Margaret Ketchin in December selects that many of her associates, particularly the faculty members, for her annual association during her 30 years as head of the YWCA of Rock Hill. She named and developed many as writers. In the last three years I know her after I came to work for the YWCA, she has been one of the best English teachers I've ever known." remarks Dr. Paul M. Bowers, head of the English department. "Everybody gets something from associating with her. She was very inspirational. Under her leadership, the YWCA got something..."

In the past few years the slogan for material for The Journal has been frequently heard in every age and at every time. But if we read carefully, we find that it was not turned out literary material that could have any use in the best of all colleges?

The Campus Town Hall

In Which We Are 'Panned'

And we stand corrected; Eleanor McPherson lacks the following the devastating news of the Saturday night's movie. We appreciate your attention, Eleanor, and I do not anything you ever tell you—have sharp eyes and your wit. Well, let's reason again.

The Journal has been 'planned for two hours. The meeting started off with a discussion of the various groups and organizations on campus. We thought you would like it. We sincerely hope you do.

We Hope You Like It

The Journal has brought this problem to the attention of the administration, and we sincerely hope that something will be done about it. We have thought about it, and we sincerely hope you do.

And From TVA

Evelyn Bryant, 1941 graduate now working for the Tennessee Valley Authority in Knoxville, Tennessee, recently wrote concerning her transfer from The Journal to her work in general.

"Consul into the Agency, one goes first through a training program. The program is expensive, and the Agency has a definite objective. The employee steps in to work for a week or a little longer. The employee will spend many hours of study in order to complete his education. This is the way the Agency does it, and this is the way they do it. I am sure that they will be doing something that I have never done.

The Personnel department has four divisions—Employment, Classification, Training, and Personnel Relations. Each division has a chief with the director of the department over whom. In December 11, I started in the employment division, and this is the life upon which I build up. I want to be sure that we are doing things that are right. We are not doing things that are wrong. It took the rest of the work to be organized.

On the East Coast, my transfer to the Personnel relations division became effective, and you are aware of the situation. I do not want to go into the details of the situation, but I am sure that we are doing things that are right.

The Personnel department is responsible for the selection and training of new employees. It is also responsible for the classification of employees, including the hiring of new employees. It is also responsible for the training of new employees, including the hiring of new employees. It is also responsible for the training of new employees, including the hiring of new employees.

Ed. Note—And maybe you didn't notice the fine brief suggestions for our part in the process. We have been educated, and I do not have anything for their letters.

Not Much "Hula" in Hawaii

Carole Breslow receives a little letter from a soldier stationed in Hawaii. She is not exactly sure of it.

"The Mary Ann was not used, but in out of the hospital and work to work. As for me, I have been without a steady job for 2 days."

"As for me and work at the present time. I have been in the air force for two months, and I have been at a job for two weeks. I have only been to two dances, and they were the best I have ever seen. I have seen a few, but I don't believe it would be a good idea. There are not too many of these dances, and I believe that there is still another semester, another chance.

Growing Up

With Dot Hart

The Journal is bringing you this, the last issue of the year, in the hope that it will help you to understand that life is not all one thing or another. We are aware of your problem, and we sincerely hope you do.

To the SHAM THIS AFTERNOON WILL GO

Mrs. Barlow, of the class of 1939, and her husband, Mr. Barlow, will entertain the Winthrop delegation with a breakfast Sunday morning. The guests were served with a delicious breakfast with a lovely silver tray. Dr. Magginis spoke on "The College Woman In America" and was introduced by the club's president. One of the most charming and delightful breakfasts was served in Johnson hall. The Valentine motif was carried out. Coffee was supplied by Dr. Magginis and served with a lovely silver tray. His speech was rich in wisdom and was enjoyed by all who heard him. The club's president, Miss Evelyn Rhodes, gave a charming toast in honor of the guests. The guests were served with a delightful breakfast,

The Recreation Roundup

The Woman's Angle

We were sitting around the office one afternoon this week talking about things in general and nothing in particular, and most of us were tired of talking. In a sudden burst of activity, Betty Wannamaker suggested that we all try talking to Winthrop students and see what could be done to improve student life. We discussed the possibilities and decided it would be worthwhile to give them a try.

"Do you know those three freshm aux, Cornelia White, Bob Nichols, and Smiley Smales out at that frat house we visited last night?" asked Betty. "They were talking to Winthrop students and trying to advertise their restaurant.

"Did you notice those three freshmen, Cornelia White, Bob Nichols, and Smiley Smales out at that frat house we visited last night? They were talking to Winthrop students and trying to advertise their restaurant."

"You've certainly got to hand it to them for determination," remarked Alice Turner. "They've really got a lot of enthusiasm."
