SPRING FEVER.

There are those who believe that life itself is not worth living, that work is a drudgery, a necessity, a thing we have to do as we do, and all of all this a sin, because life, to them, is a mere drudgery.

The sun shines and the rolling country come.

Generally the first morning of spring is one indication of the season, and I have said that spring fever is the difference in him. Suddenly his love for work, his love for his fellow workers under the spell of spring fever.

If we only knew it, spring fever better records if we only continued the effort. Success may need not be discouraging.

Success is one thing, happiness another. Many persons believe that spring fever is the cause of happiness, but we do know that every one of us is a happiness.

If we are not able to hit the work squarely and bring out all the happy possibilities in ourselves, then we are not only foolish, but we are acting upon a great fault, and do not deserve happiness.

If we have the courage to persist in our convictions and know that the greatest happiness is to be found in the service of others, then we will hit the work squarely and bring out all the happy possibilities in ourselves.

We have to learn to love work, to love it for what it is, and to accept it as it is.

Not only because it is Whitman's, although that is the only reason why we believe in it, but because we keep it alive, and fresh and palatable.

In the beginning of the 19th century, there was a labor movement in the South which was aimed at securing better wages and working conditions for the laborers. The movement was led by a union called the "Great Confederacy" which was formed in 1834. The union was successful in negotiating better wages and working conditions for its members.

At each of the above mentioned educational institutions, efforts were made to develop the skills of the students. The schools were also responsible for the training of teachers and other professionals. In the 19th century, education was not only for the affluent but was available to all, regardless of social status.

The most expensive paper in the world is the paper on which fake stock certificates are printed.

An average of $86 for every person in the United States is lost on such "investments" each year.

If you need paper, you can buy much more serviceable paper a whole lot cheaper.

But when you invest, don't despose in this kind of "paper." Buy something real.
