Concerning History.

Supt. Hand lectured at the Greenville Institute on history, The Mountaineer, by the way, one of the most fair and influential papers in the state, criticised some of Mr. Hand's remarks quite sharply, as reflecting on southern authors. In the next issue Mr. Hand published an answer. It seems that the representative of the Mountaineer heard only one of a series of lectures.—In former lectures he had spoken of certain histories by northern authors as biased, and others as more or less fair. He had commended Curry's "The South," by a southern writer, as one of the fairest yet written. Greg's History of the United States was also recommended.—Greg, though an Englishman, is in sympathy with the South, and the introduction to his book was written by Wade Hampton.

Then in the lecture which the reporter heard—or rather the section of one continuous lecture—Mr. Hand was showing that there are southern histories also that are "one-sided." He mentioned one that gives 8 pages to Lee and only one page to Grant, and gives more space to Davis than to Lincoln. Under the circumstances he thought this not justified, saying it is not history but only one side of it. He remarked that a child of his should not study such a book.

The Walker Gaston camp Confederate Veterans, having before them only the original criticism, called a meeting yesterday afternoon to express disapproval of Supt. Hand's remarks. At the meeting, however, the answer to the criticism was read and an explanation was made by one thoroughly acquainted with Supt. Hand's views and feelings on these matters. On hearing this the veterans agreed, by common consent, that there was no call for action, and the meeting adjourned.

We regret that we have not space in this issue to print the original criticism and Mr. Hand's reply, as well as much more that would give additional light. We will add, however, that we personally know Mr. Hand's feelings on this whole matter and they are those of a true and patriotic southerner. We happen to know, moreover, that old veterans of influence and ability, who make a study of history, have highly commended this same series of lectures. It is but just to say that the veterans here, who do nothing rashly, express gratification at the outcome.

The following dispatch was received at the war department at 11:15 a. m., August 15, from Consul Wildman, Hong Kong:

A Boy Kills His Father.
Special to the State.
NEWBERRY, Aug. 14.—News was received here that James Turner, living in Laurens county, just across the line, near Kinard's, was killed by his son today. Turner was abusing his wife, and the 14-year-old son intended to protect his mother, when the father drew his pistol. The boy got possession of the weapon and shot his father, the ball entering the eye.

It would be the irony of fate for a destructive fire to visit Greenwood just after the water works system is completed, and before we have an organized fire company. The water works will be worth mighty little to us without an equipped and drilled fire company.—Greenwood Index.

Beats the Klondike.
Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at Woods & Brice's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Passing of the Slaves.

Frank Mills, an aged colored man, who lived 6 miles east of Blackstock, died a few days ago. Frank was much attached to his old master's family and never left the neighborhood. He is interwoven with all this writer's early recollections. The old slaves are passing away.

At Liberty.

The meeting in progress this week is conducted by the pastor and his brother and the Rev. L. C. Hinton. The services of song and devotion are delightful and impressive. The preaching of a high order and the congregations good, earnest and enthusiastic. Interesting and profitable meetings have been held also with other churches of the western side.

"Bull's Nose."

Mrs. McClintock beats the country on pepper. She showed us a branch Saturday that had been accidentally broken off which bore four or five pods of enormous size. It is of the "Bull's Nose" variety, the blossom end being almost an exact imitation of a cow's nose and mouth. In some cases it is more like the nose of a hare-lipped dog.

The Eureka.

Mr. Cain, superintendent of the Eureka Mills, informs us that he has got nearly all the 5,000 spindles of his mill running. He is still short a few operatives but will have enough, he thinks, when all engaged get moved in. He says everything is moving along as well as could be expected. The first shipment of yarn was made last Saturday.

The Second Regiment.

The following is from the State. After some other remarks about recruiting the companies of the second regiment the article says:

Here is the way the two new companies will be made up, organized: Capt. Wannamaker, of Orangeburg now has 81 men and Capt. L. J. McCaughrin 19. These will be combined making enough men for one company, and for its officers Maj. Thompson will recommend to Gov. Ellerbe the appointment of Mr. W. W. Wannamaker as captain, and Mr. L. J. McCaughrin first lieutenant and Mr. Julian Culler, second lieutenant. After Mr. McCaughrin has been sworn in, the plan is that he will withdraw from this company as first lieutenant, take his 19 men, recruit 15 more to make up 34 and then apply for a commission as captain of one of the other companies. This would then cause Second Lieut. Culler to be promoted to first lieutenant and would make the appointment of another lieutenant necessary. If this arrangement is carried out, Capt. Wannamaker would have to get 19 more men, which he says he can do in a little while.

