

From Winthrop to Washington

Cryptology at Winthrop College

6-8-2016

Edna Earle Godwin Walker

Susanna O. Lee

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/winthroptowashington>

Recommended Citation

Lee, Susanna O., "Edna Earle Godwin Walker" (2016). From Winthrop to Washington. 18.
<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/winthroptowashington/18>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Cryptology at Winthrop College at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in From Winthrop to Washington by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

Edna Earle Godwin Walker '43

Edna Godwin Walker was born on January 19, 1923 in Lake City, South Carolina. She graduated from Winthrop College in 1943 with a degree in home economics. While at Winthrop she was involved in the Freshman Counselors. During World War II she worked as a cryptologist in Washington, DC.

Following the war she married Rexford Day Walker and they had three sons. Edna retired as an elementary school teacher after teaching in Atlanta schools for 32 years.

Edna Earle Godwin Walker passed away on February 28, 2004.