THE LANTERN,
PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
J. T. BIGHAM - Editor and Prop.
Entered at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C., as second-class mail matter.
FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1904.

Registration Notice.
The board of registration will hold its meeting on Tuesday, July 5th, instead of Monday, the 4th, on account of national holiday.

Hypnotist and Clairvoyant.
William Irvine Frayssoux, the boy hypnotist and clairvoyant, of Gastonia, N. C., who has become famous in the largest cities of America, will be here next Thursday evening.

At the Episcopal Church.
All the ministers of the Greenville Convocation have been in session at the Episcopal church in this city since Tuesday evening. Rev. A. R. Mitchell, of Greenville, will conduct a special service for the children at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the place of Bishop Capers, who was detained at Swannee, Tenn., on account of duties devolving upon him in connection with the college there, of which he has recently been elected chancellor. The closing service will be at 8 o'clock this evening.

Last Night's Entertainment.
The entertainment at the opera house last night by local talent under the direction of Mr. Bert Marshall was the best show, professional or non-professional, that has been in Chester in a long time. After giving Mr. Marshall half the receipts, over $100 was realized for the Confederate monument.

So many of the local actors did so well—so surprisingly well—that we cannot make special mention. The whole thing went off like the work of professionals.

Mr. Marshall is an expert in his business, not only in his own admirable acting but also in training the local talent. His pleasant address, his happy, good humor and his clear correct deportment which here has made a good impression that is not to be compared with that made by any other who has ever been here on a similar mission. But all that is necessary to say is that his Daughters of the Confederacy called on Mr. Marshall this morning and secured a return engagement. He left this morning for St. Louis.

Mr. W. L. McDonald, of Charleston, is spending a few days with friends at Rodman.

Mrs. H. A. Fry and baby went to Hickory, N. C., today to spend a month with relatives.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at Mrs. S. M. Jones' next Monday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock.

Have you seen Bert Marshall? He'll make you laugh. He will be in Chester again and you must see him.

Miss Eva McFadden, of Gastonia, is expected to come over from Fort Lawn this afternoon to spend a few days with Miss Maggie Belle Horne.

Messrs. James C. Lowry, of Lowryville, and John McClure, of this city, returned home from the citadel at Charleston this morning.

Miss Helen Littlejohn, of Jonesville, a recent graduate of Chicago college, spent last night with Dr. and Mrs. H. E. McConnell and left this morning for McConellsville to visit relatives.

We are truly glad to see the Rev. G. P. Watson out again, looking well and feeling well. He will fill his regular appointments next Sabbath.

Mrs. I. R. McFadden and daughters, little Misses Ella May and Pauline, of Gastonia, who have been visiting relatives at Fort Lawn, passed through this morning on their way to Rock Hill to visit their father, Mr. B. F. Robinson, on their way home.

Judge G. W. Gage left on No. 34 of the Southern yesterday afternoon for New York where he would be met by his sister, Miss Nettie Gage, of Union, and Mr. John McSweeney, a Scotchman from Timmonsville. Tomorrow they will sail on the Anchor line steam ship Ferness for the old country where they will spend several weeks, visiting Ireland, Scotland and England. The Judge's health has not been good for some time and he goes with the hope of regaining his strength.

A Little Exegesis.
Mr. Editor:—Here is a little exegesis that may not be worth $1000, but it is interesting and suggestive: "For the Pharisees and all the Jews except they wash their hands with their fists eat not. And when they come from the market place except they baptize themselves they eat not. And many other things there be which they (the Jews) have received to hold, baptisms of cups and pots and brazier vessels and tables" or couches. Here we are first told that the Pharisees and Jews cleansed their hands literally and ceremonially by wetting them with their fists. What was that act performed? Then we are told that that performance is a baptism, for the whole connection has reference to "unwashed hands." Lastly it is added that these same persons were not content to baptize their hands only by wetting with the fist, but they also baptized their cups and pots and vessels and tables, or couches. How were their tables, or couches, baptized? By putting these things down under the water or by putting the water upon them?

Remember it was the Jews who did this baptizing. What was the custom of the Jews in performing ceremonial cleansing on persons or vessels?

"And for an unclean person they shall take of ashes of the burning of the an offering and running water, and a clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in water and sprinkle it upon the tent and upon all the vessels and upon the person," etc.

