Mr. J. Wesley Wilks, of Baton Rouge, was here yesterday to meet his son-in-law, Mr. Will Harley, who came up from Orangeburg to spend a few days. Mr. Wilks had never seen him before, he having married Miss Blanche Wilks in Orangeburg about three months ago, mention of which has already been made in these columns.

Chester Ice Plant.

Chester now has an ice plant, where ice is being manufactured and delivered over town, delivering having begun yesterday. The splendid brick building 44 feet square, with the boiler room and out buildings attached, which was erected last summer near the office, is the location of the plant. Messrs. T. L. Eberhardt and C. P. Midgley, who are the owners, and they thoroughly understand their business. The compression system of manufacturing ice is used. The machinery is of the best and most modern type. The plant also gather is one of the most up-to-date in the country. The cost of the plant, which has a capacity from ten to twelve tons daily, was about $17,000. The cold storage house, for storing ice and perishable goods, is not yet quite complete, but will be ready for use within a very short time. The style of the firm is the Chester Ice Company.

Mr. Midgley with his family have moved into the house on the corner of College and Hinton streets, formerly occupied by Agent Johnson of the Southern. Chester welcomes these gentlemen, who have thought it wise to invest their money here, within her borders. The Lantern rejoices at any steps which look toward the progress of Chester, both town and county, hence it hopes that these gentlemen may be pleased with our people, and that they may meet with the encouragement which is due them. A representative of The Lantern called at their office yesterday and found them to be most pleasant and courteous.

Miss Emelyn Craig returned to Blackstock this morning, after spending a few days with Mrs. J. G. Hall at Mrs. M. V. Patterson's. Miss Craig is a missionary to Cuba, and is spending the summer at home. She has been in Cuba two years teaching a very interesting school at Cardenas. She will return to her work the first of September.

Episcopal Church.

Services next Sunday. Morning, 11 o'clock, evening, 6 o'clock.

Examination for Scholarships.

The examination for scholarships in Winthrop and Clemson colleges was held last Friday. Of the fifteen who stood the Winthrop examination, twelve were applicants for the one beneficiary scholarship, and three stood the entrance examination, which was the same as the other. Five young men stood the examination for the three Clemson scholarships worth $100 each, which were provided by the recent legislature. Each county gets as many scholarships as the county has members in the house of representatives. Preference is to be given in making these appointments to those who desire to take the agricultural course.

Dental Association Meets.

Drs. U. B. White, J. H. Bigham and W. M. Kennedy will attend the meeting of the State Dental association the 19th, 20th and 21st which will be held at White Stone Springs. They will leave Chester on Tuesday morning, the 19th, and return Friday evening.

Springstein Band.

Chester has just reason to be proud of the Springstein band, which is one of the best bands in this section of the country. The band made its first public appearance the 6th of July of last year. Since that time the members have managed to hold together remarkably well, and they now give evidence of the careful and persistent practice of the past year. They rendered several selections yesterday morning in different portions of town as an advertisement for the excursion which gets this morning for the Isle of Palms. The band went to Hill and Fort Mill yesterday and advertised in the same way. Yes, we are proud of the Springstein band.

Miss Josie Oates Entertains.

Miss Josie Oates charmingly entertained about fifty of her young friends last evening in honor of her visiting friend, Miss Mary Williams, of Yorkville. Miss Josie was ably assisted by Misses Julia Whitatt and Jennie Oates in their efforts to make all enjoy themselves. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served as the evening advanced. The parlor, dining room and piazza, which was lighted with Japanese lanterns, were employed in entertaining the young people. The evening was most delightfully spent, to which fact all gave expression as they bade good night to the charming hostess.

Mr. A. N. Simple, the former proprietor of Hotel Chester, was a familiar person on the streets yesterday. He moved to Monroe, N. C., about one year ago, and became owner and proprietor of the Gloucester hotel. On June 19th, unfortunately the building was destroyed by fire, hence Mr. Simple is out of business for the present. The insurance amounted to $5,000. He has not yet formulated his plans, since the adjustment has not yet been made, but he rather thinks that he will rebuild in the near future.

Mr. W. F. Nail has returned from his visit to North Carolina. He visited Mechanicsville, the early home of his father. He had the pleasure of seeing the old hotel building where his father stopped on his bridal tour 51 years ago. What seems most remarkable, the lady who had charge of the hotel then is still living and occupying the same building. She is over 90 years old. Mr. Nail says he had a royal good time.

Mrs. S. A. Walsh and daughter, Miss Bessie, left for Pineville Wednesday afternoon where Mrs. Walsh will spend the remainder of the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Manson. Little Miss Mary Manson, who has been spending a few weeks with them accompanied them to Richmond to spend two weeks, hence to Buffalo Beach for a few weeks and on to New York to select the fall millinery for Mr. E. A. Crawford's store.

Miss Bessie McKeown, of Blackstock, was in the city yesterday morning on her way home from a visit to relatives at Bascomville. She will return in a week to take charge of the Bascomville school. She was accompanied by little Miss Hattie Yarbrough, of Fort Lawn.

AT THIS Time of the Year

Almost all the merchants are complaining about business being dull. We have had no reason as yet to complain. Our business has more than doubled in the past year, and we hope to double it again in the next. We believe that we have given perfect satisfaction to every person that has ever dealt with us at least. Here are some of our earliest orders.

It is our purpose always to deal fairly with the people and never to misrepresent anything. If a certain article is not good, we will not sell it, and in this way you have gained the confidence of our customers.

We will have our fine new refrigerator (a very low price) and will be prepared to accept the best proposition in your market for $3.00 all summer.

You will always find us ready and anxious for business, and we will be glad to have you as well as any other customer at the lowest prices.

When You Buy FURNITURE

You must depend to a large extent on the honesty of the dealer.

B-SHARP WE ARE NOT ANGELS

(If we were would be out of business) but whatever you buy of us must be as we represent it to you or you get your money back. In all the years that we have been selling goods to the people we have not had one person to say we cheated them or misrepresented our goods. WE NEVER MAKE A STATEMENT WE CAN'T BACK UP and we want to make one right now.

We Can Save You One-Fourth on Your Furniture Purchases.

Come to see us. Get our prices and let us show you how we get goods at such a big discount below our competitors. There is a way to prove our statement too: Compare our prices with those of our competitors.

EXAMPLE: Man came in on our store the other day, said he wanted some furniture, picked out a lot, bills were fifty dollars; Man was surprised and said: "Why, that bill was a duplicate of a list I had picked out at a Furniture Store down street only your goods are much newer and they wanted seventy odd dollars." He had made twenty dollars in just a few minutes. "We have his name if you want to know." Also that of lots of others who had had similar experiences. Moral is shown in our illustration.
