"Fitters of Feet"

Edgemoor Letter.

Edgemoor, Sept. 11. The Ladies Aid Society of Edgemoor A. R. E. church celebrated their nineteenth anniversary last Saturday. Sept. 12th, with a picnic at the church. The ladies gathered on the church lawn at ten o'clock. Such making of beer was never so well. With the help of their husbands and sons, a call was soon made. The invited guests were the L. M. S. of Union church and the L. M. S. of Neely street and their pastor, Rev. W. S. Stevenson, also Rev. A. S. Rogers and wife of Rock Hill.

After an hour or two of social chat a beautiful dinner was spread under the beautiful water-cake in front of the church. The first course consisted of chicken, lettuce, pie, custard, pickles, chicken salad, potato salad, salmon salad and light bread. The second course was cream and cake.

After dinner was over the bell rang and all went into the house. The ladies prepared a short program which could not be carried out exactly because of the absence of Mr. Rogers and Mr. Stevenson. However, Mr. Lummus made a very interesting talk on the history of the church. The society was read by L. G. McCright. Mr. W. E. Simpson made some very appropriate remarks on the occasion. There was a song and prayer by Mr. Lummus and the exercises closed in the house. After the benediction, the crowd all came out for the lawn to spend the evening. Cream was served about 4 o'clock. Quite a number went out to see our new school house, which is nearly completed. Thus you see the day was really a success.

Mr. G. A. Buchanan came up last Friday from Darlington and returned this morning with his family.

Miss L. B. Robinson has returned from a visit to her sister in Winsboro. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Glass and children returned from New York and Boston this morning.

Mr. S. M. Whitson who has been clerking for Mr. Glass for the last week, returned to his home at Lowryville this morning.

Mrs. Katie Willford, of the Mt. Holly neighborhood, spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Frances Robinson.

Mr. W. M. Aiken went to Catawba last week to see her daughter, Miss Bess Patton, who has been very sick at the home of her brother, Mr. John Patton.

As we write, the ad news comes to us that Miss May Walker is no more. She died suddenly this morning. Miss Walker had been an invalid for a number of years.

One day Mary, the charwoman, reported for service with a black eye. "Why, Mary," said her sympathetic mistress, "what a bad eye you have."

"Yes!"

"Well, there's one consolation--It might have been worse."

"You might have had both of them hurt."

"Yes!" or worse than that; I might not have been married at all!"--Every body's Magazine.

Guess?

Guess in what school of politeness the men who block up the sidewalk so that a lady can scarcely pass recited their training in manners?

Guess whose boys and what young men spend the time during service last Sunday night on the streets opposite the church smoking and strolling matches?

Guess what was in the little grip so that a lady can scarcely pass recited on campaign days?

Guess why some young ladies who do not have escorts go so amused when they see other young ladies come to church with escorts?

Guess what a man feels like who sells his vote for a drink of liquor?

Guess who pays for the campaign?

Guess where so many toppers go to the liquor to keep gloriously full during the campaign?

Guess how many parents will deny their good of the school for their children by falling to stand by their teachers?--Quit, in Dorchester Magazine.

Three Counties Poll One-Fifth.

Anderson, Sept. 13. A glance over the official results in the second primary of last Tuesday discloses some interesting information. The counties of Anderson, Greenville and Spartanburg polled a few votes less than one-fifth of the total vote of the State. Spartanburg polled 2,175, which was more than any other county; Anderson came second with a vote of 6,282, while Greenville came third with 72 votes less than Anderson, or 2,103. The total vote of the counties was 20,264. About 110,000 votes were cast in the state. Richland county polled only 2,352, while Charleston counted only 3,255. The big county of Orangeburg polled 3,159, while Sumter cast 1,747.--Special to The State.

Made a Good Race.

In consideration of Mr. Finley having canvassed the 5th Congressional district eight times, which gives him an intimate acquaintance with every precinct in the district and of Col. Thomas B. Butler Cherokee's candidate polling the race with practically no support in the district outside of Cherokee county, we think he made a wonderful race. We feel proud of him and congratulate him on his great feat. --Cherokee News.

Rachel, who was four years old, was admiring her baby brother, who was three months old before his father returned from a trip abroad. Looking up at her mother, she said, "Mama, won't papa be sorry he isn't my relation to his baby?"--Delinquent.

Good for Billionaires.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night and feel much better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone, of Allagan, Mich. "They are certainly a new article for billionaires. For sale by all druggists. Samples free."

Eminent Advocate.--Well, my little man, what are you going to be when you grow up?

Eminent Advocate (highly mistaken).--Why don't you think they'll make you a lawyer?

Little Man.--Father thinks I should become a lawyer.

Eminent Advocate (highly mistaken).--Why don't you think they'll make you a lawyer?

Little Man.--Oh, no. My business I want so many silly questions!--Lad.
