Martina Miller Holler is elected President of the Student Body for 1925-26 by a large majority.

Other Officers Are Nell Peoples, Vice-President; Richard Richards, Treasurer; Marian Turner, Secretary; and Lilian Davis, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer.

The student body has witnessed all of the day's events in the regular chapel services, and the students have been especially good in both hockey and basketball. Miss Maribellian Davis, known to most people as Miss Davis, is the President of the Junior Class. In this position, she was class representa

Hollinger is elected house president for the winter session. Her contagious good humor and spirit of cooperation are evident in all her activities.

Righton Richards, who is to be the Secretary and Treasurer, has been a member of the Junior Class for the past three years, and is active in all campus organizations. He is known for his ability to lead and organize, and his contributions to the success of student affairs are highly regarded.

Emily Lang, of South Carolina, was elected first vice-president of the Senior Class. She was the class representative for the past year and has been a leader in many campus activities. Her leadership skills and her ability to work well with others make her an asset to the student body.

Sadao Thomas, of Varnville, was elected third vice-president. He has been a member of the Junior Class for the past two years and has demonstrated his ability to work effectively in student organizations. His leadership and organizational skills are highly valued.

Miss Veda Gooding, of Breazzale, was elected first treasurer of the Student Government. She has been active in many campus activities and has demonstrated her ability to handle financial matters with care and efficiency.

The regular school and social activities continue to be enjoyed by the students. The winter session has provided a variety of opportunities for students to participate in campus events and to develop their skills in leadership and organization.

Here and There

There will be  regulations to govern business at the University and its colleges, according to a new rule adopted by the Board of Trustees. The rule, effective March 1, will control the conduct of students in the final examination.

Salaries for members of the University staff will have the same character as the salaries of members of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may be held responsible for the observance of the rules.
