THE LANTERN.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, CASH. TUESDAY, SEPT. 24, 1907.

Are These the Quinlan's?

The Wilmington Morning Star was forty years old yesterday morning. A signifier of its first page...

If Mrs. Ethel Blair had been a man probably not so much effort would have been made to get her a new trial. We do not know what she discovered...

Senator Lattimer, after looking over Europe, with special reference to immigration, expresses himself as opposed to immigration...

There are conditions a thousand times worse than those uncutthroat and idle spirit which are ruling in a country filled up with bad class of people...

Norwegians Want to Return. Chicago, Sept. 23.—In a haste of immigration and turn the flood back toward the fatherland...

The officer is Lieut. Col. Morton Magnus, of the "land storm" division of the Norwegian army...

It is said the subject has grown to the proportions of a national issue and by the government and public...

Gen. Wheeler's Confederate Rank. The war department has not a prompt grant upon the report that the Confederate rank of the late Gen. Joseph Wheeler had been denied place on the monument at Arlington...

Laurens Tipton Heavily Fined. Laurens, Sept. 22.—Judge Gray heard arguments on motion for judgment on the case of Laurens Tipton, a native of the State against J. Lee Hunter...

Is It Retribution? Sunday continues to maintain its record of horrible accidents of the "Wreckers" and "Wreckers" on the water or on the road by automobile...

Chester. The State today devotes more space to the growing city of Chester. The allotment of space was not made with any view to the promotion of a town with respect to a rapidly developing town...

Back of this proceeding are numerous complaints from cotton men of York and the sections of the state over the alleged discrimination of the Gulf Company in handling cotton. When the district officer filed his suit in a temporary order was issued...

No More Bad Roads. A few years ago being a despoiler I read that going bare headed and barefooted was a sure cure. It was not a bad idea as far as possible at home in the yard and bareheaded as much as I could stand...

Killed in Boxing Match. Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—John Meese aged 22 years, a local lightweight boxer known as "Young" Meese, died in a hospital here after receiving a blow over the heart received in a fight with Nell Dever on Saturday night...

Girl Walks Out of Window. News reached the city this morning to the effect that a very painful experience fell to the lot of a young girl named Wallace, of No. 3 township, Monday night. All day Monday Miss Carrie Wallace was engaged in packing her trunks and boxes for her departure...

Secret Marriages. It has been discovered that the legislature of Wisconsin, at its last session, passed a law to "pilot" and "secret" marriages. The peculiarity of the law is that it is aimed at those who leave the state for the purpose of getting married, and then come back to the state...

Compensatory West Wind Up. Vicksburg, Miss., Sept. 23.—Chancellor Hicks late today declared the Gulf Company today an illegal trust and gave the corporation notice to wind up its business in the state and withdraw. He denied this application for a receiver.

The suit was brought in a victory for District Attorney James D. Thame, who has less than two weeks ago filed suit against the Gulf Company company. He was allowed to take charge of the affairs of the company and that he declared an illegal combination in restraint of trade...

The McKelney's Bodies Moved. Canton, September 20.—Side by side in the McKelney mausoleum, in heavy iron coffins, lie the bodies of the President and Mrs. McKelney now repose. The transfer of the President's body was made from the vault in West...

Lieut. Joe Hardin, of the United States Army, and whose command is now on his return to Westport, Mo., is home for his vacation.

Mrs. Malcom and John Marion, John Hemphill and Wm. James, of Chester, and Thomas Ross, of Blacksville, will leave for the South Carolina University today.

The local Woodmen held another meeting last night and initiated several into the mysteries of the order. The camp has a good membership and much enthusiasm is being manifested.

Miss Emma Anderson and brother, Mr. Jas. Anderson, of Leno, were in the city this morning. The former was on her return to Lindwood college and the latter on his way to Mount Pleasant, N. C., to enter school.

MEADOW FARM DAIRY—Milk and cream. Phone No. 250. Could use a fresh cow or two at $100. 9-11-07.

Mr. C. G. Gwaltney, of Winnsboro, who was passing through Saturday on his way to Rock Hill, had a new automobile badly torn at the corner of Columbia and Hinton streets. He was accompanied by a colored man and was traveling at a lively rate when he met a lumber wagon, which was driven by a boy. Neither knew which side the other was aiming for and in the confusion, Mr. Gwaltney, by a quick turn ran his machine against a tree throwing both men out but neither one was seriously hurt. Mr. Gwaltney continued his journey on the train and the colored man had the automobile hauled to a shop for repairs but several new pieces will have to be ordered from the factory.

