TUESDAY, SEPT. 6, 1904.

The Boys at Manassas.
On train near Lynchburg, Va., Sunday morning, 8 o'clock.
Co. G, 1st Regt. S. C. V., with four other companies, is on second section, running 5 or 7-8 hours late. Men are all well in good spirits, traveling routes are a little scarce. We have one of the best companies in 1st Regt.
We are nearing the Blue Ridge, and it is raining. The southern part of Virginia is the poorest country we have yet seen.
The boys are now singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

Quarters Co. G, 1st S. C. V., Camp No. 1, Manassas, Va., Sept. 5, 1904.
We arrived in camp last night about dark, after having been on train more than 24 hours, very hungry and tired, then hivocacked on the grounds with out any tents. All the boys are well except Sam Dove, who had a chill yesterday afternoon. As yet we know very little about where we are to do. The southern part of Virginia is very poor and rough, as was mentioned in a former note, but this part of it is very fine. It is reported in camp this morning that some one will give us a big "blow out" on Tuesday and that we will go into Washington on Saturday.

In Honor of Miss Carpenter.

Last Friday evening Miss Luta Baker charmingly entertained a large number of her friends in honor of Miss Marie Carpenter, who is to be married in October. This occasion proved to be one of the most delightful events of the summer. The spacious piazzas, where the young people were entertained, beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns, presented a lovely appearance. The hostess, dressed in white silk, was successful in making her friends enjoy themselves. She was assisted in entertaining by Misses Mabel Withers, Louise Johnson, Marion Neely and Messrs.
Mac Neely, Robert Marshall and Will Bawley.

As the evening advanced each one was furnished with a card, the card in each young lady's hand corresponding with some young man's.
When all had found their partners they were invited into the dining room, two dining rooms, tastefully decorated being employed, where refreshments, consisting of a salad course, followed by cream and cake, were served. During the evening Misses Lottie Klutz, Esther Dar-roh, Carrie Hood and Altahee Rev-ley were attentive to their duties at the punch bowl.

The beautiful bride elect, hand-somerly gowned in black spangled net over tulle, in whose honor the reception was given, was looked lovelier than on this happy occasion. The following were in attendance:

- Misses Marie Carpenter, Adelaide Gaston, Mary Hood, Lucile Hood, Josie Oates, Nettie Spratt, Alice Whillock, Sadie McKee, Louise Johnson, John Patterson, Helen Hood, Kate Glenn, Louise Glenn,

Pleasant Social Affair.
Several young people gathered at Mr. Robert White's, about two miles from town, last Friday evening and spent most pleasant evening together. Games were played, and refreshments were served in abundance. Those who attended from Chester spoke highly of the occasion. The following were present:

- Misses Rosa and Virgie Hough, Thompson, of Rock Hill, Mattie Owens, of Henrico, Mobley, Martha Mobley, Mary Cunningham, and Louise Cunningham, Messrs.

W. M. Kennedy.

Special Term of Court in Session.
The special term of court for the trial of civil cases was called to order yesterday morning, J. E. Mc-Donald, of Winnsboro, acting as special judge, and Mr. Tadlock, of Columbia, acting as stenographer.

Yesterday was taken up with the trial of N. C. St. Louis Ry. vs Aiken & Dunlap, R. B. Caldwell representing the plaintiff and Glenn McDaniel the defendants. The jury reached their verdict this morning, giving the plaintiff $4.70.
Notice was given of a motion for a new trial by the plaintiff.

The case of Walker vs. Seyers & Scovill, Henry & McClure represented the plaintiff, and Spencer & Dunlap and Caldwell & Gaston the defendants, is being tried this morning.

Burial of Mr. McDaniel.

The burial of Mr. J. Martin Mc-Daniel at Union church last Wednesday was largely attended, owing friends from a wide area of country. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. P. Marion, a neighbor of the deceased, the Rev. W. A. Fairley leading in prayer. Mr. Marion first read a brief sketch of Mr. McDaniel, which will be found on the first page of this paper, then took as the basis of his remarks the passage of scripture with which the sketch closed. The address was a very strong presentation of the truth of immortality and the resurrection, and was delivered with feeling and animation.

