THE LANTERN.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 20, 1907.

The Chester edition of The State has just been received, and a glance at it makes the impression that it is a very interesting edition and a valuable contribution to Chester's history and progress.

When you talk about an automobile being the most recent and last syllable, you will find it in the State's "auto-bible," "auto-bible."

Exactly wrong. The best usage standard authority, authority, derivation, common sense and euphony all agree in placing the principal accent on the third syllable. Usage shows a succession of unaccented syllables "a-to-mo-bi-le."

Work, sing and pray for good roads and prohibition. - Lexington Dispatch. You will have to go about that carefully. Over in Chesterfield they are protesting and protesting, and the dispensary people, who had never heard noise like that before, became frightened, and now they are trying to limit the question on the plea of intimidation.

Constitutional Kickers, knockers, drones and members of the "sensational club" will have to seek other fields. Progressive North Augusta is in the lead. The above taken from the North Augusta Gazette might well be applied to Chester. The days of the "knocker" are numbered. The rapid growth and progress not only of Chester but of all other places. The habitual "knocker" does a lot of work but the people who are interested in a city's growth lose time in paying any attention to this class.

A Pittsburg woman kissed a man on the street, the other day whom she had "looked up" quite that she could not help it, and the man had "looked up" her. The woman who left to themselves women will always make the wrong choice.

His paragraph from the Florence Times was copied in The Lantern some time ago, and a Pittsburg reader, whom the ladies would do doubt "kiss" at any rate a very handsome young man-made haste to "plead not guilty." Doubtless he is a "pleader" of the "pleader" class, as the children say when playing "hide."

Director General Barr of the James-town exposition has resigned because, and President Tucker could not agree with the admission of women in social functions. While no trouble over the real exposition features has been reported, there has been constant quarreling over matters that concern only strikers. Better abolish social honors and let it be understood that all who go there will be accorded on such terms as they may command. We are all sovereigns, let it be remembered, and don't want anybody else in the procession without our consent.

If all the pupils now starting to school this year could be impressed with the importance of starting right, doing every day's work thoroughly, as a foundation for the work of the coming days, it would bring immense satisfaction to teachers and parents. It would give the pupils themselves the greatest sense of mastery and the staid dread of drudgery, and it would lift them to a higher plane and give them visions that are denied to those who shirk their daily tasks. Do today's work today.

Self-mastery comprehends every phase of education that we can think of, in teacher and pupil. The teacher that is perceptive, creative and impatient has his own way to the latest powers of the pupil which he is to direct and develop. The teacher who can place himself in complete sympathy with the child, feel his timidity and difficulties, see the magnified difficulties of his daily tasks from his view point, enter into the child's weary environment of his humble home, feel the effect of adverse conditions, and struggles with him over obstacles that meet him at every turn—the teacher who can do this, with conscientious purpose, will never fail to be a blessing to humanity, and a generation will praise him.

The plate colleges are full. That is well, but there is nothing remarkable about it. If there were no plate colleges or free day goods stores open, it would be a disaster. The state body who propose a good thing—New York's Cheater.

Afternoon Service.

The Presbyterian church is going to the plan of holding the afternoon service at 5 o'clock instead of at 10. It proves satisfactory it will be continued, otherwise the hour will be changed. The A. P. church has afternoon service for several years, and many of the members liked it better.

Mr. Henry went to Wintomb Monday to attend court, though accompanied with bolts. Wednesday he wired for J. C. McClure, Esq., to take his place in the court, as he was suffering intense pain. Cedar Camp Officers. At a meeting of the members of Cedar Camp, No. 5, W. O. W. Monday night it was decided to re-organize the camp in this city. They were present at the meeting of the following officers and members: E. F. Bell, C. P. pro tem; W. B. Key, A. L. pro tem; E. A. Crawford, clerk; J. S. Hollis, banner pro tem; A. Brown, escort pro tem.

The election of officers to serve the balance of the present year resulted as follows: Dr. J. B. Bigham, C. C.; Dr. G. B. White, A. L.; Jas. McLarnon, banner; E. A. Crawford, clerk; T. W. B. White, escort; W. W. Trice, watchman; Dr. W. E. Cox, physician; R. E. Hester, secretary; B. M. Spratt, J. M. Coleman, C. A. Vaughn, managers.

By vote it was decided that the camp would meet on Monday the second and fourth Mondays respectively being selected as the time of meeting. It was ordered that each member of the camp be notified by mail of this arrangement.

The following committee was appointed to look into the matter of securing a suitable hall to be used as headquarters and meeting place of the camp, Messrs. W. H. Newbold, C. C. Freeland, and W. W. Brice.

Three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the protection degree.

The outlook is exceedingly encouraging for the order in Chester, and the officers feel confident that with a half and regular nights of meeting the membership of Cedar Camp will be speedily increased.

A CARD.

