Mrs. J. M. Wills, and daughter, of Lando, went to Kings Mountain this morning to visit her father, Mr. J. S. Thornburg, near there.

Little Miss Loretta Culp, of Gastonia, who has been visiting relatives here, went home yesterday morning.
Mrs. Susan Fryer went to Rock Hill yesterday afternoon to visit her son, Mr. J. E. Fryer.
Miss Edna Hardin returned Wednesday evening from a very pleasant three weeks' visit in Laurens.
Miss Beadie Carlisle, of Newberry, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Kennedy, went home Wednesday.
Mrs. J. A. Hood and daughter, little Miss Marguerite, returned Tuesday afternoon from a few weeks' visit in Columbia.

Miss Sallie Youngblood, of Columbia, who has been visiting Mrs. T. B. Woods, went home yesterday morning. Mrs. J. C. Robinson and Miss Emma Woods accompanied her and will return tomorrow.
Rev. J. S. Mills, of Due West, spent Tuesday night with Dr. J. E. Bigham on his way to Blackstock in response to a telegram informing him of the serious illness of his sister, Miss Lizzie E. Miller.

The managers of the skating rink, advertised in another column, request us to say that it will not be open until next Friday night, the 12th.
There are many bonies in the land. As by the papers you can see; But those of them that equal Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Salter, of Lowryville, were in the city Tuesday afternoon on their return from a few days' visit in Newberry.
Mrs. Joe Johnston, nee Miss Annie Davidson, of Atlanta, is spending two or three weeks with her brothers and sisters here.
Mrs. C. A. Orr and baby, of Spartanburg, arrived Wednesday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Walker.
Mrs. Henry D. Crosswell and little son, of Columbia, who have been visiting Mrs. A. M. Aiken, left for Atlanta yesterday.

Mr. J. S. Mills, of Due West, spent Tuesday night with Dr. J. E. Bigham on his way to Blackstock in response to a telegram informing him of the serious illness of his sister, Miss Lizzie E. Miller.

Mrs. J. B. Kelsey, of Fort Law, came over Tuesday afternoon to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jete Huggins. Mr. Kelsey came over Wednesday morning by private conveyance and took her home in the afternoon.
Mr. Claud Moore left yesterday for Athens, Ga., where he has accepted position in the freight depot of the Georgia railway. Mrs. Moore will have rooms at Mr. W. P. Carter's on Saluda street for the present.

Mr. James Lattimer, who was stricken with paralysis more than a year ago, and has since been in the home of his brother, Mr. W. A. Lattimer, was taken to the state hospital in Columbia yesterday.
TWO THOUSAND have pronounced Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea the greatest health giving power earth. When medical science fails, it succeeds. It makes you well and keeps you well. 35c. Tea or Tablets.

Our old friend Mr. R. M. Nunner, of Fort Law, was in town yesterday. He says he was once drunk but has not touched liquor in 11 years and has no desire for it. He was a slave to the pipe until four years ago, when he threw away and never smoked again. The smell of a pipe is now disgusting to him. He chews tobacco to some extent but says he will quit it at once if he determines that it is injuring him. He attributes his deliverance from these bad habits and the desire of indulgence in them to the power of faith.
Every woman appreciates a beautiful complexion, so much desired by all. Such complexion comes to all who use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. Tea or Tablets. J. J. Strigloff.

Miss Mattie Kirkpatrick, who is a saleslady in A. W. Klutz's store, had the misfortune to fall in the store several days ago and run the sharp point of her scissors in one of her knees. She has suffered a great deal of pain from it but can walk now with the aid of one crutch. Her sisters, Misses Sallie and Mattie, came over Wednesday and accompanied her, to her home near Fort Law yesterday.

Mr. W. P. Wylie, of Rock Hill, returned to his home this morning after spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. G. Darby. Mr. Wylie has been suffering a great deal with his left eye and will probably return some time soon for an operation.
Mrs. W. E. Harmon and baby went to Gastonia this morning to spend a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Glenn. Mr. Henderson will have charge of a hotel in Gastonia for Mr. Sample, and he and Mrs. Henderson will move there some time soon.
The local management has agreed today for a matinee only on next Wednesday "The Killers," Great Scotch-Canadian Band of 40 pieces. The music lovers' committee will no doubt take advantage of this chance to hear this selection.

Miss Lizzie Mills Dead.