In the Greek translation the prayer reads, "Sprinkle me with hyssop and I shall be clean."

Each one is at liberty, with these facts before him, to draw his own conclusions about some things upon which we are not all agreed.

I apprehend the result will be that one will say, "It evidently means so and so. Why it could not mean anything else." And another will say, "No, it does not mean that, you ignoramus. It means so and so. I am surprised at you."

"Let every one be fully persuaded in his own mind," if he can't make a thousand dollars by persuading the other fellow.

Offer to Prove Broughton's Charges.
ALBANY, GA., June 29.—As sequel to the attack made by Chief of Police Westbrook on Rev. Len. G. Broughton in a barber shop on Monday, Mayor Lippitt today received the following communication signed by 24 prominent business and professional men:

"Sir:—Chief of Police R. N. Westbrook having a card in yesterday's Herald denouncing the charges made against him by Rev. L. G. Broughton from the pulpit of the auditorium last Sunday afternoon as false and malicious and demanding of him the name of his informant and the source of his information; therefore the undersigned citizens, to relieve Dr. Broughton from further trouble and responsibility, have taken the matter in hand and after a thorough investigation, unanimously request and demand that your honor call a meeting of your board that we may come before it by attorney and prove by evidence that the charges are true. If proven we demand the removal of Chief Westbrook."

The incident has aroused much feeling.

Cholly—By Jove, this cigar smells just like burned straw!—Ex

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay has been dangerous in Chester.

In the right channel at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. James Roberts, of Rock Hill, living on the eastern of Wistar street, says: "I have derived more benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills than from any other medicine I have ever taken. I had suffered with a bad back for some time and had tried a great many different medicines, tried almost everything that is advertised for trouble of this kind, but I never found anything to act like Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box at the drug store and found after taking a few of them that they acted almost immediately. I have not had a headache or any other symptoms of disordered kidneys since using this one box."

Plenty more proof like this from Chester people. Call at Pryor McKee Drug Co's store and ask their customers' reports. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

T. S. LEITNER. Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, vigor and cheerfulness and causes all these to disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it would be able to control the passage, it is afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of this important organ. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women, as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free. Also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials letters received from interested curers. In writing, Dr. King & Co., Binghamton, N. A Contrast in Civilization.

President Roosevelt has sent word across the seas to the domains of Morocco's sultan that the United States "demands Perdicas alive or Raisul dead." To secure the life of this kidnapped citizen of our country a strong fleet has been sent to threaten the bandit's country and the $70,000 ransom will be promptly paid to his African outlaw. All this to save just one human life, the life of a man unknown before his adventure to the seventy odd millions of our people.

The incident would seem to show that a human life is very precious; that it is worth spending many thousands of dollars to save, worth the most strenuous efforts of the strongest government on earth. Yet how is it in South Carolina? Are not men done to death here every day and their slayers not punished even so much as if they had stolen a sheep? Is a human life in South Carolina less precious than a hog? Has not man as about with unlawful pistols in their pockets, weapons that can be used not only to maim and to kill? Is this not evidence that they feel free to kill, or that conditions are such that they fear being killed?

If the Perdicas incident is an indication of civilization's valuation of human life, South Carolina must be out of sympathy with civilization. For human life is about the cheapest thing in this state today. The papers tell daily of homicides, in which one party or the other is necessarily at fault; and they tell also of acquittals; or if there be convictions, they tell of new trials granted and every chance afforded the murderers to escape through the technicalities which sharp lawyers find in the law.

It is high time that the people of South Carolina stopped to think seriously of these matters. It is high time that men drawn as jurors should do their full duty to their common wealth and their civilization; and those who, having done their duty have had their judgments set aside, should not be discouraged. The orderly processes of the law are correct and proper; the courts must punish the guilty and acquit the innocent; but the sane and sober citizens must go into the jury box and be the court; they must just to office—even upon the bench—men who are themselves sane and sober and in themselves with that which is just and right, as well as wise.

The people must rule, and it is the people who must uphold the law and establish the proper value of life and property; as the people must bring South Carolina back in line with the ideals of our Christian civilization, which holds human life inviolably sacred and precious. —Greenville Mountaineer.

And Yet Fools Still Drink.

