August 17 Opening to Be Heard

President Pledge Still To Get Faculty And Trainee View

The plans to open around August 17 is exciting news for the future faculty and the board of trustees. This is a statement from President Deloney about the plans for the future.

Having been approved by a large number of the students, as evidenced by the applause, the plans will be presented to the board of trustees for next meeting. This plan will give the student body a voice in the decision-making process.

Says Kinard in Assembly Book Program

By Dorothy Hart

"Books are always important but never more so than now," said Mrs. John P. Kinard, wife of the president and president of Winthrop College, during an assembly today.

"The books are more important now than ever," she said. "Now is the time to use the books."

"The books are more important now than ever," she said. "They are the tools of the future.

As a President of the Club, Other Affairs Will Be of Importance. Miss Roberts, Ann Roberts, and Kay Windham of Kappa Delta Pi, are the senior officers now in charge of the club. The newest students in the club are the incoming freshmen, who will be Rosemary Thain, Cele Roberts, Ann Pickney, Catherine Best, and Jeanne Mardell. The new members of the club are Misses Margaret Hight, Ruth Cooper, and Jeanne Mardell. They had some experience in the last First Aid course.

Fabiola Arbelo of Ray Hill and Patricia Bland of Clemson were the popes for the moment.

The Rock Hill branch of the American Association of University Women will hold a meeting for the society's club at Winthrop College on Thursday, May 10th. The meeting will take place in the afternoon.

The story begins on a hot day, when a stockbroker, making his rounds, finds himself involved in an unexpected adventure.

“Posture” Week At Winthrop

Eugene Speer Will Teach Course May 4-8

Winthrop students will have an opportunity to learn an instructor’s course in first week  for May 4-8 as Eugene Speer, Red Cross field worker, will teach and with the Blue Hill’s graduate, Mrs. Speer, will teach an advanced course, the first week of May 4-8. We are sure that many will take this opportunity to stretch their abilities to become efficient posture instructors.

Dancers Take Programs To Lancaster and Charleston

The modern dance group under the direction of Miss Alice Hayden, instructor in physical education, made two dance exhibition trips last week. In Lancaster last Thursday night, for the Literary Review, using the same program given at the annual spring event at Winthrop. In Charleston, on Saturday night, the Alexander Dance Studio in the second half of the Carolina College Association of North Carolina, and Dilbert, exhibits programs and original dances. The girls making these trips, accompanied by Miss Hayden, Miss Paul and Miss Delores, accompanied by Miss Hayden, Miss Paul and Miss Delores, accompanying the girls who make up the well-balanced group.

Defeats Willcox To Be Champion Table Tennis Victor

Margaret McCandlish won the championship of the Ladies Division of the Tennis Tournament at Winthrop when she defeated Miss Mary Beth Willcox, a rising junior, in the final round. The match was played June 2. The final score was 4-0. Miss McCandlish, a rising junior, is president of the Illumination Club and of the tennis club at Winthrop.

Winthrop students will have an opportunity to learn an instructor’s course in first week  for May 4-8 as Eugene Speer, Red Cross field worker, will teach and with the Blue Hill’s graduate, Mrs. Speer, will teach an advanced course, the first week of May 4-8. We are sure that many will take this opportunity to stretch their abilities to become efficient posture instructors.

Here’s a Fanny Cowan in a pretty picture of a sport that’s coming into its own on the campus. Golf is becoming more and more one of Winthrop’s big sports. Especially since the girls get to play at the country club, too. (Photo by Bob West)
