THE LANTERN,

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

J. T. BIGHAM, — Editor and Proprietor.
 As engaged at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C., as second-class mail matter.

TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1904.

On the first page of this issue will be found another "Little Exaggeration," which we trust is the last of the series.

The acquittal of Green for the killing of Saxeby, the Jewish pedler, at Aiken, appears to have been another disgusting miscarriage of justice. The defense put up by Green would not have been legal if his claims had been true, but his claims were so overwhelmingly disproved by circumstances and by the defendant's actions immediately after the deed was committed that he had no defense at all. It is interesting to note that the juror who had said that some of the jurors were as honest and conscientious men as can be found anywhere, but they were sworn to render a verdict according to the law and the testimony, and it seems to be admitted that the testimony was untrue. It might be well to allow juries to put testimony through a sifting process and decide according to the law and the evidence.

We have been publishing one of a series of signed articles of moral and religious character, written mostly by ministers of different denominations. They are furnished under the direction of the Rev. J. K. Hall and are published simultaneously by a number of county papers. The articles are fresh and thoughtful and will repay careful reading in the family circle. We trust that our readers are giving them the attention they deserve and appreciate them.

It is hardly necessary to say that the only gain to any one in connection with the articles is the hope of doing good and possibly the satisfaction of knowing some time that some one has received benefit. The Rev. Mr. Hall's services are not only without remuneration, but considerable time and labor and some expense are involved. His only motive is the hope of doing good. We may add that we have evidence that the work is appreciated by some readers at least.

Mrs. Bewley Entertains.
 On Wednesday at half past one o'clock Mrs. W. D. Bewley entertained quite a number of her friends most graciously at luncheon. Her attractive new home, "Hale Hurst," was profusely decorated with palms, cut flowers and many vases of springieria falling in natural grace to the floor. The dining room was illuminated with numerous ferns and scarlet geraniums. The table, set in its appointments of dainty china, sparkling silver, its beautiful luncheon cloth of battenburg lace over red satin and showing as centerpiece a magnificent cut glass bowl of red geraniums and maiden-hair ferns, formed a fit setting for the delicious and tempting menu, consisting of all the delicacies of the season most daintily served in eight courses by Misses Luta Bewley and Marie Carpenter, two of Chester's handsome young ladies, looking very charming in little caps and aprons. Merrily sped the time in wit and laughter, until the guests reluctantly bid their charming hostess adieu.

Dr. W. DeK. Wylie, of Richburg, has recovered from his recent illness and is in the city today.

The glorious Fourth passed off here without special incident or serious casualties.

Mrs. Lindsay Allan, of Gastonia, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Miss Lillie Allen, on Lacy street, went home this morning.

Mrs. M. I. McMeekin, of Alston, who was in the city a few days last week with her husband at the hospital, went home Saturday.

Mr. Arthur Cornwall, of Cornwall, who has been spending several weeks at the Magdalene hospital, went home Saturday very much improved.

Miss Mary Parry came up from Columbia Saturday and after spending the day with friends in the city, went down to the Hailsville neighborhood to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Posy C. Hardin, of Stevenson, passed through yesterday on her way to Ogdon, where she has been elected principal of the school. The school was to commence today.

Mrs. John Knox, from near Pleasant Grove, was in the city Saturday and was for a few hours the guest of Misses Emily and Mattie Graham.

Between forty and fifty young people attended the social meeting of the A. R. F. Y. P. C. U. at Mr. A. Walker's last Friday evening and all had a pleasant time, ice cream, sherbet and cake were served on the lawn, which was lighted with Chinese lanterns.

 And give them more of the same?
 'TIS THIS! Discover this and counteract its effects: the Summer Heat, Acid Stomach, Colic, Bowels, and make Teaching Easy. Costs less than Druggists' Cakes.

Policeman Killed.
 GREENVILLE, July 3.—A white man was brought here today at noon from Greens and lodged in county jail, charged with the killing of Policeman W. T. Foster in that town last night.

The man's name was not given out by the officers. Word reached Greenville of the homicide late midnight last night, but no details of the tragedy were obtainable, the only information received here being a request that Sheriff Gilreath come at once with blood-hounds.

Foster, the slain officer, was standing in front of a restaurant and was shot down without warning. No one saw the shot fired or from what direction the bullet came.

The man now in the county jail is held on suspicion, the officers who made the arrest claim that evidence will be adduced at the inquest tomorrow which will implicate him.—Special to The State.

