FRIDAY, APRIL 27.

THE REUNION.

The Confederate Reunion held in this city Tuesday and Wednesday is now past history but the occasion is one that will be long remembered, especially by the Veterans who attended it.

On all sides one would hear the Old Yets stating that they were enjoying the reunion here this week more than any previous occasion and Chester people should be proud of the commendation received at the hands of these noble old fellows.

UNPATRIOTIC.

President Wilson has called upon the Southern farmer to plant less cotton and more foodstuffs giving him the right for the region.

Not to plant foodstuffs at the present time would be decidedly unpatriotic and it does not take a Solomon to see it, but some people are so wrapped up in themselves that they shut their eyes to everything that is not to their liking.

Encourages Planting Food Crops.

In order to encourage the planting of food and forage crops I offer all vacant spaces on my lands to such as will plant in corn, peas, velvet beans and forage crops, free of charge, and will furnish seed to such as are not able to procure them, to be returned in kind when crops are gathered in.

SAYS FAMILY URGED TO ABDICATE.

Rome Paper Reports that a Hohenzollern Council Recommended.

Rome, April 24.—The Cortes d'Italia, the Clerical organ, says that it is able to confirm reports, published in the Spanish newspapers, that the immediate following of the Roman Emperor is exerting pressure on him to abdicate.

The German monarch is reported to have "turned pale" and after observing that the general opinion was against him, to have left the room muttering: "We shall see." The same evening he summoned another family council.

WILL BE SHOT AS GERMAN SPY.

Paris, April 25.—A 19-year-old artist, Emilius René Ducloux, has been sentenced by a court-martial to be shot as a spy.

Getting Our Balance.

Sometimes in our moments of so-called reflection we wonder why it is that we place so much emphasis upon the things of life—the joys and rewards and compensations we have in store.

It is not that we are not aware of the sorrows and disappointments and sacrifice we have learned to expect in our heritage. It is not that we are not aware of the things that make up life for us; indeed they are as necessary to our existence as the air we breathe.

It is not that we are not aware of the joy of the utterly disinterested and the depth of their sorrow. It is not that such persons "feel things" more, that their naturally demonstrative nature seeks expression and finds it.

It is not that we are not aware of the joy of the utterly disinterested and the depth of their sorrow. It is not that such persons "feel things" more, that their naturally demonstrative nature seeks expression and finds it.

NEGRO'S BODY SENT TO WROMG ADDRESS.

Strange Case of Mistaken Identity Excites Crowd Assembled to Meet at Dillon.

Dillon, April 26.—There was strange case of mistaken identity among the negroes of Dillon yesterday when the wife of one Johnny Jones with a score of friends and relatives were assembled at the Atlantic Coast Line passenger station to receive the body of Johnny Jones, here for burial from Pennsylvania.

A day or two ago the wife of Jones had been killed in an explosion in the plant. Jones' wife at once sent $100 for the preparation of the body for burial and for the expenses of transportation.

Certain Days to Order Whiskey.

Charleston, April 25.—Monday, Thursday and Saturday are the days set aside by Probate Judge George D. Bryan which persons may secure permits for the purpose of importing a quart of liquor a month for medicinal purposes or a call on duty and for the purpose of becoming effective today and in view of the regular business of the Probate Court Judge Bryan thinks it advisable to set aside certain days on which permits may be secured.

made in our case. We want what others have and we want it with all our hearts. We point to this man and the man who possesses the riches of life, those treasures which our hearts yearn for, and we argue that what others enjoy we could enjoy also, yet, what guarantee have such persons that they will continue to enjoy worldly happiness? Fortunes are made and lost in a moment's time and the very man whose success we envy would perhaps be glad to change places with us if he could.

Yet with all this knowledge in our possession we continue to build our hopes upon worldly success, knowing that even if we attain it one turn of fortune's wheel may sweep it from our grasp. It seems that where a material achievement which permits individual grandeur is concerned we lose our mental balance and do not stop until we reach either extremes.

