A Church Blow Down.
The beautiful new Baptist church at Brookland was destroyed yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a severe hail storm. The church was burned in the big fire of May 4, 1905, and the congregation had worked valiantly to replace it.
Contributions have been made by many friends and the work of replacing the building had progressed to the stage of weather boarding. The loss is complete, amounting to about $1,200. The building was insured against fire and lightning only.
The congregation announced last night that they are undaunted and will rebuild. This will require the aid of funds to be contributed by others. Rev. S. H. Stephens is pastor and Dr. W. B. Lowe is the treasurer.

This was not the only damage from the storm in New Brookland. Several other buildings were slightly damaged, including the Atlantic temple, owned by M. H. Wyo and the real estate of Jas. McGraw and A. D. Spill. —The State, July 1st.

A Pretty Home Wedding.
One of the most beautiful home weddings ever witnessed in the city was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's father, Mrs. H. N. Youngblood, on Red street, when Miss Jennie Gugn became the bride of Mr. John W. Cowan of Chesler, formerly of this city.

The bride was tastefully decorated and in the center of the parlor stood a beautiful music box covered arched. At 8 o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Jessie Boyce, of One West, a cousin of the bride, Master Hazel and little Miss Ruth Youngblood entered the parlor and opened two small gifts suspended from the arch. The groom followed with his best man, Mr. Robert Cowan, and at the same time from the opposite door, the marrying bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Thomson Gugn. Thence, entering the parlor, took their places beneath the arch, where the solemn and impressive ceremony was pronounced by Rev. A. S. Rogers, pastor of the bride.

It was a quiet, yet very beautiful ceremony, witnessed by a few friends here and relatives of the contracting parties.
The bride was attired in a beautiful creation of white point de esprit tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The happy couple, after receiving congratulations from their friends, left for the city of Washington, New York and other northern cities. The bride's beautiful traveling suit of gray with tail to match. After July 4th she will be home to meet her friends in Chester, S. C.

For her charming personality and beauty, the bride is most admired and loved in the circle of friends here and elsewhere. The groom is well known here, his former home, and is now one of the leading business men of Chester. The large number of handsome gifts attending the popularity of the bride and groom.
Miss Gugn is a niece of Mrs. W. W. Boyce of this city. She is formerly from Kentucky and has made her home in Rock Hill the past two years. Her large circle of friends regard very much to see her leave Rock Hill. —Rock Hill Herald.

Don't Think FOR ONE MOMENT

Because the Red Racket Store is being repodeled and brought strictly up-to-date, that the proprietor has gone fishing. A few feet from the front door you will find him at his post, busier than ever before. Last Saturday was a glorious day for the Red Racket Store. Notwithstanding the fact that the sidewalk in front of the Red Racket was knee deep in brick, mortar, plank, and a scaffold 30 feet high. The people actually swarmed into our Bargain Counter just as if the road was clear. This proves to our mind that our methods of doing business smashes prejudice, rolls back the clouds of misunderstanding, sweeps away oceans of doubt, and places business where it should properly rest, upon the basis of merit alone—THE BEST VALUES FOR THE LEAST MONEY.
