EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY A TRUST

A Given Time to Comply with the Law Before Final Decree is Entered.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 24.—The Eastman Kodak Company of New York has been declared a trust in violation of the Sherman law in decision by Judge John R. Hazel of the Federal Court. The decision grants the company an opportunity to present a plan for the abolition of the illegal monopoly on the first day of the November term.

Judge Hazel, in his opinion, stated that while it appeared that no remarkable hardship would result from a separation of the present business into two more separate companies, it was not at the time intended to indicate either a dissolution or reorganization.

It is no doubt possible, he said, that an adequate measure of relief might result from adopting the plan proposed by the company. The court, however, is not prepared to grant the application until the company has had an opportunity to present its plan to the court.

McAfee Predicts That Cotton Situation Can be Handled with Happy Results.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Secretary McAfee was prepared today to extend financial aid to the Southern cotton growers to the extent of $100,000,000, according to reports of the greatest advantage.

The secretary announced that in view of the action of the allies in making cotton contracts and that it is necessary to take either one of two courses to help the cotton producers. One of these plans is to deposit the gold directly with national banks, according to the report of the Secretary McAfee declared that if there was cooperation between the bankers, the merchants and producers the cotton situation could be handled with happy results.

GERMANS ACCUSE CANADIAN JAILERS

Camp Commander Says Conditions are Excellent, Food is Good, but Not Complained to Him.

Berlin, Aug. 25, via London.—As the result of increasingly serious reports concerning the treatment of German civilian prisoners interned at Amherst, Nova Scotia, a dispatch which men, bound in an unhygienic and unsanitary factory had been punished for attempted escape and less serious infractions of the rules by confinement in a brick oven.

The German authorities are now contemplating retaliatory measures against Canadian, both soldiers and civilians, imprisoned here. Approximately 700 Germans are now in the camp.

The German authorities who freely admit that the conditions under which imprisoned Germans are living in England and Canada are not as good as those in Germany.

Even letters of complaint praise the conditions under which they are held in the United States. The German officials believe that the conditions under which they are held in the United States are not as good as those in Germany.

BLEASE WILL RUN BLOODY TOWER OPEN FOR GOVERNOR

Newberry Herald and His Publisher Letters in Which He Declares Positively He Will Run.

The Newberry Herald and News today publishes a long letter from former Gov. Cole L. Blease addressed to W. P. Beard of Asheville, in which Mr. Blease states positively that he will run in the race if he ever runs next summer. He also says that he is no deal between himself and Senator Cooper.

The Herald and News introduces Mr. Blease and notes that he is over a column in length as follows: Gov. Blease makes the positive statement that he will be a candidate for governor in the fall of 1916. He says the demands for him to do so come from all parts of the State and that they are so strong he can not afford to deny them.

His statement is brought forth by an article which Mr. W. P. Beard published in the Scarboro News. Let us look at the article. It is to Mr. Blease in reply to the charges in that article that there had been a deal between Blease and Cooper.

As to the latter part of your article, permit me to state, 30 THINGS CAN BE MISUNDERSTANDING. I have not received letters from all parts of the State, but I do run for governor next year, and people from every part of the State have been to me and request that I run for governor next year.

At the first campaign meeting I shall raise the question of the right to life as I have never fought before for the cause of the people, which the great God of this universe will allow to be temporarily denied, but I shall raise the question of the right to life as I have never fought before for the cause of the people.

ITALIAN ARMY SHOES

Order Placed with Brockton Firm for 2,000,000 Pairs.

The C. A. Eaton Company, of Brockton, Mass., and with a local office at 127 Duane Street, has received an order for shoes from the Italian Government. The order is for 2,000,000 pairs of shoes.

The Eaton Company, with its present output of 100,000 pairs of shoes a week, will be required to produce 375,000 pairs in the same period. The latest contract to be awarded the Eaton concern is the third received by the firm. Other Brockton shoe manufacturing firms are looking for Government purchasing contracts now in the country.

BLOODY TOWER OPEN

Famous London Prison House Ready for Inquisitive Public.