Miss Lizzie E. Mills, who lived at the old family home five miles east of Blackstock, and near where her grandfather's farm stood, died at 11 o'clock from the effects of a stroke of paralysis which came on Monday afternoon. She had been in her usual health until the stroke came, and had been busy in her school, which was in her yard, during the forenoon. She had given recess and was writing a letter to Mrs. J. A. Whitte, her pastor's wife, who had gone to Due West. When her niece, Miss Lois Mills, returned to the farm, she was unable to get a word from her. She was unlocked and signed Miss Lizzie was on the side of the bed and said that she had a stroke of paralysis but that she would be all right in a short time. She objected to sending for the doctor or neighbors, and spoke intelligently to some of the ladies when they came, but in about two hours from the attack she lapsed into total unconsciousness and never rallied. Dr. F. M. Durham came, and she was past human aid.
The funeral was at Hopewell station, conducted by Rev. J. A. Whitte. There was a large gathering there to pay respect to the dead. The touching incident connected with the death was the large number of negroes that came to the home to take a last look at the face of "the best friend they ever had."
The deceased was the third daughter of the late Equize J. Y. and Mrs. Sallie Nelson Mills, and was born in the fall of 1846. The other members of the family living are Mrs. J. W. Bigham, of this county, Mrs. W. E. Salt, of Taylorsville, N. C., Mr. R. E. Mills, present in Los Angeles, Cal., and Rev. J. S. Mills, of Due West. Miss Lois Mills, daughter of Rev. J. S. Mills, was taken in infancy at her mother's death, and for years had been her aunt's lone companion in the home most of the time. Miss Lizzie's higher education was received at the York State Female college, and she taught most of the time for the last forty years. Whatever of other methods she combined with the new; the results proved that hers were as good as any. Her pupils made good progress and were carefully trained. Inspired with intense patriotism, deep piety and the spirit of service, there was a whole curriculum of civic righteousness and moral law in her course of study, which demonstrated no text books, but was laid upon the minds and consciences of her pupils with the zeal of one who had the burden of souls upon her head. Though loving the traditions of the past, she lived with earnest activity in the present, and for the future, sowing good seeds beside all waters. She was a member of the American Reformed church from girlhood and loved dear old Hopewell as her own home.
May her mantle fall upon worthy shoulders. May many, inspired by her example, take up the burden laid upon her shoulders, and be largely carried on her work in church and society.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF YOU WANT IT

W. H. KLUTZ
CHESTER'S LARGEST STORE
Klutz Big New Store is filled to capacity with the largest and grandest assortment of Spring and Summer Merchandise ever bought by a merchant of this city. Klutz has added several new lines and there is not a single department which you will not discover nearly twice the size of last season. Klutz is keeping right up with the growth of Chester. Klutz purchased heavier than ever before for this season. Bought in enormous quantities to enable us to offer you merchandise of almost every conceivable description cheaper than ever before in the 20th year history of this wonderful establishment.

Klutz stupendous Rug and Matting Department is just 5 times bigger than last year's encounter. It is huge growth manifestly due to our being satisfied with only a narrow margin of profit. Klutz is exclusive representative in this city for "The Kashmir Rug". This rug is guaranteed to give years of hard and tough wear and not to fade. Write or send for illustrated booklet of this mysteriously lovely rug. The prices are extremely moderate.

Again Klutz invites your attention to "Cobalt Silk". This new silk is made of silk and wool and marches as bravely to the wash-tub as a linen handkerchief. It is here in numerous dainty and exquisite oriental solid shades. The price remains only 45 cts. yd. again this week. The leading Dry Goods City of America of last week stated that "Cobalt Silk" has unquestionably inaugurated the greatest craze in the silk hemisphere that the world has ever known. Write or send for samples.

Klutz Ready to Wear Hat Department has a splendid little den all to itself this Spring, and it helps us exhibit them to a far better advantage. Klutz has almost every conceivable hat a woman might crave. Without doubt or stock of Mushroom shapes is the largest in Chester, and the prices about 1-5 to what our far-famed exclusive Milliner Saloons want for them. Klutz has a mass of untrimmed hats in something swell. So is our collection of trimmings large. You can buy an untrimmed hat with the trimmings and have it trimmed by a Milliner, and when you figure it up you will find you have saved lots in purchasing over half of the material from Klutz. This is merely what scores of other women are doing, why not try it yourself?
