Misses Mary A. McFadden and to be careless and cuipable on these points, simply because he is a boy and thinks no one will be so im-polite as to scold him for his failures. If you will stop a moment to think how often people are put out and inconvenienced by trusting to promises which are not kept, you will no doubt be able to recall instances insugh to prove the need of greater trustworthiness. Some-body else has to do the work of the delinquent and perhaps a dozen or more are kept waiting, or fail to se-cure something desired because of the failure of one person to do what was promised and depended upon. It is not right to assume a responsibility unless one means to be faith ful to it and boys should be ambi-tious of the destinction of being counted upon to do their promised Dr. Joe Saye, of Sharon, attend part. A Great Bensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable sponies from Ashima, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption. Ppesimonia Brow.

Now that there is on a movement for a spelling reform, the schools are vieing with each other for the honor of being the first to go back to the old blue-back speller. While they are going forward in spelling by going backwards, there are unlimited possibilities for a reading reform by going back to first principles.
