop she was involved in Phi Upsilon Omicron the home economics honor fraternity.

After graduation Rosa went to Washington to work as a cryptologist. After World War II Rosa married Morgan Thornwell Shuler and they had one son.

Mrs. Shuler was a dedicated member of McLeod Chapel United Methodist Church and she was also very active in the United Methodist Women. She was a retired educator from Sumter School District Two.

Rosa Cannon Hancock Shuler passed away on February 9, 2012.
