THE LANTERN,
PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

Published at the Presses of the Chesapeake Publishing Co.,
No. 1000 Broad Street, Baltimore, Md.

TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1908.

We have received a copy of the Chesapeake extension work bulletin on the eradication of the cat tick, which is charged with causing what is known as Texas fever. This disease is called by several different names and is said to cause more deaths of cattle in this state than all other diseases combined. At any rate, every farmer should read the bulletin. It can be had free by simply sending request and address to State Veterinarian, Chesapeake College S. C.

H. L. Lord General Manager.
Mr. H. L. Lord, general manager of the Union-Buttalo Mills Co. has resigned to accept a position with Mr. Leroy Springs at Lancaster. In the new position Mr. Lord will have the supervision of the mill at Lancaster two at Fort Mill and two at Chester, besides the supervision of the L. & C. Railway. He will enter upon his new position the first of next month.

The resignation of Mr. Lord will cause the following changes in the personnel of the mill. Mr. W. H. Westmoreland will become chief clerk to the president, Mr. M. B. Sumner becomes auditor, Mr. L. H. Carlisle becomes book-keeper, Mr. W. H. Shanklin becomes agent and Mr. Stial work paymaster.

Since his coming to Union Mr. Lord has gained a strong place in the esteem of the community, and has established a reputation for untiring industry and thrift.

It is with regret that his friends have learned of his determination to leave for Lancaster, Union Times.

Under-Woods Terrace.
The sale of lots in the Under-Woods Terrace last Friday attracted a good number of bidders and spectators, and the bidding was pretty lively. The Penny brothers, twins, were the auctioneers. They are the same size, look just alike and talk in the same tone of voice. In closing the sale they both talked at once, and as if they were said by the thousands words. Many lots were sold at prices which indicated a faith in the "Terrace." At the close, there was a drawing for a free lot. The first name drawn was that of Mr. J. H. McDaniel, but he had not bid the grounds. Then little Miss Two Hood was drawn, and she became owner of the lot. A bag of clothes was also distributed, the money being thrown around and picked up by the scrambling crowd.

Messrs. Alexander and Woods evidently had faith in the value of the property, as it is shown by the money they have spent in cement walks, not less than five feet wide, and along the corners laid off track through the property.

David Day.
Walkersburg camp U. C. V. will unite with the Daughters of the Confederacy in celebrating the centennial of President Jefferson Davis' birth at the opera house June 3rd. The program is not yet arranged but will be published later. As noted in Friday's Lantern, Dr. Porter Hollis, a son of a Confederate veteran and of Chester county, will deliver the principal address.

William McCaw Dead.
A letter received by Mr. Thomas Caskey told of the death of Mr. William McCaw, in Missouri. The letter was written on the 8th of May, and it said that the burial was to be that day. Mr. McCaw was a native of this county and was perhaps 70 years old. He, with some of his brothers and some other young men, went to Tennessee just before the War of Secession. He returned to this county with his wife and daughter some years ago and remained a few years, but later went west again.

By the way, his daughter, Miss Halassah, now writes as Mrs. Byrd.

A Sad Death.
Mrs. Nellie Gross Mann, wife of Mr. D. E. Mann, aged 24 years, died Monday, May 18, 1908, at her home at Wallaceville, in Fairfield county, after an illness of five weeks with gas trouble. The burial was at Bethel Methodist church Tuesday, after funeral services at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. B. Spinks. Mrs. Mann was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gross, of Isaacville, and was married to Mr. Mann the 22nd of last December. Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by four brothers and four sisters. One sister, Mrs. J. M. Barber, lives at Wallaceville, and a half brother, Mr. S. H. Jackson, lives at a residence in this city. Her remains reached her bedside on Saturday before she died and Mr. Jackson went down to attend the funeral.

Rates in Birmingham.
Col. J. W. Reed has received pretty full instructions about railway rates to the Confederate reunion at Birmingham, June 6 to 11. The same rates and conditions apply on all the railroads in this section. The round trip fare from Chester is $6.15. Children between 5 and 12 half fare. Tickets will be on sale June 7, and a dog to return on train leaving Birmingham not later than midnight of June 20.

Stop-overs will be allowed, but those who stop over going must reach Birmingham in time to start on the return not later than the date of final limit. Those who stop over returning must time their visits so as to resume their journey at the last point of stop-over, not later than midnight of June 20.

Teachers in City Schools.
The trustees of the city graded schools met last week and re-elected all of this year's staff of teachers, except the following, who declined re-election: Misses Nellie Schorb, Janie Burns, Ethel Tenhet, and Mr. J. S. Harris. The teachers re-elected are as follows: First grade, Misses Nettie Spratt and Mary Thomson; grade 2, Misses Kate McClure and Helen Walker; grade 3, Misses Lily Brown and Frances Abell; grade 4, Misses Agnes Douglas and Kate Rosborough; grade 5, Miss I. F. Todd; grade 7, Mr. W. B. Marion; High School, Mr. J. M. Arritt; Superintendent, Mr. W. H. McNairy.

This leaves one vacancy in the fifth grade, one in the sixth grade, and two in the high school department.

Dispensary Case in Court of Appeals.
The dispensary case which has been so frequently before the United States circuit court of appeals at Richmond today (26th).

Attorney Alf. S. Barnard of Asheville, who appeared for the Fleischman company, one of the creditors of the State dispensary and consequently one of the opponents vitally interested in the litigation, will go to Richmond tomorrow to argue the case for his client before the court, and Attorney General Lyon and Mr. B. J. Abney will represent the State.

Chief Justice Fuller of the United States supreme court will be the presiding judge.

Either two district judges or one district judge and one circuit judge will sit with the chief justice.

It is possible that Circuit Judge Goff of West Virginia, who has been unwell for some time, will be able to sit on the case and in such event Justice Fuller, Judge Goff and one district judge will constitute the court.

Beware of Dogs.
What has become of the city dog catcher? Every day we read about mad dogs and their doings, and yet there are a number of worthless dogs allowed to roam our streets. Our city authorities should see that our dog ordinances are enforced before we have a mad dog scare.—Allen Journal.

Scotch Whisky Dazed Thaw.
New York.—Harry K. Thaw's extreme nervousness and his poor showing on the witness stand last Saturday at the close of the habeas corpus proceedings were, it was learned today, to the startling fact that he has consumed large quantities of Scotch whiskey, smuggled in and since he was at Maittean, in Baltimore, he has been in the Dulcious county jail.

This fact was vouched for by Dr. Amos T. Baker, the acting superintendent of the Maittean asylum in a statement made today.

It was learned from another source that Thaw had had three large drinks of Scotch whiskey just before he went on the stand and that he was in almost a dazed condition when he sought to answer questions.

In connection with Mr. Baker's story regarding the condition of Thaw when he first went to Maittean, it was recalled that Dr. Lamb, the superintendent of the institution, declared at the time that Thaw must have been given large quantities of whiskey while he was in the Tombs, preceding, during and after the second trial.

Dr. Frank McGuire, the Tombs physician, admitted then that Thaw had been permitted to have a certain fixed quantity of whiskey a day. Mr. McGuire denied that Thaw at any time had been permitted to have more than three ounces of the stimulant a day. One of his former lawyers declared today, however, that Thaw had received considerably more than three ounces on a number of occasions while he was in the Tombs.

"What do you think young Chumpsey weighs?"
"About 200 pounds on the scale and about 10 ounces in the community."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