The safe middle ground in life offers small inducement to the average man, yet it is perhaps the only chance he has of making good. It means moderation, at least, and the man who knows how far to go in any venture, who realizes that there are other things beside the fulfillment of a single ambition, will find time to diversify his life with a variety of interests, so that when the day of reckoning comes and he is called upon to relinquish one that perhaps has meant much to him he will be in a position to find comfort and joy in those yet remaining to him. We do not afford to lose ourselves in the things of life. These interests are given us for our use, it is true, but not for our abuse. They are tools with which to strive hard to make a worthy livelihood, that will bear close scrutiny and yet pass the test, not merely opportunities to turn to our individual selfish ends. Such reflections, if seriously taken, should convince us of the futility of striving for the attainment alone of the merely worldly phases of life.

Will Not Make Race For Alderman.

I find that conditions will be such that I cannot serve if elected Alderman from Ward 4, and therefore decline to make the race. I appreciate the support my friends have given me in the past.

Very truly,
I. R. DYE.

Where the students were formerly allowed all the bread they wanted they are now limited to two biscuits and two pieces of light bread for breakfast, two pieces of light bread for dinner and two pieces of light bread and a roll for supper. The tremendous increase in the price of flour is responsible for the reduction in the bread ration.

THE STAR ROUTE TO RICHBURG AND BASCOMVILLE

A Washington dispatch appearing in the Columbia State Wednesday morning to the effect that a star route would be established from Rock Hill to Bascomville caused no little concern in Chester since it was understood that this route was to be from Chester and not Rock Hill.

Mr. S. C. Carter, wired Congressman Stevenson regarding the dispatch and received a message from Mr. Stevenson stating that the information was in error, which is to say that the route will lead from Chester and not Rock Hill. A route from Rock Hill to these points would be considerably more expensive and less convenient than a route from Chester.

Col. T. J. Cunningham shortly after assuming charge of the local post office had a petition presented to him by the citizens of and surrounding Richburg and Bascomville praying for a star route, the extreme need of parties here stated that the route to the Lancaster & Chester Railway to reconstruct their bridge over Catawba river. Col. Cunningham took the matter up with the department and within a few days was instructed to ask for bids, on the route, which were to be submitted May 1st. According to information in hand the route is to be established from Chester on May 15th, and already a number of parties have stated that they would submit bids for the route.

The establishment of this route will be of much benefit to not only the people residing in Richburg and Bascomville, but to people living on the route between Chester and these points. Any one residing on the route can send their mail boxes on the route and receive their mail just as parties do who live on the main routes. We also expect to see the party who contracts for the carrying of the mails will be allowed to haul passengers between points on the route.

Engagement Announced.

Miss Letitia Ke entertained a score of friends this morning at Forty-two, at which time the engagement of Miss Berne Carpenter and Mr. Marion C. Fudge was announced by means of light cards presented to the guests, on which were inscribed a cupid in the act of telephoning to the County Auditor's office.

The spacious rooms used were decorated in a wealth of pink roses, and every detail of the affair reflected the sprightly color.

After a number of games were played and its dainty accompaniments were served.

Miss Carpenter is the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carpenter, and has many friends throughout the County who will be interested in this announcement.

Mr. Fudge is one of Chester's most progressive young business men and is now serving his second term as County Auditor.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ENTICING LABOR

Anderson, April 25.—Charged with "enticing to entice laborers to leave this state to work in another state, in violation of the general statutes known as the Emigrants act," a white man named J. M. Mower and a negro man named Ben Anderson have been arrested by Officer Van Martin Mower, both from Boston, which is a small town 60 miles out from New York City. Anderson is a local negro and has been employed at the shop of John T. Burris & Son.

