BRIEF LEAVES

President Johnson in the Winthrop Training School will be Dr. John Powys, of Cambridge, England. Dr. Powys has been in the United States for the past year and is now on his way to the Winthrop Training School. He is affiliated with the institution and will give lectures in Europe, as well as in the Winthrop Training School. The Winthrop Training School has been admitted to membership in the National Athletic Association, and the students have gone forward in many respects. The results of these athletic work, as evidenced by his wonderful and at times dramatic interpretations of his subject, have been heard by thousands of students. THE SCHOOL-MISTRESS

The school-mistress is not the woman blessed with grace of manner and smile to charm, but a little sprite that disappears as fast as a mischievous child. She is a leader, too, wonderful to watch. She has made the horizon of the children constant, but a leader, moving unceasing.

Yet not a huger all unassisted.

The school-mistress is not the woman who has all the ways of putting things together, but a little sprite that disappears as fast as a mischievous child. She is a leader, too, wonderful to watch. She has made the horizon of the children constant, but a leader, moving unceasing.

THE SPELLING CONTEST

The second annual spelling contest held at Winthrop proved highly satisfactory. The spelling contest was held during the regular session of the Student Body. The winners were:

First Place: Winthrop University Prize: $100
Second Place: South Carolina University Prize: $75
Third Place: University of Alabama Prize: $50

The spelling contest was held in the Student Union Building, and was judged by a panel of educators from the surrounding area.

The theme of the contest was "The Importance of Spelling in Education" and it was intended to encourage students to improve their spelling skills.

The contest was open to all students enrolled in the university and it was a great success, with over 200 students participating.
