SITUATION IN CUBA SERIOUS.

Bandera, the Insurgent Leader, is a Terror.

Washington, August 28.— Affairs in Cuba did not assume a serious aspect until a gentleman who has been removed from the cabinet of the president, said it was announced that General Bandera was in command of the revolutionists in the western part of the island. Bandera, who is the Spanish flag in a blue, black, red, white and yellow, is a man of a different type from the other insurgent leaders. He is a man of a different type from the other insurgent leaders. He is a man of a different type from the other insurgent leaders.

Mr. Finley's Complaint.

Yorkville, S. C., Aug. 27, 1906.

Two weeks I have been confined to my home with an attack of malaria fever, and for this reason have not answered your kind and interesting letter. I have been through all of the articles in your paper in reference to Federal Court Bill, and shall only mention a few of them now.

In your issue of August 10th you state that I claim that I pledged my vote to back Lock Hill ten years ago in the matter of the location of a Federal Court House. This is absolutely untrue. It is not eight years since I was first elected to Congress. Ten years ago Dr. Strait was the representative in Congress and a candidate for re-election. Nothing was said to me by anyone about securing a Federal Court for Rock Hill until after my election to Congress eight years ago.

Dr. Strait when in Congress introduced a bill for the location of a Federal Court for Rock Hill. I did not indicate whatever in reference to the matter until January 21st, as I remember, when Congressman John H. Strait was in the city. I was present at the passage of a bill through the House and Senate providing for building a United States Court at Rock Hill and Spartanburg. This bill did not contain any provision for building a Federal Court at Rock Hill.

It is a fact that I was not present at the passage of a bill through the House and Senate providing for building a United States Court at Rock Hill and Spartanburg. This bill did not contain any provision for building a Federal Court at Rock Hill. X Rays and the Color of the Hair.

Heightened pigmentation of the hair is among the occasional effects of exposure to the Roentgen rays.

A recent meeting of the Parts Academy of Sciences Dr. A. Imbert and Dr. M. Marquet reported certain observations bearing upon the matter. One of themselves having made frequent applications of the rays for a period of ten years noticed that the hair of his head and of his beard previous to almost completely white, had progressively become so pigmented that it was of a darker hue than it had been originally and the change had been observed by other persons.

In a subsequent instance these gentlemen had seen a similar effect. It was that of a man 60 years old who was under treatment with the rays for a number of years. At first the hair near the ear of the head had turned black, but its place was taken by a new growth of hair and the hair of the head was almost completely black. This blackness gradually shaded off as the distance from the ear increased, but the pigmentation was discernible even in parts far removed. Finally the corresponding hair of the man's moustache became darker than the rest of the beard and on any previous falling out of the hair.

Imbert and Marquet add that in other cases they have observed a deepening of the color of the hair under the influence of the Roentgen rays. They do not pretend to explain the mechanism of this action. It is to be presumed that the effect is witnessed only in parts directly subjected to the radiation, but the specific information given as to the circumstances of the application. Stomach Troubles and Constipation. No one can reasonably hope for good digestion when the bowels are constipated. M. H. Wylie of Edinburg, Va., writes: "I suffered from chronic constipation and stomach troubles for several years, but thanks to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets am almost cured. My weight has increased and I feel like a new man."

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. This medicine is a powerful purgative and is used for the treatment of constipation, indigestion, and other ailments of the stomach and liver. It is a reliable and effective remedy.

Mr. Davidson awoke just as the burglar was going out of the window and grabbing his watch, pistol, which the burglar had fastened under the pillow, fired one shot at him but he made his escape in the darkness.