The public has at last been admitted to the Bloody Tower of London at the foot of St. James's Park. The charge has been a wise imposition for the Bloody Tower is a small and its state is so deplorable that it would be a pity to let it fall.

The Bloody Tower is situated on the Waterford Tower, where the crown jewels were kept in the old east corner of the building, or inner rampart, and immediately above the archway that leads from the Traitors Gate to Tower Green.

Here I will give to a limited degree, the thoughts of the two men who were placed at the head of the two governments while in existence. In 1841 Davis said: "If the folly and fanaticism, pride, haughty and corruption of the day are to be destroyed, the only way is to strip the section part like the patriot of old and good will subsist between their descendants."

Let us look at the article. It is to Mr. Blease in reply to the charges in that article that there had been a deal between Blease and Cooper. As to the latter part of your article, permit me to state, 30 THINGS CAN BE MISUNDERSTANDING.

At the first campaign meeting I shall raise the question of the right to life as I have never fought before for the cause of the people, which the great God of this universe will allow to be temporarily denied, but I shall raise the question of the right to life as I have never fought before for the cause of the people.

GERMAN HAD TOO MANY PICTURES

Had Russian Photographs of Fortifications and Guns at Fort Monroe and Reservation at Cape Henry.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Gustav Kopsch, a young German employed as a messenger by the Marine Barracks here, was arrested last night by agents of the Department of Justice charged with violating the Federal law for protection of the national defense by making and transmitting to the enemy military reservations, his own and in $5000 bail and will be sent to Norfolk for trial in the United States District Court there.

According to the officers Kopsch had in his possession photographs of the fortifications and guns at Fort Monroe and of the reservation at Cape Henry Va. where the Government is planning to build works to defend the entrance to Chesapeake Bay.

Kopsch is 27 years old and has been in the United States two or three years. He was born in Germany. According to the Government information he served in the German Army and at the outbreak of the war reported to the German Government that he would return home for duty. His service was not accepted, it is said, because there was no way of getting reserves to Germany.

FRANK MURDERERS UNKNOWN TO JURY

Coroner's Inquest. Refuses to Return Verdict of Death at the Hands of 'Parties Unknown'.

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 24.—There was just one sense moment during the coroner's inquest here today in the lynching of Leo M. Frank. The jury rendered a verdict of death at the hands of "parties unknown," but it seemed at one time there might be a disclosure which would materially have altered the finding.

The trail of the lynching party was nearly reached when J. A. Benson, a Marietta merchant, testified that he drove by the oak thicket while the "parties unknown" were busy while the hanging was under way. Mr. Benson went so far as to say that he saw one or two of the men in the party step out of the woods in which they had dived, dressed in the plain farm at Millgroveville.

The witness frankly said that he had pretty strong suspicion of the men who were taking place, but he had not in the morning paper of Frank's abduction from Millgroveville and had been told by "Bill" Frey, further up the road, that several of the men had been identified by him and it looked like something was doing in the way of Frank.

As Benson untold the story the members of the jury and the several of them were looking at him. Benson in reply, both men spoke earnestly and scarce above a whisper. There had been a party of men who were in the vicinity of the hideout and that he was not in the vicinity of the lynching party. Mr. Benson explained that he did not tarry in the vicinity of the hideout and that he was not in the vicinity of the lynching party.

FRIDAY, AUGUST, 27.

AN UNFAILING SIGN.

Goods roads in any section of country is an unfailing sign of intelligence, prosperity, enlightenment and civilization. Bad roads like many which Chester county unfortunately possesses, shows exactly the opposite condition.

There is really no excuse for the miserable, impassable for a single day, more less in communities which have been long settled, and where the benefits of modern highways have been so often demonstrated. Intelligent, educated and enlightened people keep up the public road.

The mere pride and comfort of having a good road through a neighborhood ought to be incentive enough to ensure it to any nook of the actual financial value to both the producer and consumer of the products of the farm and garden.

While the above comments are unquestionably true, yet they will bear repetition from the simple fact that people are so desirous of performing the simplest duty of citizenship.