The other company to be organized at once is that from Chester. The number of men belonging to this command and which have been worked up by Mr. W. P. Crawford, is 84. He will borrow 16 men from one of the many squads to make the full quota of 100, and then the recommendation of Maj. Thompson to Gov. Ellerbe for the officers will be: W. P. Crawford, for captain; Kent, for first lieutenant, and T. C. Howze for second lieutenant. All of those recommended by Maj. Thompson will no doubt be promptly appointed by the governor.

The requirement of 100 men for each company makes it necessary that about 400 more men be recruited, but an effort will be made by Maj. Thompson and Col. Jones to get this changed, so as to allow the full regiment to be mustered in with 80 men to a company, as was done in the case of the First regiment, and there is a good likelihood that this will be allowed, and the companies can be recruited up for the full required strength afterwards.

With the 800 men now in camp and with 80 to a company, 10 companies could be formed, leaving only two companies, or 160 men to be recruited to get the regiment mustered in. If this plan cannot be arranged, 400 more men will have to be enlisted before the regiment can be considered as ready for service.

The First South Carolina.

We are glad to find the following among other complimentary things about "our boys," coming as they do from an "outsider":

"Prominent among the regiment attached to the Seventh Army Corps is the First South Carolina, encamped at Panama Park, along with the other regiments so far assigned to the Third Division. The boys are well pleased with their camp.

The First South Carolina is exceedingly well drilled, ranking second with all the troops at Chickamauga, where it was stationed for some weeks before coming here.

A very prominent phase in the boys is their strict obedience to the commands of their officers, and the respect shown the officers by their men, and vice versa.

Adjutant Hardin, of the First Battalion, might be called the "quiet member of the group," but he thoroughly understands his duties and has few equals in military matters.

Lieutenant Marion, of Company D, is one of the most enterprising young lawyers of Chester, S. C., and a partner of Attorney General Barber, who is running for Congress. Lieutenant Marion left a fine prize to enter the service, and is devoted to his duties and his men.

Hobson's Insurance.

Lieutenant Hobson, the hero of Santiago de Cuba, has a $10,000 20 payment life rate endorsement policy in the Union Central Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio. This policy was taken out four years ago, while he was in Washington, D. C.

The Union Central is proud of the young lieutenant as a policy holder, but gently suggests that one such daring exploit is enough for one man. If you knew the advantage of this policy you would have one too. Let me figure with you.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN

UNDER DIRECTION OF REV. L. S. MOFFATT

Is it right for South Carolina to sell liquor to her sons that they may drink and become drunkards?

The Evil of the Canteen.

It is a great pity that the comprehensive measure introduced into the house, forbidding the sale of intoxicating drinks in the government buildings and government reservations, was not passed. There is abundant reason for it in the very injurious effects which the canteen is having on our volunteers and regulars in camp; but a case can be made out for it in connection with the soldiers' homes that it is perfectly overwhelming. We cannot give the detailed statistics as they are published for these various homes; but we may indicate the results in a few cases. Take first the Central Home in Dayton, O. The sales of intoxicants for the year amounted to nearly $89,000, or a per capita of $17.78. The expenses were $46,743, leaving a clear profit of $42,743. Undoubtedly the canteen is profitable, and that is one reason why it is so popular at many posts and with many regiments. The effect on the men at the Central Home is indicated in a record of 502 charged with drunkenness, 195 treated for alcoholism, and 210 trying the gold cure. At the Eastern Home, in Togus, Me., the per capita expenditure for intoxicants was $17.31; the expenses, $12,076, the profits, $22,080. There were 333 charges for drunkenness, and 108 were treated for alcoholism. It is figured out that on the average each veteran soldier spent last year $10.32 for alcoholic drinks at canteens. When it is remembered that all of the soldiers do not drink at all, it is seen that the expenditures per drinking man must be very large. If soldiers' homes were established for the purpose of killing off veterans as soon as possible the canteen would have a good reason for existence. Upon any other theory it is contrary to sound morals and good government, and ought to be abated. —The Independent.

How It Is in Newberry.

