JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION

A Brilliant Social Climax

Annual Festivities Characterized by Gala Fashions, High Tripperarion to Departing Seniors, and Unqualified Beauty

On the morning of May 7, the Junior-Senior Reception was a social event held at Winthrop College. The session, which had been anticipated with great excitement, provided a perfect setting for the graduation ceremonies. The event was eagerly anticipated by the students, who were dressed in their finest attire.

The Junior-Senior Reception was the last in a series of social events leading up to graduation. It marked the end of a long year of academic rigor and provided an opportunity for students to celebrate their achievements.

Sophomore Play Makes a Hit

The Sophomore Play, "Great Expectations," was well-received by the audience. The performance was characterized by excellent costumes, sets, and acting. The play was written and directed by Sophomore Theatre, and it was one of the most anticipated events of the year.

Regular Meetings of Student Groups

Regular meetings of various student groups were held throughout the year. These meetings provided a platform for students to discuss important issues and to work on projects that would benefit the campus.

The Junior-Senior Reception was held in honor of the Senior class. The event was organized by the Junior-Senior Committee, which included members from the Sophomore and Junior classes. The reception was held in the dining hall, which was decorated with flowers and lights. The evening concluded with a banquet, where students enjoyed food and conversation.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of awards to outstanding students. These awards were presented by President Johnson, who acknowledged the hard work and dedication of the recipients.

ROBERT C. WENTHORP.

On Thursday of this week, May 12, a large number of the students of Johnson High School submitted their names to the officers of the organization in charge of the work of the yearbook, and thus began the Train of cars, laden with produce, from the farm next to the school. The children of the neighborhood, as they were passing along the route, were enthusiastic and considered the spelling bee and the checkup on the members were the most interesting part of the day.

The last part of this year's campaign was the election of officers for the coming year. The election was held on May 12, and the following officers were chosen:

Joan B. Jones, of Lancaster, as business manager; Mrs. W. W. W. W. W. W. as treasurer; Miss M. A. B. M. as secretary; Miss M. A. B. M. as editor; and Miss M. A. B. M. as librarian.

The meeting was held in the evening, and the business was transacted with much order and regularity. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved: That we, the members of the Johnsonian, do hereby adopt the name of "The Johnsonian," and do hereby organize ourselves as the official organ of the school.

TWO DAYS TO FARM

Junior and Senior Officers turned out in full force to hand the reception on May 9.

We all wish we were seniors, and we wish we had our classes over next week.

No more trips to fifth floor for those.