The pallbearers were surviving comrades of the deceased, viz: J.
W. Bigham, Brown Wylie, E. H.
Millen, Green Simpson, Mike Malton, P. T. Hollis, J. J. Hollis.

school building, when the first, second, third and fourth grades will be divided.
J. Bonner Miller, Esq., of Birmingham, Ala., arrived last night from the University of Virginia, where he has been pursuing a course in law, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. G. Brice. He will leave the last of the week for his home.

A Former Chester Man.
Mr. W. J. Edge was in Chester Saturday, the first time in many years. He had just returned from the 15th section of the North Carolina veterans held at Asheville August 30-31. He was dressed in Confederate uniform. He wore a badge of olive, pinned on his vest, which bore the following, W. J.
Edge, Macbeth Light Art, S. C. V.
C. S. A. "On the lapel of his coat he wore a badge of the confession, which he had attended by special invitation, and the picture of the late Gen. Jno. B. Gordon.

Mr. Edge is here visiting his brother, Mr. Levi Edge, at Lewis Turnout. He was reared in this county, in the Baton Rouge section.
He served in the war, being only 18 years old when it ended. The impressions made upon his youthful mind during that awful struggle are as fresh today as they were when the war was over. With wonderful rapidity he relates incidents with dates. Mr. Edge expects to leave here tomorrow for Roma, Ga., where he will attend the reunion of the Georgia veterans the 14th and 15th inst., after which he will return to his home at Round Mountain, Ala. He left Chester county in 1876 just before Hampden was elected, and went to Alabama, where he has been engaged in farming since.

Ephraim Mobley Atkinson, M.D.
Dr. E. M. Atkinson passed from earth to Heaven at his home near Lowryville, S. C., August 28, 1904.
He had been in feeble health for some time. While at one time during his sickness his friends and loved ones had strong hopes of his recovery, they received very little encouragement from his physicians.
He was the third son of James L. and Cicely Atkinson, of Chester county. He was born in September 1831. He was educated at Furman University and South Carolina college, completing his medical course in Philadelphia.

On March 17, 1853, he was married by Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D., to Miss Adeline P. O'Neale, of Columbia. They lived for some years near his father's home in the neighborhood of Union church. He united with the church about 1866, during Mr. Saye's pastorate. Soon after he moved near Lowryville.
It was not long before he was made an elder of Zion church and the superintendent of its Sabbath school.
He and Dr. A. F. Anderson were placed in the office of elder at the same time. He leaves a wife and five children—Richard O. Atkinson, Mrs. Clara A. Moore, Charles M. Atkinson, James B. Atkinson, Ephraim M. Atkinson—and twenty-five grand-children to mourn his loss.

A good man has gone. Every one who knew him loved him. He was gentle and kind and sympathetic. For this reason he was very popular. He dearly loved his church, as shown by his regular attendance upon its ordinances, his liberal contributions toward their maintenance and the faithfulness with which he discharged the duties of the responsible position he occupied. That he loved God no one who knew him could doubt. He was consistent in his walk and conversation. He sympathized with the fallen and was never willing to exercise discipline toward such until every other possible means were used to reclaim them. He could say with Paul, Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such a one, in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself lest thou also be tempted.
Bear ye another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ. He assured his pastor during his sickness that all things were well with him, and his last words to his wife were that he was trusting in his Savior. "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."

An alarm of fire was sounded about 6 o'clock this morning. A small fire in the Ban Handker-house near the Seaboard depot was the occasion for the alarm. The building belonged to a colored woman named Atkinson. The fire was extinguished before any considerable damage was done.

Prof. J. M. Massey, blind, will give an entertainment in the white O.J.D. Fellow's hall, opposite the Lindsay Mercantile Company's store, this (Tuesday) evening.
Doors will be open at 7.30. The performance will begin at 8.30.
This entertainment will consist of social and instrumental music of a classical as well as a modern character, and of an instructive as well as amusing type.