There was a pitiful sight in a New York street the other day when a little girl dragged her father from a saloon and endeavored to pilot his unsteady footsteps to the home. The man fell to the pavement. The heat and the liquor, which had reached every part of his system, was too much, and he died there, while the girl was left to mourn. The world pays no heed to these things, but it should be an everlasting warning to those who court death in the same way. To mix whisky with a temperature of ninety degrees is the same as the touch of an electric spark to a stick of dynamite. And yet fools still drink. —Greenville News.

Relation of Salt to Dairying.

Cows should be salted regularly, or, better still, should have constant access to salt.

The practice of salting them once a week is not a good one, as most of the cattle will lick salt every day if they can get it.

Thus provided, they will yield more and better milk than otherwise, and will also maintain a better degree of health.

As salt provokes thirst, the milk animal should have access to water as to the saline mineral, or the latter will do her more harm than good.

Speaking of salt leads me to say that some failures in dairy butter making I have noted came about by salting the cattle and butter out of the same barrel.

In other words, coarse insoluble salt was used for the butter, when only the highest and most refined grade should be employed.

Salt that is not soluble will not permeate the substance of butter evenly, and then candidity may be induced.

Again, grains of salt in butter always detracts from its appearance, and is inimical to even flavor, from these causes alone lowering its market value. Let me say here that there are today just as fine American dairy salt produced as come from England.

American milk cattle feed on American grass produce butter salted with American salt that is the best of any on earth, and is conceded in foreign markets.

In attaining this result, however, one must utilize the best of everything, thinking not that poor or cheap material can be introduced with impunity to future quality.

I knew a dairyman once who, in a spasm of economy (?) sought to save fifty cents by purchasing a cheaper grade of salt than was his want, and later lost on his shipment of butter thirty-seven dollars.

It was one of the most effective lessons he could have been taught in practical dairying, exemplifying as it did that cheap material always produces cheap quality. When it comes to cheese making, salt holds just as important a position as in other dairy lines, i. e., that solubility and purity are highly necessary.

The relation of salt, be it understood, to all phases of dairying is a highly important one, and because this fact is so little appreciated accounts for many dairy failures.—Dr. Geo. E. Newell in Farmer Ad vocate.

A New Use For Tomato Plants.

"I planted a peach orchard," writes M. Story, of the Society of Horticulture, "and the trees grew strongly. They had just commenced to bud, when invaded by the curculio, (pulyon), which in sects were followed, as frequently happens, by ants. Having cut some tomatoes, the idea occurred to me that by placing some of the leaves around the trunks and branches of the peach-trees, I might preserve them from the rays of the sun, which were very powerful. My surprise was great upon the following day to find the trees entirely free from their enemies, no ants remaining, except here and there where a curled leaf prevented the tomato from exercising its influence. These leaves I carefully unrolled, placing upon them fresh ones from the tomato-vine, with result of banishing the last insect and enabling the trees to grow luxuriantly. Willing to carry my experiment still further, I steeped some leaves of the tomato in water, and sprinkled this infusion on other plants—roses and oranges. In two days these were also free from the innumerable insects which covered them, and I felt that had I used the same means with my melon patch, I should have met with the same results." —therefore deem it a duty I owe to the Society of Horticulture to make known this singular, useful property of the tomato leaves." —National Fruit Growers.

Things You Ought to Know.

Did you know that in the various orphan institutions in South Carolina, above seven hundred orphans are gathered for educational purposes?

Did you know that it costs an average of at least five dollars a month to provide for each one of these?

Did you know that the summer time, when other people are living in plenty, is usually the hardest time of the year with our orphans, and in every case the institution treasures are empty?

Did you know that contributions of flour, rice, meal, molasses, bacon, and other groceries are as acceptable as cash?

Did you know that all of these orphan children, are the children of your deceased brothers and sisters?

Did you know that if you fail to help them, they will surely suffer?

The Connie Maxwell (Baptist) Orphanage is located at Greenwood, the Epworth (Methodist) Orphanage, at Columbia.

The Thornev Orphanage, which now cares for and educates a family of 230 is at Clinton, South Carolina. At this latter institution, though under the care of Presbyterians, over half of the children are of Methodist, Baptist, Lutheran, Episcopalian and other parentage. Send your gifts to Rev. Wm. P. Jacobs, president.
