Spending Meeting at Opera House Last Night—Singing very Much Enjoyed—Prohibition Forcefully Presented.

A large crowd was present at the Opera House last night to hear Oliver Wayne Stewart, of Chicago, former member of the House of Representatives of the state of Illinois, and J. Frank Hankins, former governor of the state of Indiana, and the soloist, Miss Vera Mullin, Miss Robinson, of Indiana, in traveling with Miss Mullin.

The speakers were introduced by Mr. R. B. Caldwell, who acted as chairman of the meeting.

After several musical selections Mr. Stewart was introduced and for about an hour he held the audience with forceful arguments against the liquor traffic and its deadly influence upon a business standpoint. He showed how whiskey greases the individual making him lose the desire for the better things of life.

One of the points brought out by Mr. Stewart was, that a manufacturer enterprise in the state was ashamed of its finished product if it meant to continue business except the whiskey manufacturer. The finished product is never shown at fairs by the liquor interests. They exhibit the wines and the various whiskey but the man, who is the consumer of the goods is never placed in a case as an exhibit.

He is the finished product who exhibits him?

Mr. Stewart closed his address by stating that in April the people of Chicago, which city has 2,500 saloons and at many times since, voted on the question of prohibition and the reason he was here was because of the fact that if South Carolina voted "dry" it would greatly assist the people of Chicago in winning their fight.

JOHN HARLEYCORN INDICTED.

Mr. J. Frank Hankins' speech was an attack on the liquor traffic from a more standpoint. Mr. Hankins had a deep voice and speaks his words in a clear cut force, which added greatly to his argument.

For a thousand years, said the speaker, John Harleycorn has held mankind at his mercy. A wrecked millions of lives and destroyed billions of property, and now he is brought before the bar of justice to stand for mercy. He is only sensible way to deal with him is to teach him and fight the issue to the death.

Most of Governor Hanly's speech was devoted to the so-called interference with the personal rights of the individual. By apt illustration and argument he showed that a man's personal rights are not to be his own when they begin to injure his neighbor or place him in a dangerous situation. When a fellow man begins to suffer evil consequences from the acts of an individual, it is the duty of the law to restrain the individual so that he will stop his unjust and dangerous practices. Whiskey is a recognized evil, and if he uses endurance as the "key" to the happiness and the property of others, it is the right and duty of the state to adopt prohibitory laws to keep from the individual that which injures him and menaces his neighbor.

WILL TEACH IN CHESTER.

Mrs. Lizzie Dexter Melton, for a number of years teacher in the graded schools here, left this morning for Chester to fill her newly appointed position as teacher in one of the graded schools at Mt. Pleasant. As an educator, Mrs. Melton ranked very high. Her high sense of moral equity and social uplift, to use her own words, for the work made for her an eventful career. As a church worker and an organist alike, she was very enthusiastic. Many will be the regrets at her departure, and the voided sentiments from the city are best wishes for a successful future. For it is an assured fact that Orangeburg's loss will be Chester's gain.—Orangeburg News.

A BIG SENIATION

W. R. NAIL'S
5, 10 and 25 CENT STORE

It affords us very great pleasure to announce to our patrons and the public generally that we have just received one of the largest lots of "Bankrupt Goods" ever shipped to Chester.

Remember, these goods do not come to us through the regular credit channels, but from bankrupt merchants and from crippled credit concerns, many of whom were rated high, but who bet their existence upon "The Tiger of Time," and were swept like chaff before the withering blast of the pitiless storm and whose epitaph is written in the lonely dirge of "Gone!"

This Big Lot of goods consists of Dolls, Toys, Novelties and Household Goods of every description. This lucky purchase will enable us to sell at prices away below cost of production. We would have you to bear in mind that the hammer of the shearer does not injure the fabric, but it everlastingly smashes the price.
