Mitchell Announces Plans For Annual Exchange Week Schedule For April 5-10

Dr. Kilpatrick On Campus As Main Speaker

Large Number Expected As College Guests

Arrangements for the annual spring student exchange week to begin this week have been completed by Dr. Eugene Link, head of the department of social service and director of government services at Washington, D. C.

The coming of the President in person, indicated by a verbiage in the student weekly, is a signal that the week will be the main event of the entire semester's program of work. The week will be open to the public and the college students will have the opportunity to meet and become acquainted with the President and other officials and with other students from other colleges.

Link Tells Of Opening In Sociology

Persons May Inquire About All Information; Meetings Announced

Lists of various openings for sociology students and others interested in the field are being compiled by Dr. Eugene Link, head of the sociology department, and will be distributed to all interested students. During the summer vacation period, a number of students will be required to work in the field as part of their training.

Some of the summer employment opportunities include:

- Work on cooperative farms
- Work in work camps
- Work in fellowship houses

The demands of the immediate post-war period will force students to find work to support themselves and their families. The Sociology Department is cooperating with the college administration in offering these opportunities to students.

Winthrop Expresses Strong Dislike For Chemical Warfare

By IDA MARIE TOWNSEND

Winthrop, C. I. - Colonel Naudain, head of the W. C. C. branch studio, has expressed his strong dislike for chemical warfare. He has urged the public to demand an end to the use of this deadly weapon.

"Gas is being used some now," pointed out the Winthrop, "and we need to be on the alert to prevent its use in future wars."

The colonel, who is a retired army officer, has been working with the government since the beginning of the war. He has been working with the government since the beginning of the war. He has been working with the government since the beginning of the war.

Colonel Naudain Expands on Chemical War Issue

For Chemical War; Here During June

By ISAAC M. TOWNSEND

Expressing a strong dislike for the use of chemical warfare, Colonel Naudain, head of the W. C. C. branch studio, has expanded upon his previous statement. He fear that chemical warfare will continue to be used if not stopped.

"The German have used gas before," said Colonel Naudain. "They have used it in the war, and they have used it in other wars."

The colonel, who is a retired army officer, has been working with the government since the beginning of the war. He has been working with the government since the beginning of the war. He has been working with the government since the beginning of the war.
Outside These Gates

A Column of Light Command on Books, Music, Art and Things

There is a "cigar box" at one of the little cafes in downtown Rock Hill where a number of students have their gathering. It is a small "cigar box" of a place, with a few "cigar box" smokers seated around the table. The place has the atmosphere of a "cigar box" and is full of the usual "cigar box" clientele.

The "cigar box" is a meeting place for the students. It is a place where they can relax and socialize with their friends. It is a place where they can "cigar box" and smoke their way into a good time.

VERSAILLE Alice Reid Takes Lead In Three Varied Roles

Versed in the art of the theater, Mrs. William Main, wife of the Drama Department chairman, is seen hard at work this week in the preparation of three separate plays. Mrs. Reid will appear in the Shakespearean comedy, "The Merchant of Venice," the drama, "The Pied Piper," and the musical, "Take It Off," this week. Mrs. Reid, who is also a member of the School of Music faculty, will direct the musicals, "The Pied Piper," and "Take It Off." She will also play the role of Portia in "The Merchant of Venice."
Basketball Tournament Starts Today

By FEINSTEIN

Marking the first week of spring and the Winthrop cadets’ third week at Fort Bancroft, Capt. G. G. Babcock called roll at 10 a.m. The call was mainly to get the cadets to call the off-campus and off-cadet way, and Ex-Radio Announcer Alfred Mock is titled to torpedoed in the North Atlantic. Also, he was on two other ships that serving in the Merchant Marines, was third mate on a ship that was like seeing them around and are glad they're fast becoming Winthrop Saturday night clamor that it was “marvelous” and are asking when machines busy. First ‘Aiders’ ‘Spurred On’ By Red Cross Representative

By JEANNIE MARSHALL

Local first-aiders received a shot in the arm today with the announcement that a Red Cross Field representative would make the town on May 1 to give a conference, free-of-charge for eligible Winthrop cadets.

To be eligible, an applicant must be over 18 years of age and must have standard and advanced Red Cross certificates.

In an effort to step up Winthrop's Red Cross and Red Star program and to make full use of the Red Cross Field representative which call for completion of several programs before coming to the town may now afford the instructor the chance, the space and the time to complete these courses.

Miss Frances Cake, of the physical education department and head of the Red Cross and Red Star program, announces that standard and advanced classes will be taught at the Winthrop gymnasium, which will be held during the first instruction period next week.

Miss Cake advises all students to realize themselves of this opportunity to obtain the service for their work in serving the Red Cross and Red Star program, which are needed for competent instruct-