The writup of Chester came out in the State on last Friday morning. It was fully illustrated and almost every feature of the city was fully written. Besides the regular circulation of the State several thousand extra copies were made in different parts of the country. The majority of the extra copies went to the Northwest as that is the section where the great number of people are turned to the South. It is believed that good results will come from this writup and that Chester has been fully advertised to the State people are being complimented by Chester citizens for this effort in their behalf.

POCKET MEMORANDUM lost. Contained account of riding, also other notes on separate sheet and Knight of Honor letter addressed to James H. Hardin, and other memoranda. Return to W. A. Hardin. 9-20-07.

Before the Magistrate. Changed hearing was held in Magistrate McQueen's court this morning in the case of the State against Ellen Taylor on the charge of grand larceny. She was held to await trial at the next term of the circuit court. As the Eastern goes to press the trial of David Abel and Arthur Snook, for receiving stolen goods is in progress. This is the watch case an account of which appeared in these columns a few days ago.

For Robbing the Mail. Mr. M. O. Haverstad, Postoffice Inspector, arrested Memphis Wilks, charged with robbing the mail at Greenville, N. C., on last Friday charging with robbing the mails at this place. The prisoner was brought back and lodged in jail and will await trial at the next term of the United States court in Greenville.

It appears that the negro was night porter at S. A. L. depot until recently. Numerous articles were missed from the mail pouches. Suspicion pointed to Wilks but he could be arrested because he was not in jail. He was searched and much plunder found. Haverstad got on the trail and finally caught him. He is now in a den and that the prisoner admit his guilt.

Death of a Little Boy

Robert, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumter Dixon, died Sabbath morning, Sept. 22, 1907, at the home of his parents, near Blackstock, after a short illness. The funeral services were at the home yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. W. A. Falley and the burial was at Pleasant Grove Methodist church.

Planning to Build Immediately

Mr. J. A. Fride, of the Seaboard, and Mr. D. Cardwell, of the South and Mr. R. H. Calhoun, of Swift and Company, were here yesterday for the purpose of looking over the ground where Swift & Company are to erect their fertilizer plant. They were seeing about running sidetracks. Mr. Cardwell returned to Columbia last night, Mr. Fride remained in the city and Mr. Calhoun went on to Wilmington.

When asked about the plant Mr. Calhoun said that it was intended to erect it at once. It is intended to go to get in work around here for next year's crop.

Mrs. C. B. McKown

Mrs. Doray Howas McKown, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Howas, of Blacksville, died at her home at Fort Lawn Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. She had been in declining health for several months, although under the treatment of the best medical skill, the onward march of the malady could not be arrested. The funeral services were conducted at the home Sabbath morning by Rev. J. J. Brown, assisted by Rev. J. H. Wilson and the burial was at Cedar Shoals cemetery. The following young men, all except two nephews of the deceased, acted as pall-bearers: Richard Corbett, Howas; Robert Dunslop, Fort Law; Dr. M. J. McFadden, Clinton; and S. McQueen, Cornwall. She had three years of age. She was born and reared in Blacksville. She was married to Dr. C. B. McKown twenty two years ago. Of this union one daughter, Miss Maude, was born, who married Mr. Walter McQueen, the son of the same family and mother. She is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Miss Mary Howas, Blacksville; Mrs. M. M. Harlow, Blacksville; Mrs. C. L. Dunslop, Fort Law; Mrs. W. M. Howas, New York; and K. C. Howas, of Greenville.

Go to Panama.

Mrs. J. Adams Hayne and children, who have been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Fannie D. Roder, died at the home of his parents, near Blackstock, left Friday morning for Greenville. From there Mr. Hayne and children, except her two brothers, will leave for New York and San Francisco to join Dr. Hayne, who is a government surgeon at Ochsler Hospital, Canal Zone.

Before the Mayor

A large crowd attended the police court yesterday morning to hear the trial of the case against R. E. McGraw and E. E. Sims, who were up on the charge of disorderly conduct and playing. It seems that both McGraw and Sims had partaken of a beautiful supply of "booze" on Saturday afternoon and were in a fighting humor. Come on last Monday E. Walters, a picture agent, blew in from the south on No. 34 and took up his abode on the factory hill. For some reason there was some misunderstanding between Walters and the other two men. One said that Walters had beat him the one of his abode, once and the other said that Walters had beat him up in the face considerably.

Chamber of Commerce Meeting

An effort is being made to work up interest in the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce and must help all that can. The work is hard but it is worth it. The Chamber of Commerce has done some good in Chester. It has already accomplished some results and has a long way to go. The Chamber of Commerce has done some good in Chester. It has already accomplished some results and has a long way to go.

