

From Winthrop to Washington

Cryptology at Winthrop College

6-8-2016

Lou Alice Flynn Turner

Susanna O. Lee

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/winthroptowashington>

Recommended Citation

Lee, Susanna O., "Lou Alice Flynn Turner" (2016). From Winthrop to Washington. 17.
<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/winthroptowashington/17>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Cryptology at Winthrop College at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in From Winthrop to Washington by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

Lou Alice Flynn Turner '43

Lou Alice Flynn Turner was born on October 9, 1922 in Taylors, South Carolina. She was the daughter of James T. Flynn and Jennie M. Flynn.

She graduated from Winthrop College in 1943 with a degree in English. During World War II she worked as a cryptologist in Washington, DC. After World War II she taught elementary school as well as co-authored a history of Jackson Grove United Methodist Church. She was an excellent marksman, enjoyed her artistic endeavors, as well as her avian friends.

She was married to Sterling T. Turner Jr. She passed away on December 2, 2006.