GREATERS

Summer School Students, we greet you.
We trust your stay in Rock Hill will be happy in the association with our townsmen, will be successful in the activities of the class rooms, and will be joyous to you in fellowship with each other.

We are proud of our city, and if your stay with us you will love it as we who make our home here.

FACTS ABOUT ROCK HILL AND VICINITY

Rock Hill is the largest and most important city in York county, one of the richest rural counties in the State.

Population within a mile radius, 15000 and growing.

In the center of the largest hydro-electrical and most educational agricultural region in the rapidly growing Piedmont Section.

Excellent water, light, sewage and gas plant.

Commission government, with county auditor and council exercising control in lieu of town officials.

Good roads radius in every direction, $200,000 bond issue for hard surfaced main highways recently voted by York county voters, field work of the National Highway Bureau.

Twenty-five miles of paved sidewalks, twelve miles paved streets and seventy miles of gravel roads.

Municipal recreation park, large swimming pool and pavilion.

Young, vital and progress lies.

More than $100,000 invested in industrial plants.

Some of the largest and most successful automobile factories in the South - Anderson Motor Company.

Three banks and two trust companies with deposits of over $200,000.

Monumental park, large swimming pool and pavilion.

Young, vital and progressive.

Winthrop College, State College for Women, largest and best equipped in the State.

Institute for Women, head of Department of English, University of North Carolina, selected in a competitive examination.

The following features are especially important in the lives of your medicine and diet. I do not recommend any.

Please send me another bill.

Joe: “What’s the best way to preserve a peach?”

Fred: “To keep its color a nice pink.”

No Selv-Greens Around.

I’ve heard the whistle of the train that runs right next to my house at 6 A.M. every morning.

And that’s the whistle of the University of Chicago Phoenix.

This is a great town.

Pat: “And how’s that?”

Joe: “I can buy a five dollar moccasin for three dollars.”

"It is a great honor as mayor of our city and a personal privilege and pleasure to say a few words to you people to tell you how glad we are to have you come away a little with us, because you represent the finest and best of the community from which you come, in fact, we know that we have the largest city in South Carolina for the sake of it. We know that you have the finest educational institution in the entire state, and that it is not only a matter of pride, but that it is a matter of prestige for the city as well. We are proud of this institution, and if you have the pleasure of well coming you and cordially be on behalf of the city of Rock Hill."

After the department store address, the college president spoke briefly of the subject, his address being emphasized with enthusiasm.

After Superintendent Harper's address Mrs. Mistress Stone, professor of painting, delivered a speech on the advantages of the college.
WELCOME!