Little Child Dead.

James Henry, aged two and one half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Roder, died at the home of his parents, the Wylie mill, Saturday afternoon after an illness of several weeks with malarial fever. The funeral services were at the home Sabbath afternoon conducted by Rev. C. B. Carter and the burial was in Old Trinity graveyard.

Old Papers.

Mr. W. F. Stricker showed us yesterday a copy of the Chester Standard of 40 years ago, Feb. 29, 1867, containing the marriage notice of his father and mother, and that of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Gunhouse and many other things that recall times remembered now by only a minority of our citizens. Mr. Stricker has also the first issue of "The State Bulletin," of April 5, 1891, of which Messrs. B. McLean and W. D. Clawson were editors. It is hardly necessary to say that in their salutatory they promised that the paper should be democratic.

The Equinoctial Storm.

The government ordered storm warnings to be displayed in different places along the coast on last Saturday. It is the time of the year when the West Indian cyclones visit the southern coast and sometimes they come up a good ways into the interior. They are very destructive and leave ruin in their wake. Chester got on the fog end of a cyclone. All Sabbath night the wind blew at a lively rate and there was a constant fall of rain. Sometimes the wind was fierce. Ostro was damaged considerably and corn was blown down in many places. The cotton which was open which had not been picked, was blown out in many instances. No damage to buildings has as yet been reported.

STORIES OF DR. HOLMES.

A Young Woman Who Didn't Like His Literary Taste. The story is recalled of a young Virginia county girl dining in Boston...

"Oh, we read, my father and I," she said. "And what do you read?" asked the little man...

"You didn't say that Dr. Holmes as interesting as I hoped." "Dr. Holmes" shrieked Miss Virginia...

"Another story of Holmes' wit is told. One day old Dr. Peabody was to meet him, at a certain place...

"Why, I was met here by him at the station of Eurycle, and when I arrived he said quite happily, 'Oh, you came in a carriage?'"

"The minister, the hero of Salem, was sent into imprisonment by the practice of ostracism. This was a purely Athenian device to prevent any citizen becoming too great..."

"Michael Angelo. Michael Angelo was equally great as painter, sculptor and architect. In order to point out his greatness he devoted twelve years to the study of anatomy..."

"No; Lieutenant Wagstaff said you marched magnificently." "The lieutenant may not be a good judge." "I fancy he is. To my mind there is nothing that makes a man more respectable than a military appearance..."

"Then I would like to see you walk." And she handed him his hat.—London Mail.

Lame Back. This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proved especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt relief...

Latter on Immigration.

Senator A. C. Latimer arrived in the city from Greenville last evening... Senator Latimer thinks that the state will not be benefited by the proposed...

"When conditions are ripe in South Carolina," said Senator Latimer, "the best and most desirable immigrants...

"I have not seen him bankrupt," asked the counsel. "No, he is careful," admonished the lawyer with raised finger. Did you ever stop payment?"

"When I had paid all I owed," said the counsel of the plaintiff.—Success Magazine.

Definition of Lies. The vigor was addressing the school on the night of the 10th...

"I wish you would quit, sir, and remember that we did not come in here to listen to your impudent remarks."

She Didn't Eat Swine. It was a Saturday night and all the parts of the theatre were crowded. In the gallery a young woman sat...

Newspapers and Crime.

Deceit seems to be the motive power back of the wave of crime that has swept over the country...

"We are inclined to the opinion that publicity in some instances may act as a deterrent to crime, but in children are the victims of brutal men, who judging from the published accounts of their actions, appear to be actuated by an overwhelming lustful motive."

The New York newspapers devote columns every day to the setting forth of facts relative to crime, and the news revealing the crime is the greater display of type in describing.

The Pennsylvania Gratzes.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—Warrants were today issued for the arrest of the Gratzes in connection with the building of the new state capitol. It is said there will be over thirty original counts, and perhaps more will follow.

Joseph M. Huston, architect and designer of facade for the new capitol building, was today arrested by Sheriff John H. Sanderson, general contractor.

William H. Snyder, former auditor general, was today arrested by Sheriff John H. Sanderson, general contractor.

Building a City Outright. The report from Gary, Ind., that the city had decided to build a new city hall has been received here. The original appropriation of $5,000,000 for expenditures at that point in connection with the new city hall is an interesting insight upon the wide scope of the energies of the great industrial corporations of today.

Health in the Canal Zone. The high wages paid made it difficult temptation to our young artists to join the force of skilled workmen...