R. B. Wallace, foreman in the printing office of the Dillon Herald, was shot and killed Friday night near Latta, a few miles from Dillon, in the house of Wm. Jacobs, a tenant on the farm of Dr. F. M. Monroe. Wallace seems to have been drinking and had a pistol and there was some family trouble.

Important Rumor.
 LONDON, July 4.—The Tokio correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company wires that it is rumored there that Russia, through France as an intermediary, has offered to surrender Port Arthur with its ships and arms to Japan, provided the garrison is allowed to go free. The report has not been confirmed.

Opening Schools.

Opera House.
 COMING.
 William Irving Fayessow, "The Boy Hypnotist," engagement beginning Thursday evening, July 1st. The marvel of the age; endorsed by pulpits, press and people. Prices, 50c, 35c, and 25c.

The Democratic Convention.
 Political interest this week is centered in St. Louis where the Democratic convention meets on Wednesday to nominate candidates for president and vice president and to decide a platform. The South Carolina delegation will reach St. Louis Tuesday night.

The delegates' special car will leave here tomorrow at 7:15 a. m., attached to the train for Spartanburg and Asheville. Senator Tillman will meet the party at the depot in St. Louis.—Headquarters will be at the Madison hotel.

The delegates will return separately and those who are in a hurry expect to complete the trip in ten days. A majority of the delegation, however, will spend some time at the exposition.

Ex Gov. John C. Sheppard of the delegation is already in St. Louis, there on Knights of Honor day, the organization he is the supreme head. The delegates are: Delegates at Large—Senator B. R. Tillman, Trenton; Gov. D. C. Hayward, Columbia; Mayor R. G. Rhett, Charleston; Willie Jones, Columbia.

First District—J. St. Clair White, Pinopolis; Jas. E. Tindal, Falder.

Second District—J. C. Sheppard, Edgefield; C. E. Sawyer, Aiken.

Third District—R. E. Smith, Esley; S. H. McGhee, Greenwood.

Fourth District—O. P. Cowdin, Laurens; J. J. Gentry, Spartanburg.

Fifth District—A. M. Aiken, Cheate; Lt. Roy Springs, Lancaster.

Sixth District—D. D. McCall, Jr., Bennettsville; David R. Coker, Hartsville.

Seventh District—Altamont Moses, Sumter; T. G. McLeod, Bishopville.

By their expressions before the State convention by which they were elected all the delegates, except perhaps Senator Tillman and Mr. Goodwin, are committed to Parker. Senator Tillman expressed himself as not opposed to Parker. Mr. Goodwin was not called upon, as he was then only an alternate and now takes the place of the late Col. James a Hoyt, who was elected a delegate from the fourth district.

Parker goes into the convention with 624 delegates either instructed or committed for him. Besides these there are 130 votes given to "favor" his sons" on the first ballot that are likely to go to Parker later if he maintains his initial strength.

Sentiment in South Carolina is undoubtedly strong for Parker; and strong against Cleveland, of whose nomination there has lately been much talk. There has been no occasion for the delegation to express its second choice. Gen. Willie Jones, however, has long been a Gorman man, although he too said, in response to the State convention's call, that he was for Parker "with the lights" then before him "yesterday" Gen. Jones said: "Of course the delegation will vote first for Parker; but so far as I'm concerned I am strongly for Gorman. And I think the balance of the delegation will promptly vote for him as soon as Parker is out of the way.—The State.

Campaign Abuses.
 One cannot commend the action of the County Executive committee, in prohibiting barbecues at the campaign meeting too highly. That is a system of graft that should not be tolerated. There is another practice indulged in in some counties that we hope is not practiced here, that is begging candidates for the church. We have never been in a campaign in this county where candidates tell how you have done here, that we cannot be considered a reflection on anyone.—Cherokee News.

Miss Spratt Entertained.

Miss Julia Spratt entertained a few friends at a peanut party Friday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Nellie Rankin. The following young people were there: Misses May Hood, Mary Lyles, Annie and Margie Leckie, Berta Heath, Mary Crosby, Annie Harlan, Mary Sledge, Rena DaVega, Helen Walker, Bessie Rankin and Nattie Spratt, and Messrs. Fred Culvern, Walter Waters, C. C. and Geo. McAniley, A. G. Thornton, W. A. Leckie, R. J. Lindsay, S. R. Lathan, R. L. Douglas, Cree and Frank Spratt. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hicklin Ahead.

The people of South Carolina have selected their lady commissioners to the St. Louis exposition. They are Mrs. F. M. Hicklin, of Beasomville, and Mrs. Jennie G. Gibbs, of Columbia.

