WINTHROP'S HEAD
GUEST OF HONOR
President Johnson and Miss Marcum
Guests at Banquet of Charitable Daughters of the Young Women's College of South Carolina.

The banquet given last night by the Charitable Daughters of the Young Women's College of South Carolina, for Miss Marcum, the president of the college, was a gala event. Miss Marcum was the guest of honor, and the president of the college was present.

Miss Marcum, who has held the position of president of Winthrop for many years, is known for her dedication to education and her committment to the college's mission.

SOUTHERN STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION HOLD CONFERENCE
Misses Frances Landy and Mary Robertson represent Winthrop
at Ninth Annual Conference of Southern Inter-College Association of Student Governments held at Mississippi State College for Women at Columbus, Miss., on May 1. The Winthrop delegation, as they state, represented the students of the school in Arkansas as present.

Miss Marcum gave a short speech and then made her remarks on the occasion.

There were two daily sessions of the conference, each lasting from 9:30 A.M. and one in the afternoon. The topics were chosen so that the delegates found themselves in discussion groups among the young students of such colleges and universities as those represented by the Winthrop delegation.

The conference was held in Winthrop
Hall, and the Winthrop students were received with a warm welcome.

The students were given a chance to find out what the other colleges and universities were doing and to discuss the same problems.

Quite a number of our Arp Act
school teachers are Winthrop school
and they have been most cordial.

The committee has as its purpose to bring together the various winthrop
students and faculty members on this point.

Students, often desire a change of scene and do not care for a single ses-tion on a certain topic.

If the business of the conference is over, the students are able to go out and see the other colleges and universities.

M. Trolt and Mrs. Thomas V. Hanaford gave Miss Nancy Campbell, head of the Women's Department, the ice cream
for the Winthrop delegation.

"It is not the guns or armament, successful here at college. Every one of us with every other makes his part. We students individually and collectively, let us do our share. In order the level of student life be cognizant of the potent significances. Are made to yield their full plays Stevenson, R.; Halle plays Bye; Groscross the chattering brook and leads—

Yet bravely trudging on is lost to sight,

By overhanging bush and relied bank—

Then comes to view again;

For such a neck of wild desire

I'd love to send you roses,

WHEN IT COMES TO SERVICE
As a conservative banking and trust institution, the Citizens Bank and Trust Company always observed every rule and cus- tom which makes for safety, security and soundness in bank- ing practice.

But when it comes to rendering a really constructive, helpful service to our existing and prospective customers, we do not stand on customarily, for- malities. We try to make this a really human and helpful in- strument of our work here and, we hope, of greater benefit to the community we serve.

New at Winthrop College is the double quartet: Mrs. Steele, Miss Pauline Beck, Miss Grace Hunter and Miss Mary Anne Johnson. The double quartet will be heard in the program for the Winthrop literature and music society meeting. The program will consist of songs, including a choral number by a group of Winthrop students.

VISITORS

Just a few of the visitors who have stopped at the college today:

Mrs. J. Barron, a young girl from Lancaster. Since her return to the college, she has been a prominent student. She is a member of several of the Winthrop College women's organizations, including the Poetry Society.
