Death of a Child.
Annie Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Wood, died Saturday a little before noon. Funeral service was conducted at the residence Sabbath at 9 p. m. by Rev. H. L. Singleton and the body laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery, in the presence of a large number of sympathizing friends. She was a bright and healthy child and died after a short illness of about three weeks before her death.

The child was 18 months old and she was the last of her parents' children, leaving three other children, Mrs. Wood's infancy. This one lived to be a constant source of pleasure and became interwoven with their whole being, and the breaking of the tie is an affliction that is hard to bear. The joy of the household has been robbed and the happy prattle of a child, only those who have passed through such an ordeal can fully realize the distress that the bereaved family.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS MEET.
The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met Friday evening in the office of Mr. C. S. Ford to transact such business as had been carried over from the meeting held one week before.

The committee appointed to study the constitution and by-laws rendered its report and the constitution and by-laws thus submitted by this committee were adopted.

The constitution provides that the organization shall be known as the Chester Chamber of Commerce. The officers shall consist of a president, first, second, and third vice president, a secretary and a treasurer. The annual meeting of the Chamber shall be held at 8:30 P. M. on the last Monday in May. There are to be members of the board of directors every month; and the executive committee of the board is to hold itself in readiness to meet at the call of the president.

It was decided to publish the constitution and by-laws in pamphlet form at an early date, along with a list of members of the Chamber. A permanent secretary will be elected within a few days. The Chamber will undertake to get into touch at once with the right kind of men, and in the meantime they be glad to receive recommendations and applications.