Mrs. Hicklin received 30,944 votes and Miss Gibbs received 25,266 votes.

The next nearest competitor was several thousand votes behind.

It will be remembered that in the first of May the State announced that only two states in the union were not officially represented at the St. Louis exposition, and it offered to furnish the railroad tickets, the Pullman fares and $40 for expenses for each of the two lady commissioners if the people of South Carolina would name them.

The exposition authorities are to furnish the commissions and the passes to the exposition grounds.—The State.

The Republican party is now thoroughly Jim Crowed. The whites will do the office holding, and the negroes can go to the polls and vote for the whites.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

A Personally Conducted Tour.

A party of Chester people having requested me to arrange a trip for them to the St. Louis exposition going via the World Famous Mammoth Cave, Ky., it has occurred to me that this would be an opportunity for many Chester residents to take a trip to the Great Exposition and stop over day at the cave, as they would have with them all the time a party of their own friends. This would be an especial advantage to ladies to see the exposition without traveling alone.

In order to look after the interest of the party, I am personally going to make the trip with them and can assure all that make the trip, that for picturesque scenery of the mountains, etc., the trip will be without a rival.

All those who desire to join this party will please communicate at once with the undersigned. The rate for a ten day ticket will be $17.95 and for a fifteen day ticket $24.65. A very low rate has been made for our party through the Mammoth Cave.

Please communicate at once with the undersigned.

The party will leave Chester on the morning of July 10th, via Seaboard A. S. VAN DOHLEN, Trav. Pass. Agent, 116 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

FAMILY CARES.

This information may be of value to many a mother in Chester.

When there is added to the many cares inseparable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys, and auxiliary organs, the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition can be quickly changed and absolutely cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When this is known the mother's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

Robert Sanders, mill-hand residing at 16 Church street, Union, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time. She had been afflicted with kidney trouble and bladder trouble, which has caused her almost all her life. She looks like a healthy girl but she cannot stand any work, which causes a strain on her back and the secretions from the kidneys are strong and dark and there is too frequent action, especially at night. I am convinced that the pains and other symptoms arise from weakness of the kidneys and bladder and although we have given her a dozen kidney remedies the results were so slight that she thought she would be afflicted for life. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box. Before before long she said that the trouble was relieved. The use of two boxes brought such satisfactory results that we are delighted with them. He has had no return of the backache and the other ailments of weak kidneys do not trouble him."

Plenty more proof like this from Chester people. Call at Wm. McKelvey's drug store and ask their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Inevitable Handing of Scripture.

A few days ago we read in one of our weekly papers what purported to be a parody of the twenty-third Psalm which was about one of the most irrelevant things that we ever remember seeing in print. We were sorry to see it, especially in the paper in which it appeared; for we think that the young man who once owned and edited the paper is a good fellow and in doing a great deal of good, but he certainly made a big slip that time.

The Twenty-third Psalm is very dear to many Christian people whose hearts have been comforted and cheered by it in the hours of the deepest gloom. To handle it flippantly is a shock to them which it hard to recover from. We never see any such use made of scripture that we do not feel like entering a loud protest as we can. The same is true about the ordinances of the Lord as he has left to his people. There are things about which no one should joke—Greenwood Index.

Be Careful for Whom You Vote.
Why send a man to the legislature in South Carolina that will misrepresent you on the liquor question? If a senator or legislator is too big to leave this question to the people, if he is too big to trust the people to say whether or not they want a dispensary in their town or county he had better be left at home. If he is not willing to allow the people to vote out a dispensary when they become tired of its terrible work without putting upon them a tax for doing so he should not be allowed to go to Columbia as their representative. Let us get rid of these men who play fast and loose with the whiskey business. If they stand for whiskey let them stand for us. This is the season when we should keep our eyes open and there is no use to speak harshly of the legislature next winter if we are careless about the men we put into office this summer.—A. R. Presbyterian.

Another Fighting Preacher.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 19.—Rev. J. B. Holly, a prominent Baptist clergyman of this state and one of the editors of The Southern Baptist and Baptist Witness, was fined $250 in criminal court today.

He was charged with assaulting the Rev. W. A. Hobson, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, and also an editor on The Southern Baptist. Mr. Holly struck Mr. Hobson in the face several times and bruised him severely. The trouble arose from a dispute as to the management of the Southern Baptist and Baptist Witness. The paper in question is the creation of John B. Stetson and Mr. Holly is his personal representative in the business.

At a meeting of the board of deacons of the First Baptist church held tonight fellowship was withdrawn from Rev. J. B. Holly for his persistent unbecoming a Christian minister.