Many schemes and plans have been adopted, laws passed, and public funds expended looking to the building of fine roads and keeping them in passable condition, but unless there is an aroused public sentiment demanding the very best public highways, all of them have been more or less failures. The law now demands a road tax of $2.50 per annum or in lieu thereof labor upon the roads. If the law was strictly enforced there would either be a considerable fund available for road purposes or the roads would always be in good condition.

The real trouble is with the people themselves. Any community or section of Chester county road has good roads if the desire was strong enough. Either the tax money, intelligently expended, or the labor is all that is necessary. But whatever the cost, good roads will always pay.

SHOPPING.

A woman is a more careful shopper than a man. She has to buy twice as much for one-half the money, and usually does it. No woman is a good shopper unless she is familiar with all the stores, their goods and prices. If she bought a handkerchief on Wednesday for 2 cents which could have been purchased Tuesday for 20 cents, it would make her feel worse than the man who bought a six-cylinder automobile just before the eight-cylinder cars came out for less money.

Women read the advertisements closely and when an advertiser offers a bargain she sees it at a glance. She saves money by doing so and it is the sensible thing to do.

LIMITATIONS.

Fair Mary had a great big hat. She'd bought some time ago. The trim was very broad and flat. The crown was far too low.

Right cleverly she fell to work to cut the big trim down, and get a place bought in the band to decorate the crown.

And next she took the long black cord.

She'd used last year to drop her figures with, and really made a very stylish cape.

Then Mary met her Waterloo— Although she tried and tried she couldn't find a single way to cut her tight skirt wide!

DANIELS SPEAKS FOR STRONG NAVY.
Gives Executive Taste of Sea Life and View of Mantic Torpedo Attack.
Boston, Aug. 25.—A powerful and great navy and efficiency, so that it will be ready to defend the country against attack from any quarter, is the aim of Secretary Daniels. This he declared before the governor's conference at an adjourned session on board the flagship West of the North Atlantic fleet in Massachusetts bay.

For two hours the secretary stood on the bridge of the flagship with Admiral Fletcher put the fleet through maneuvers. It was during an attack and defense. The admiral, the governors in the admiral's cabin and told them why he had made them his guests for the afternoon.

The navy must abide to the interests of the whole country. It is to be strong and powerful and magnificent," the secretary said. "It is for the people, not the president or myself, to say how great it shall be. As you go to your homes you will speak the word that will help to determine this question.

The greatest thing that the navy is doing are not heralded. Since the war began there is not an officer in any department of the navy who has not taken advantage of its lessons. Experiments are proceeding day and night and today in every element our navy has no superior in the world. We do have superiors in size and numbers and it is for us to continue to strengthen our navy.

I believe we ought to increase our navy steadily so that in times of stress and emergency the real first strong arm of our country will be ready to defend our country. If it is attacked from any quarter."

The Wilmington picked up the governor at the Charleston navy yard, and, taking positions a few miles east of Boston lightship, became the target for attack by 25 torpedo destroyers who had passed in review with ten battleships. After the review appeared to have been ended the destroyers suddenly reappeared. On the flagship a general alarm signal to torpedo attack was sounded and soon the big gun of the Wilmington began to fire flank shots at the surrounding destroyers. The destroyers circled the flagship, pouring forth dense volumes of smoke made up of excessive use of oil. So the destroyers were hidden behind the cloud.

The screen suddenly was broken by the destroyer Ammen, which was observed dashing toward the Wilmington. The battleship's guns immediately stately were trained on the attacking ship and thundered away. The destroyer, however, came on and when she had approached within 1,000 yards discharged a torpedo. The missile was seen to strike the water and soon, submerged, made its way toward the flagship. The latter, however, in an instant had been slightly to starboard, with a full load of steam, and the speeding torpedo passed a few feet astern.

The attack by the destroyers was repeated and they withdrew.

After these exercises Secretary Daniels met with the governors and made his address. Late in the afternoon the party left in launches for Gloucester, where they stopped for a moment at the home of John Hays Hammond. Thence they went in automobiles to the Eastern Yacht club at Marblehead, where they were entertained at dinner by the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Secretary Daniels responded to a toast to President Wilson, paying a high tribute to the executive, and declaring that the president had left nothing undone to establish the proper defense.