Chm. Veterans Chester County. Here being for the first time a successful reunion on the 16th October. If we all do our duty, (and I believe we will) we will have an interesting program for the day and night; will have plenty of good speakers, good singing and music. We have been offered liberal contributions for the day, and as yet no active canvass has been made. I expect as large a gathering of veterans and friends of Chester county as we have ever had at any time. I urge upon each chairman and his assistant to get out and make a personal call upon each man for dinner with full basket, and money, and let us all feel proud of the 16th of October as a day of reunion.

I think the most important feature is a correct roster of the living Confederate veterans and their war record. This I urge that each chairman may have in and properly arranged by October 1st, so that all names will be put on the program by the 16th. I also insist that every veteran of Chester county be present on that day as business of the county is of the greatest importance for the interest of the veterans will be taken up and discussed. Most sincerely,

J. W. Reed, Chm. U. C. V.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

S. A. L.'s Former Land and Industrial Agent Wants to Assist in Developing Chester. His Prospective. Here is a letter that our business men and citizens generally might read with profit. It might be addressed to Mr. J. T. Patrick, the author of the letter, was formerly land and industrial agent of the S. A. L. Ry. and understands town development thoroughly, as is indicated by the management of Southern Pines, N. C., in his hands and under his directions. The letter, copies of which were received by Messrs. J. L. Glenn and A. C. Brice, follows:

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 13, 1907. Dear Sirs:—Is there any need of energetic effort in your town towards its future development? And would a few of your best citizens like to join forces with outside men who have money to invest and who understand how to promote the growth of towns?

I have been solicited to take the management of a company that will make a business of promoting the development of communities in towns in the South, on the following terms:

First, the company would want to locate in your town, and buying from twenty five to one hundred acres of land, within the town limits, or near by, that could be divided into building lots and manufacturing sites.

Second, they would want the local business men to assist in the selection of a good hotel, or the purchase and improving of one of the hotels now in the town so that when prospective settlers and men whom they would induce to visit the town with a view to establishing a manufacturing plant, they would have the best of hotel accommodations. All of us recognize the fact that the South does not give the proper attention to having good accommodations at our town hotels. They would bring in a good hotel man and see to it that your town has a first class hotel. The hotel man would be from one of the Northern states, and could assist in inducing men from his section to locate your town.

The man who comes expecting to invest money and start an enterprise should find the best of food, the town should be comfortable and the bedding of the very best. Usually you will find three or four dollar, part shack and part cottages located in the hotels of the town. Poor hotels is one of the greatest drawbacks the South has to contend with.

Third, they would want the business men to assist in advertising the town's advantages, telling the outside world what attractive features you have to offer to prospective settlers. Can you send me a booklet or some printed matter setting forth the advantages of your location?

I am writing you because I know it is to the interest of bankers to have new capital and new people come into their town. Bankers usually know of land that can be purchased at a bargain.

These things will not be able to handle more than a half dozen places annually for the reason that they are not a town buy land and sell it out leaving the buyers to develop the property. The company guarantees to stick to the town until the land is sold upon. Outside money is furnished when necessary, to build houses upon the lots sold.

You no doubt know of my work in the development of Southern Pines, N. C. When I started in there was not a house on the several hundred acres. The land was purchased at one dollar per acre. Today some of the land sells for more than two hundred dollars an acre and some of the town lots have sold at the rate of several thousand dollars per acre.

Please discuss this subject with some of your business men and let me hear from you at your earliest convenience as I want to see how our Southern business men feel about this undertaking before I decide whether or not to join in the enterprise. I believe it is a good thing for the town, no money is carried away from the town, but much money is brought in and spent by the promoting company. Yours very truly,

J. T. Patrick.

OPERA HOUSE.

The following clipping from the Evening Citizen speaks well for the great Barlow Minstrel to be here on the 16th and 17th of October. The Great Barlow Minstrel to be here to a large audience at the Auditorium. The following is the program of the company as announced by the manager of the show. Mr. Coburn has the good organization and the ability to do anything that is worth while. The Minstrel's first act is a good one, repeats with good songs well sung and some of the best of the old bright star was Dan Holloman and he kept his own name from start to finish. - Julia and Marion in the first act. The grand finale was excellent.

Opera House next Monday night, September 23rd. The statement of W. H. Newbold shows that their banker business is no small affair and that it is in fine shape.

An Explanation. What the Merchants Say About Chester Wholesale Grocery Company. They sell goods so cheap; they are continually raising the cotton seed market; they are now bulling the cotton market; cutting the price on wagons and buggies. This may all be true, but we cannot see how this will hurt our customers or their customers, and we are not running a hospital for wounded merchants. We will sell bagging and ties cheaper than any one in Chester. We carry almost everything. We want every buyer to investigate these charges and if true, save money on what you buy. We will guarantee everything as represented or money refunded. Lots of "SILVER LEAF" best patent Flour for $2.50 per hundred.