Jesse H. Hardin, of Chester county, was here yesterday on his way to Clemson college to attend the meeting of the trustees. There are thirteen trustees of the college.
Seven of them were appointed by Mr. Clemson's will when the college opened in 1892 and every one of the seven are still living, and they are trustees for life. The South Carolina legislature appoints six every four years. Mr. Hardin and J. E. Tindal, of Clarendon county, are the only two trustees living that were elected in 1892. There have been six trustees elected by the legislature that have died in office.
Most of the trustees are farmers.

The Graduate

Is always an object of interest and pride to the parents, and rightfully and naturally so. But how many scholars have had to leave school before graduation because their parents have neglected to provide for the future. Do you think such scholars are naturally and rightfully proud of their parents?
And many a scholar has been permitted to finish his or her course and to graduate because of the maturity of an Endowment policy in the Equitable.

Mules Killed by Lightning.
 Mr. W. A. McGarity, who lives in the Wellidge neighborhood, suffered the misfortune of having two fine mules killed by lightning during an electric storm Sabbath afternoon. They were together in a stable and the lightning struck the barn, killing the mules, but doing little damage otherwise. Four other mules were in stables on the other side of the barn and were not injured. Mr. McGarity purchased these mules last spring. Each was five years old and worth about two hundred dollars.

When you buy a steel range figure on its lasting practically a life time. A little "foresight" will help you.

We Recommend Genuine

JEWEL Steel Ranges

Because we can afford to—we know they are all right, and built to last. "Foresight" would suggest that no painted or enameled range could stand the heat, and you know what a fright a range looks when it chips and turns white, how hard it is to clean!

Jewels are made of Blue Platinized Steel, the smooth kind."

Come ask us all about ranges—we're enthusiastic about Jewels.

When You Buy
FURNITURE
 You must depend to a large extent on the honesty of the dealer.

WE ARE NOT ANGELS

(If we were we would be out of business) but whatever you buy of us must be as we represent it to you or get your money back. In all the years that we have been selling goods to the people we have not had one person to say we cheated them or misrepresented our goods. WE NEVER MAKE A STATEMENT WE CAN'T BACK UP and we want to make one right now.

We Can Save You One-Fourth on Your Furniture Purchases.

Come to see us. Get our prices and let us show you how we get goods at such a big discount below our competitors. There is a way to prove our statement too: Compare our prices with those of our competitors.

EXAMPLE: Man came in our store the other day, said he wanted some furniture, picked out a set, but was fifty dollars; Man was surprised and said: "Why, that bill was a duplicate of a bill I had picked up. He had made twenty dollars in just a few minutes. We have his name if you want to know. Also that set of others who have had similar experiences. Moral is shown in our illustration.

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina and North-Western Railway Company.

On the Bridge.

About thirty years ago a little city in a southern state, not Virginia, was divided at its center by a ridiculous stream forty or fifty feet wide crossed at one point by a rocky ford and a foot-log, and a few blocks above by a sandy ford and a foot-bridge made for the use of the woman and children.

This is exactly a true story. That town has about eight times as many people as it had thirty years ago.

Dots from Oakridge. OAKRIDGE, August 30.—A protracted meeting is being carried on at Mt. Prospect this week, conducted by Rev. J. W. Neely, assisted by Rev. Mr. Peete, of Rock Hill.

Dangerous to Blow Noses. Judge Watts in passing sentence last week on a Saluda murderer, had occasion to comment upon the fact that "there has been too much shooting in South Carolina."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Has world-wide fame for marvellous cures. It surpasses any other salve, ointment or balm for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Blisters, Sores, Felons, Ulcers, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Chapped Hands, Skin Eruptions; infallible for Piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at the Woods Drug Co. and Johnston Drug Store.

What is Life? In the last analysis nobody knows; but we do know that it is under attack. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results.