Of course, we are all going to vote for our home men, Schumpert and Mower—and Slight, and there will be a scattering vote for all of the candidates. For governor Schumpert will lead and Ellerbe and Featherstone will get a good vote and then Watson, Tillman, Archer and Whitman will get a scattering vote. For lieutenant governor McSweeney will get a solid vote. For attorney general Mr. Mower will not lose 50 votes in the county. In fact, Mr. Bellinger does not expect to get any votes in Newberry. He is a very clever gentleman and a good lawyer, but then Newberry has a good lawyer and a fine man for the office in the person of Hon. Geo. S. Mower and we are going to give him a solid vote. For railroad commissioner the county will vote for Mr. Slight, but the others will get a scattering vote, though the county will go practically solid for Mr. Stigh. For adjutant general there is no special choice in Newberry and all of them will get some votes. Col. Floyd made friends here by his speech. For comptroller general both Mr. Epton and Mr. Derham will get votes here, but we think General Derham will lead. For superintendent of Education we have heard very little talk. Outside of Mr. Mayfield and Mr. Rice our people scarcely know the other gentlemen and we expect these two will lead in Newberry, though no doubt we will be charitable and give all of the gentlemen a scattering vote. For secretary of State we believe Mr. Tompkins will carry the county though the other two gentlemen will get some votes. Now, this is the way it appears to us at this writing, though politics is a very curious thing and there is very little certainty about an election until all the returns are in and the votes are counted. —Herald and News.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Spain could not even accept the very liberal terms of peace offered her by this government without resorting to its customary skulduggery, by attempting to attach conditions that would have complicated the work of negotiating the treaty of peace. It is needless to say that the attempt was a failure; the terms of peace were not hurriedly made, and were not to be changed. Spain accepted them, without conditions, fast enough when informed that they would be withdrawn if not accepted at once. It is only fair to say that M. Cambon, the French Ambassador, who has acted as Spain's representative in Washington through all the negotiations, has taken no part in any attempt at double dealing, and there are reasons for believing that he tried unsuccessfully to persuade the Spanish ministry not to try it.

In deciding to make both Sampson and Schley Rear Admirals, the President has not ended the controversy between the friends of the two officers. On the contrary, he has added to it, by making Sampson the ranking Rear Admiral, an honor which Schley's friends think should have been his.

The public has been so busy discussing the arrangements for the end of the war with Spain, that it has not given the attention its importance deserved to the action of the Sultan of Turkey in declaring that his government was not responsible for the destruction of the property of American missionaries at Harpoot, Armenia, in 1895, by a Turkish mob, and that he would not pay the $100,000 which this country has been demanding for the missionaries with more or less persistence for more than two years—the claim was filed by Secretary Olney during the last months of the Cleveland administration, and Dr. Angell was taken from the head of the University of Michigan and made Minister to Turkey, by President McKinley, expressly to collect that claim. Those who are urging that a fleet of warships, which could start at an hour's notice, having been prepared for the expected trip to Spain, be sent to the Turkish waters to collect this money by force, if necessary, are met with the statement that one of the difficulties in the way is that in disclaiming responsibility for the acts of a mob Turkey has taken precisely the same position that this government has taken in the past. No information on this subject can be had at the Department of State.

of occupation, but there is no gain in that. Some of us have given up positions paying as high as $3,000 a year, and we went from motives of patriotism. We went to fight, but fate was against us, and now we will go back as quick as we can to our private business. Excuse us from the army of occupation." Few of the volunteers will willingly go with that army. Nothing is more indicative of the weakness of political partisanship in Washington, just now, than the serious discussion of the probability of Secretary Alger, being succeeded, should he carry out his expressed intention to retire soon on account of his health, by Maj. General Joseph Wheeler, "Fighting Joe" of Alabama, a life long democrat. There may not be anything in the talk—probably is not—but it is all the same significant that it should be indulged in.

Before the negotiations are finally closed it might be well to insert a clause requiring the Spanish authorities to decide definitely whether it was Montijo, Montejo, or Montojo. Historians are as thick as hops or heroes in this country, and they will spell the name three ways forever unless something is done now to head them off. —News and Courier.

Probably few of Mr. Gladstone's utterances will live longer than these: "It is the duty of the government to make it easy for men to do right and hard for them to do wrong," and "Intemperance is more destructive to the human family than war, famine, and pestilence combined."