And we've improved the tire's design in new ways found to give it added strength.
Cost $317,000
These improvements, on this year's output, will cost us $317,000.
Yet this year we made another big price reduction—our third in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.
Fannertown, Ky.—In interesting address from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be used in every family chest. Best Treatment for Catarrh S. S. S. Removes the Cause Specialists in Catarrh troubles have agreed that it is an infection of the blood. The laboratories of the S. S. S. Co., at Atlanta, have proven it. They get your blood free from impurities—cleansed of the Catarrhal poisons, which it is now a prey to because of its unhealthy state—then you will be relieved of Catarrh—the dripping in the throat, hawking and spitting, raw sores in the nostrils, and the disagreeable bad breath. It was caused, in the first place, because your impoverished blood was easily infected. Finally a slight cold or contact with someone who had a cold. But the point is—don't suffer with Catarrh—it is not necessary. The remedy S. S. S., discovered over fifty years ago, tested, true and tried, is always obtainable at any drug store. It has proven its value in thousands of cases. It will do so in your case. Get S. S. S. at once and begin treatment. If yours is a long standing case, be sure to write the S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., for free expert medical advice. They will tell you how this purely vegetable blood tonic cleanses the impurities from the blood by literally washing it clean. S., have been freed from the trouble and all its disagreeable features and restored to perfect health and vigor. Don't delay the treatment. Take S. S. S. at once.

CHESTER WELCOMES

COLUMBIA "BOOSTERS"

Refreshments served. Very good speeches made. Those who were pleased with the "Better Town."

Chester issued an invitation morning about 11 o'clock to give the Columbia "Boosters" a hearty welcome to the "Better Town." There was about 65 cars carrying about 250 "boosters" who entered the city via Columbia street into Camden and up the Hill where the bars assembled.

The entire crowd was then invited to the Commercial Club where a plentiful supply of refreshments awaited the thirty ones. Short addresses of welcome were extended by Dr. W. E. Anderson, President of the Club presiding, and J. L. Glenn, Mayor Davidson and R. B. Caldwell extended a most cordial welcome in behalf of the club, the city and the business interests of not only Chester but the entire country. The city was on the job and responses were made by Messrs. W. M. Pitt, Vice Chairman of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce, Dr. L. A. Griffin, Mayor of Columbia and J. A. Hoff, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The trip did not include a visit to York but Mr. Paul N. Moore, one of the progressive citizens of York was on the spot extending the glad hand of that thriving town, insisting that York was extremely anxious for the Columbia "Boosters" to visit in the town enroute to Rock Hill. It was an invitation which he could not easily be declined and without discussion it was decided to invade the "OH" zone.

After about thirty minutes in Chester the "boosters" left for Camden, where they will spend the night, via York, Rock Hill Lancaster and way stations.

CHESTER CAN HAVE

FLOUR-MILL

A representative of a milling machinery manufacturer was in the city today to see several parties who are interested in giving Chester a flour mill. These parties are very much interested in the establishment of a flour mill for Chester and it is assumed that the grain will be raised in the county will go ahead with the enterprise.

The population of Chester county is about 20,000 and according to statistics each person consumes about six bushels of wheat per annum. This would indicate that the consumption of Chester county is about 120,000 bushels of wheat per year. We are unable to ascertain the present wheat crop of the county, but we venture the assertion that we do not produce 25 per cent of the amount consumed.

One on Dr. Wylie.

Dr. Harvey W. Wylie, food expert tells of a trip he made to a place in Carolina to make a propagandist speech. It goes something like this: "I checked my bag at the station and opened an old dinky bag which I gave me to the hall. I seemed very much worried over my lack of baggage."

"Most every great what comes here's got something to sell," he said. "Maybe you got something to sell, boss."

"Oh yes," I told him, "I sell wit and wisdom."

"The old negro scratched his head and cogitated."

"Well, boss," he said finally, "you do first man I ever toled what didn't carry no samples."—National Food Magazine.

We are requested to announce that there will be a prohibition picnic at Cavalry Baptist church Tuesday, August 24th, Mr. Jas. L. Glenn, and J. M. Wiles will be the speakers for the occasion. The public is cordially invited to attend.
