WINTHROP IS EXPECTED TO HAVE 160 AVIATION CINFETS ON MARRCH 1, AND ANOTHER 169 ON APRIL 1, FOLLOWING PRESIDENT SHELTON PHILLS' VISIT TO THE MILITARY ACADEMY OF CHESTERTON, ALA., JUST 20 MILES FROM WINTHROP.

In a special assembly Wednesday afternoon the student body voted unanimously to make whatever donations they could to the College to do the list of service for which they had been trained. After the two groups of students had turned over their unguessed supports, Dr. Phillips presented matter to the two groups after the Board of Trustees had authorized him to do, and by following an assurance by College officials that the necessary funds had been adequate and the necessary adjustments would be made.

It is pointed out, however, that Winthrop can supply comfortably one hundred and sixty-three students.

The teaching program will be interfered with, at all events, by making the physical education program and the English classes.

The attendance of students for the week will reach 440 hours, English, history, physics, and mathematics.

The Winthrop faculty will be present in the campus.

Two weeks ago, Winthrop and the State learned that Dr. Phillips had regaged to a position not far from home in the University of California in August. It is a shame to anyone who has known and liked the President not to see him. We are delighted to learn that he will be at home for the coming term.

A Distinguished Record Of Service

The Johnsonian wishes to express its appreciation to Dr. Phillips for the personal services he has rendered to the State College in the past years. We hope that he will be able to continue this work in the new position.

New Senior Dormitory "Wears Well" Say Last-year Girls

Ten Additions Agree College Is All Right

Seven girls who formerly called Winthrop "home," two seniors, one junior and one transfer student have enrolled in the residence halls each of the previous four years is now at its brightest visibility, anyone evening or night as long as the dormitories are in Winchester Hall. ""Chip" Freeman of Liberty, Faith Townsend checks up on closest space and finds there have been no rations of it in the new dormitory. There are two built-in beds, and a private key to go with each one.

"Hotel-like" Building Is Continuing Delight

Students Enjoy Comforts And Conveniences Of Their Brand New Homes And Living Quarters

By ROSALIE SALVO

The recent thrill of the semester over, the senior girls have simmered down into the routine qualities of their new home. The new week was spent in making discoveries of new quarters and in the last year, a move away from beneath the halls of Winthrop. Students have settled down. They have become used to the new living conditions and have played around the new quarters. The seniors, but in no case do they have the same demands on their expectations. Not a com-"bond" have gotten over the excitement—but not the comfort of what is anyone allowed to forget that the luxury of bathing to the music about the beauty of it all and about the pride and joy of every girl's heart is a good mor-ning of them.

With exams over, a new semester under- way, and Clemson and Belk's Fall Line sales a-turning, Winthrop girls anxious small towns tomorrow night's affair. At least several thousand socials dance to the music of The Clemson Brigadiers on the second formal. St. Valentine brings Cupid to add that extra touch of romance to the occasion.

CLISTON MID-WINTERS proved that dance week-ends minus exams are a small loss. Mary Jane Bohrer, Betty Macon, and Margaret Greer were among those declaring the doors of the Belk's Dance Hall. Florence Durbin, Virginia Good, and Mary Jane Hardin were also among those giving a mammoth welcome.

Time, patience, and iron are "mains" in girls' hair up for tomorrow night's formal when fences, banes, and blind dates will dance to the music of The Brigadiers. (Photo by Belk's.)
