Farmer's Department.

of a species imported or of a defect... There are two classes of platters in our country. One who are strictly cotton makers...

It is, therefore, a question, not very well settled, as to which side the profits are to be made... Public sentiment seems to preponderate very largely with the former...

Not one farmer in twenty ever ploughs deeper than six inches. The roots cannot get at the nine below, for it is too hard... My dear Henry—I know as how I had a spell of anger...

My dear Henry—I know as how I had a spell of anger, and I do hope those feelings will not yet find you in the same God's blessing... My dear Henry—how my poor soul is longing for your sweet voice...

My dear Henry—I know as how I had a spell of anger, and I do hope those feelings will not yet find you in the same God's blessing... My dear Henry—how my poor soul is longing for your sweet voice...

Another's pen cut of the dust. At last he has written the first sentence of "Old History," which he has been so long in preparing...

"Company the d-1" was the reply of Kentucky, as he looked himself in ridding; it was that of father with the gold coin on the coat-lapel!

The Generalized in the direction indicated by the title, and observed a British Colonel riding up and down the advancing ranks...

My dear Henry—I know as how I had a spell of anger, and I do hope those feelings will not yet find you in the same God's blessing... My dear Henry—how my poor soul is longing for your sweet voice...
