Mr. Jno. G. White left last evening for New York, to buy the fall stock of dry goods for Joseph Wylie & Company.

Mr. T. B. Lumpkin, the lord mayor of Rocky Mount, was in the city yesterday with his right hand in a sling. Is Hood and the other candidates had twisted his fingers off shaking his hand. That's what he said.

The brick work and frame of the oil mill are up and work is progressing.

Mr. S. M. Jones is in the northern markets buying a fall stock of goods. He will be heard from later.

Adj. Jesse Hardin writes from the reports of drinking and rowdiness in camp, so far as concerns the 1st regiment, have been exaggerated.

Mr. L. N. McNeace will take a position in Messrs. S. M. Jones & Co's dry goods department Sept. 1st. Mr. J. E. Pryor will succeed him in Rostorborough & McLure's hardware store.

Mrs. McClintock has presented this office with a few pods of that "Bull's Nose" pepper. It is intended for domestic use rather than as an ingredient in the preparation of editorials. The pods of this pepper make excellent vessels for putting up other vegetables in.

We learn that the filling was washed out of the Catawba creek trestle on the C. & N.-W. railroad for 150 feet last Friday night. Much other damage was done to bridges in that section. The damage to the railroad was repaired without interruption to the trains, except a delay of four hours.

After hearing the candidates for the legislature there was such a spontaneous adjournment of the audience that no one else could speak or be heard with any satisfaction, though quite a number appeared desirous of hearing. We did not hear enough to justify any report.

Mr. W. Y. White wishes it widely known that a teacher has been employed for the Purity school so that he will not be deluged with letters from young ladies. He says he used to write to the girls but he can't do it now; he has forgotten how. This is one reason why he does not write to the girls, but "there are others."

The Recital.

The givers of our recital have agreed not to be humiliated by our hard-times prices of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

Published as Reported.

The following communication has been handed us with request to publish: "The patient reported in the last issue as operated on by Dr. J. M. Brice was Dr. I. A. Macon's patient. He and Dr. Brice did the work. So the correct rendering is: Drs. Macon and Brice removed the tumor."

House to Rent.—Enquire of Joseph A. Walker.

The Club Roll.

If you wish to vote in the primary, see it to today or tomorrow that your name is on the roll. It may save some persons uncertainty to state that the secretary is using the old roll with the necessary changes; so that if your name was on it last year it is still there. The last remark applies only to the Court House club. We know nothing about others.

Will Vote Out.

All church people agree that it is wrong to sell or drink liquor as a beverage. It is certainly a great deal worse to vote for it; for the voter stands back of both these acts, and is responsible for them. Whether prohibition will prohibit is no question. What I want is to un-shoulder the responsibility of selling. I think a man ought to be allowed to go out of the business if he wants to. The only way to get out is to vote out. I thank God and Mr. Featherstone for the privilege of doing so this year.

CITIZEN.

Death.

On last Sabbath morning, Florence, the 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Culp, Jr., came to a sudden end that was shocking to every one who has a heart to feel. She had just been bathed and the water left in the tub. Some one returning to the room after a few moments absence found the child in the water, a small quantity but enough to cover the child's head, which was down. Dr. McConnell was quickly summoned and everything possible was done to restore life but in vain. Funeral service was conducted Monday at 10 o'clock by Revs. H. C. Buchholz and J. E. Grier, and the remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery.

Miss Martha J. Fudge died of typhoid fever at her home at Fort Lawn last Saturday, August 20, 1898, aged about 52. She was buried at Union A. R. P. church on Sabbath afternoon. On account of the lateness of the hour at which the pastor could arrive, the distance from home, and the approach of clouds, there was no funeral service. The deceased was a sister of Mr. J. M. Fudge.

Mr. L. J. Hyatt died Saturday morning, Aug. 20, 1898, of typhoid fever, at his home near Edgemoor, aged about 28 years. He was buried at Neely's Creek on Sabbath, with the honors of the Woodmen of the World, of Rock Hill. Funeral service by Revs. E. F. Griffith, of Edgemoor, and T. C. Ligon, of Rock Hill. A widow and two children are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father.

Second grade—Hilda Biggers, Walter Robinson, Traywick Thomas, and Laura Roberts.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Any body can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures: Consumption, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents a bottle at Woods & Brice's Drug Store.

Profit by Experience.

If a man buys a house and lot, he doesn't just put the titles in his safe without carefully looking at them; but he has them carefully examined by a good lawyer. He wants to know that the titles are good, and that there are no flaws in them. Yet there are some men who will put their money in life insurance that they think is good. It is really more risk to take a policy in "a x 4 insurance company" than it is to be without it, for the chances are that you will live longer than it will. If you want to be insured—insured sure enough, the Union Central Life Insurance Co., of Cincinnati, O., is an "old line company" a company that has stood the test. It is 31 years old and has nearly nineteen million dollars to back its contracts.
