THE LANTERN

THREE OF A SUBSCRIPTION:
TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, CASH.
TUESDAY, MAR. 26, 1907.

The editor of the Chester Lantern ought to go to a primary school some where and study English until he acquires the ability to understand the plain straightforward sentences. In a recent issue of his paper he says: "According to The Record, an outrage has been perpetrated upon Columbia banks. In that a little of the dispensary money has been deposited in banks at Union and Timmonsville whereas heretofore the use of all the money has been given to the Columbia banks."

The Charlotte Observer was threatened with the last week, the Augusta Chronicle was burned out this week and The Ledger escaped by a hair's breadth Tuesday. Gee, but the fire chief seems to be before our time comes.—Gaffney Ledger.

Very recently we tried to congratulate a newspaper man on "escaping with a little scorching," and because we put in the little word "an" he accused us of being more pleased at his scorching than his escaping. Now we don't know what to say for Brooker DeCamp unless we congratulate him that the fire hasn't caught him before his time.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Fullam, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. I have used it in every case of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other. For sale by all Druggists."

Court Court.
Court convened yesterday morning. Judge Chas. G. Dautzer presiding. J. K. Henry solicitor, Harry McGowan stenographer. In the case of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, the grand jury as to the original purpose of this body and their present duty, and instructed them briefly in regard to the charges in several instances. Thirty-one petit jurors answered and two more were reported as coming on trial. In answer to an inquiry of the presiding judge, Solicitor Henry said that as there was a number of murder cases he thought it safer to have a full panel, and the jury commissioners were instructed to draw fifteen names. The following extra petit jurors were drawn: E. M. Spratt, Sr., E. M. Atkinson, J. W. Bankhead, J. L. Stanley, A. H. Hardee, J. Stanley Lewis, C. G. Hood, W. H. Caldwell, E. C. Saino, E. A. Crawford.

Case of Stomach Troubles.
When a man has trouble with his stomach you may know that he is eating more than he should or of some kind of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and see if the trouble does not disappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by all Druggists.

Meeting of Presbytery.
The Fairfield presbytery, within the boundary of the Atlantic synod, will convene in this city, in Carrel Presbyterian church, Wednesday night, March 27, and will continue its session until Sabbath night, March 31. There will be in attendance thirty or thirty ministers and delegates. The public is cordially invited to attend. Thos. H. Ayer.

Prevention is a simply cheap and safe way of preventing venereal disease. It is a small, white, candy-like substance, and is sold in small packages and a book on the same. You will write him. The medicine is sold in small packages and a book on the same. You will write him. The medicine is sold in small packages and a book on the same. You will write him.

FYAZER'S STABLES is the place to see fine Kentucky horses. Expected to arrive.

The Millinery Opening.

Today and tomorrow are opening days at the millinery store. Though the morning is cloudy and threatening the stores are crowded with ladies ad- miring the pretty display of spring hats.

At the Lindsay Mercantile Co.'s store the millinery room is elaborately and tastefully decorated with natural and artificial flowers. The color scheme is heliotrope and yellow, and the effect is pretty to the eye. The hats are in many shapes so as to be accom- modating to the different styles of faces.

As Crawford's the display is also very pretty. Not so many are on dis- play but there are many different de- signs and the hats are lovely.

At Crawford's there is also an elaborate display of lovely hats. In all the stores many of the hats are trimmed with a profusion of flowers, and plumes are also used on a number of them.

Very Thankful.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hanna are very thankful to many neighbors and friends who showed sympathy and did all they could to lighten their sorrow for the death of their little child.

Mrs. Bennie Caldwell Dead.

Miss Abner G. Caldwell, died at 8 o'clock Friday evening March 22, 1907, at the home of her brother, Mr. Robert B. Gill, at Lewis Turnout, after a long illness with a complication of troubles. She was about 44 years old and leaves one son, John Obere, about 18 years old; also three brothers and one sister, Messrs. R. B. and Jack-son Gill and Miss Maggie Gill, of Lewis Turnout, and Mr. Wm. G. Gill, of Rock Hill.

She was the widow of the late J. C. Caldwell, and was a woman of many excellent qualities. The burial was at Urie church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock after funeral services in the church conducted by Rev. A. B. At-kins.

OPERA HOUSE.

BUSTER BROWN.

Will be seen at the opera house tomorrow night. This is one of the best known and most satisfying of the many later day musical comedy attractions. This season it will be given with an entire new scenic dress, costumes and scenery. The cast which is headed by Master Brown, is said to be the best seen in its several characters. This latest edition of Buster Brown will be served with all new music and the latest popular songs.

Mrs. J. McC. Caldwell Dead.

The company was scheduled Saturday morning, March 23, 1907, when it was announced that Mrs. Jane Cunningham B. wife of J. McC. Caldwell, had passed away at 10 o'clock that morning. She had attended a funeral service Thursday morning and in the afternoon had called on several of her neighbors.

At 10 o'clock Friday morning she was stricken with a form of colic and Dr. McConnell was immediately summoned. She was quite sick through the day and Saturday morning she was stricken with a form of colic and Dr. McConnell was immediately summoned.

A Baby as an Argument.

Saturday morning some people who have been camping south of town, and say they are English, but whom some people who do not discriminate carefully call Gipsies, were in trouble about horse trading. The old mother, her son and daughter and the son's wife and baby, all answering to the name of Stokes, which sounds more English than their brogue, were in Judge McLaughlin's office. They were there for a trade, and under some pretext, got the negro's horse lifted to his buggy and left, claiming that a trade had been made. Deputy Hedgpeth overtook him a little bit of town, on the Sandy River road and brought him back here and all the family suit, claimed that it was a fair and square trade. The case was settled by allowing the negro to take his horse and Stokes his money, the latter paying the cost of the horse.