COMPANY G WILL COME TO CHESTER

As is well known the War Department has been locating military camps in different sections of the various States for the purpose of expanding railroad yards, bridges, rolling stock, plants which would be of special benefit to the country in time of war, and other places. Since Chester has an ideal location for the stationing of a company Mayor Davidson took the matter up with the officials of the War Department and in receipt of a letter from Major T. B. Spratt, 1st, South Carolina Infantry, who is now located at Stry, stating that Company G will be stationed at Chester and will arrive tomorrow morning on Southern train No. 306.

Mayor Davidson has made arrangements for the Company to locate at the Fair grounds, which is an ideal place. A water pipe line will be run into the grounds and electric lights will also be provided for the soldiers. Mr. J. J. Stringfellow has authorized Mayor Davidson to use the ground and joining the fair grounds, which will provide excellent shade. It is doubtful if a better location is to be found anywhere than the one secured in Chester.

There are many things necessary to the comfort and convenience of the men of the camp which the government makes no provision for paying for and it will be necessary for an effort to be made to see that it is necessary to state that Chester will do her part in looking after the men located in this city. Company G is from Fort Mill and consists of approximately one hundred men. While they are here it will mean that many visitors from Fort Mill and country surrounding will visit them. Many men in this company have friends in Chester who will wish to help to welcome them to camp.

A wedding of unusual interest to their many friends in this and adjoining counties, was that of Miss Mary Culp of Rock Hill and Mr. W. J. Kee of Rock Hill, which was solemnized at the Methodist church in this city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jesse Stevenson, of Roseville, S. C., assisted by Rev. C. C. Herbert, pastor of Rock Hill M. E. church.

Mr. Kee is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Lottie Culp, of Rock Hill, and for the past year has been teaching school in this county.

Mr. Kee is a prominent young planter of the Rodman section of this county.

ADDED A NUMBER OF YEARS TO HER LIFE

Says She Spent Hundreds of Dollars Fruitlessly

FUTURE SEEMED DARK.

Says She Believes She Had One Foot in The Grave At One Time

People both old and young, who suffer with stomach trouble, would do well to read the following highly interesting statement given by Mrs. Mary Gilliam, of 55 Riverside, Anderson, on March 3rd. Mrs. Gilliam is of an advanced age.

"I suffered from an awful case of indigestion, and my appetite failed. I was so weak I could hardly walk and really I should have been in bed. My feet and legs burned all the time. My whole system was weakened and run down and I was very pale. My appetite had left and I never became hungry. My health had been bad for several years."

"Hundreds of dollars worth of medicines had been bought for me but none gave me relief, and I steadily became worse—and lost weight until I was skin and bones and most and seemed to be slowly starving to death."

"Soon after I started taking Tanlac, my appetite returned and my stomach was strengthened and the indigestion left me. How I am eating heartily and my food is digested and nourishes me. I gained twenty-five or thirty pounds after I started taking Tanlac. The home-folks laugh at me now because I eat so much. I was just about big enough to make a shadow when I started Tanlac, but now I am at my normal weight."

"Tanlac is the finest restorer and tonic I ever used. It made me so strong enough to do my household work despite my years, and it is the only medicine I ever took that gave me permanent relief, and I can truly say that I had only one foot in the grave when I began taking it. Tanlac certainly helped me to make and both my husband and myself think the world of it, for I expect it gave me a number of years more of life."

"Tanlac can be secured from the following dealers:

Kennedy Mercantile Co., Blackstock; Leitner's Drug Store, Chester; W. C. Munnerly, Fort Lawn; Republic Pharmacy, Great Falls; Monette Mills Store, Lenoir.

Paris, April 24.—Corporal Ronald Hosker of South Orange, N. J., one of the best of the American Flying Corps, has been killed in an aerial combat in the offensive that is now in progress.

Corporal Hosker was 21 years old and a graduate of Harvard University. He had distinguished himself for daring and brilliancy of operation. After an encounter with a German machine, Hosker was seen to fall with his airplane, landing within the Teston lines. The body was not recovered. The father of Hosker is in the chief of a section of the Red Cross and is at present in France.