To Succeed Dr. Dabney.
KNOXVILLE, TENN., June 29.—Trustees of the University of Tennessee have elected Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, professor of English literature and the University of North Carolina, president of the university by unanimous vote.

Dr. Charles W. Dabney, the present president of the University of Tennessee, resigned some time ago to become president of the University of Cincinnati and will leave Knoxville in about a month to take charge of his new duties. Dr. Smith, the new president of the State university, comes of a very distinguished southern family. He is 40 years old and son of Rev. Jacob L. Smith, a Presbyterian minister at Greensboro, N. C.

Helen Kellis.

Helen Kellis, the blind girl, who received her degree at Radcliff college yesterday is one of the most remarkable characters before her time today. Since babyhood her eyes have been robbed of their light, she has been deaf and dumb, yet she has accomplished more than thousands of women whose faculties were unimpaired. The ordinary person who is given up on all hope, but this unfortunate creature was not the kind to sit still and wrap. She has mastered several languages. She has covered every part of the college course, and her record should be an inspiration to those who might have been a burden of pain on their friends had they been similarly affected. By careful training and kindness she was led from the darkness of despair, and today she is brilliant in spite of her blindness. In her books she has described her suffering, but in every line there was the voice and evidence of hope, and she sought to render some help to the world by her story. She will ever be an example of a miracle that education has worked.—Greenville News.

A New Potato.

Irish potatoes are in danger of losing their prestige. It is an international affair, for the French National Society of Agriculture recently has had its attention called to the new potato, which some French newspapers say will not only play an important role in agriculture, but will supplant the Irish potato. United States Consul Thornwell Haynes, at Rouen, France, reports to the state department that the name of the new potato is "soloman commersonii," but the people who are in a hurry merely refer to it as the Uruguay potato because it comes from the banks of the Mercedes river in Uruguay. The yield is said to be enormous and Mr. Haynes reports that it is cultivated at least in France, where experiments have been made since 1901, like the common vegetable.—Baltimore Sun.

Co-Education Blamed.

St. Louis, July 1.—Higher education and co-education are blamed for diminution of marriage and "race suicide" at the afternoon meeting of the National Educational Association.

G. Stanley Hall, president of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., did the blaming. He contended that too much education and too much mixing in the process make girls less sentimental and romantic and boys less vigorous, and made both less prone to matrimony.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Berger, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine by J. J. Stringfellow."

A bright 7-year old girl in the city has two grandmothers, one of whom is a Methodist and the other is a Presbyterian. The mother is also a Methodist. The little girl goes with her mother. The Presbyterian grandmother undertook to indoctrinate the little girl as to heaven. She said: "Of course you want to go to heaven."

"No, I don't."
"But you surely want to go to heaven and be happy."
"No, I want to stay here with my ma-ma and pa-pa."
"But all good Methodists go to heaven and you know you are a Methodist."

With a sigh and sorrowful expression the little one said: "Well I don't want to go and I reckon I'll have to join the Presbyterians."

In Memory of Colonel Nunan.

On last Monday, the 20th, ended the bright and happy life of Colonel Nunan, son of Mr. R. N. Nunan, of Fort Linn. We cannot see the wisdom of God's plans in taking the treasure of a home, but we must go on trusting Him who doeth all things well and rest our sorrowing hearts on Jesus, who knows all and cares for us. How feeble are words to carry consolation to the hearts bereaved of a loving son and brother. We bow in sorrow at the taking of this dear one, the dear, gentle spirit of light that fitted in and out like a gleam of sunshine. His sweet presence and loving smiles to his dear ones can be seen on earth no more.

We miss thee from our home, dear brother,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee
We miss thee everywhere.
June 27, 1904. A. W.

"Do you mean to tell me that you expect to sell that yellow dog for $5?" You ought to be glad to give him away."
"Wall," answered Mr. Erastus Pinkney, "I'd be glad to give 'im away, but dar ain' no use o' tryin'." But if I asks $5 for him, maybe I kin keep draggin' de price until somebody thinks he done got a bargain for two bits."

The leap-year girl had made the leap.
"My father," she said, "is very old and wealthy and I am his only child."
"How about your mother?" asked the timid young man.
"Mother has been dead nearly 20 years," replied the l-y-g.
"Under the circumstances," said the young man, "I think you may measure my finger for the ring."

"I'm not going to remain at this hotel another night."
"What's the trouble?"
"W'y, do you know that object in our room we took to be a trolley-car?"
"Yes."

"Well, the landlord says it's mosquito netting."
