THE LANTERN,
 PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
J. T. BIGHAM, - Editor and Proprietor.
 Entered at the Postoffice at Chester, N. C., as second-class mail matter.
TUESDAY, OCT. 2, 1906.

Robinson's Opening.
 When Mr. J. C. Robinson announces an opening people wonder how he is going to devise a way to surpass the preceding one, but he always manages to do it. The store Friday evening was a scene of surpassing beauty and taste. It would be useless to attempt a detailed description. The remarks of the visitors who packed the place were chiefly interjections, and the expressions on their faces ran to exclamation points.

Died While Visiting.
 Mrs. Kate Davis, of Chester county, came over about 2 weeks ago to visit her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Taylor, at Monarch. While there she was taken sick and after 11 days' illness died on Sunday last. Her body was taken to Cool Branch Baptist church, Fairfield county, for burial.

Broke Up Religious Meeting.
 Deputy Sheriff Walker Carroll went to North Carolina last week for the Rev. James Williams, a preacher well equipped with a reputation from the governor. He had understood that Jackson was in jail, but he found him 15 miles in the country conducting a protracted meeting. The preacher said he was doing a great work and could not come down until the next day, but Mr. Carroll induced him to come on, saving his feelings, however, by allowing him to excuse himself and return to town with his family, unaccompanied by the officer. Jackson is charged with some indiscretion concerning a woman, which he says he can readily clear up.

John Wesley Carter.
 Mr. John Wesley Carter, whose health had been failing for some time, died early Sabbath morning and the remains were buried that afternoon at New Hope, the Rev. J. M. Fryd conducting funeral services.

A Rebel Rally.
 Col. J. W. Reed is beginning to talk about a rally, with entertainment and revenue features, for the very worthy purpose of providing means to enable all the Confederate veterans to attend the reunion in Richmond. Col. Reed thinks it probable that the next year will be the last general reunion, as the number of veterans is decreasing so rapidly and so many of the survivors, on account of age and disease, are becoming physically unable to make long trips. At any rate it is fitting that the old soldiers should once more have an opportunity to meet at or near the scene of their struggles and hardships when they were in their young years. Everybody, we are sure, will co-operate in this undertaking with hearty good will.

Cotton Association.
 A good number of farmers—but not too many—were in town yesterday to attend the meeting of the cotton association, of which Col. J. H. Hough is president and Capt. W. S. Hall secretary.

Defacing Buford Monument.
 The Buford Monument, we are told, is fast being literally ruined by persons breaking off pieces of the shaft, presumably the work of souvenir seekers. As a lady remarked to me a few days ago, at the present rate of defacement it is only a question of time, and a short time at that, when it will be impossible to tell what the monument itself for what purpose was erected.

Visitors to the Buford battle ground should not be unmindful, to say the least, of their conduct, as to thoughtlessly or otherwise destroy the monument's historic value by clipping or knocking off parts of the stone. It is to be hoped that the defacement will be stopped; but if continued, however, steps should be taken to protect the monument by properly enclosing it.—Lancaster News.

Mrs. Sawyer and children went home this morning. Mrs. Sally will stay a few days longer. Mrs. Kee's condition considerably improved and there is hope of her recovery.

Mrs. T. L. Eberhardt was the winner of the watch offered by Mr. J. C. Robinson to the lady who would come nearest guessing the time a watch which was placed in the show window Friday, would run down. Mrs. Eberhardt's guess was 7:15 Saturday evening, and it stopped 15 seconds after seven. Mrs. G. A. Morrison was a close second, there being less than half a minute's difference in the times guessed.

 The death of Mrs. T. J. Cunningham has brought sorrow to many hearts, of those who enjoyed her friendship; those who were cheered by her kindness and those who were the beneficiaries of her almsdeeds. The burial, was at Woodward church Saturday afternoon, and funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. O. Sessions, J. H. Yarborough and James Russell.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.
 Secretary Taft Takes Charge as Provisional Governor—Funston in Command of Troops.
 Habana, Sept. 29.—Governor Taft proceeded to the palace at 10 o'clock to take over the government of Cuba. The act was not accompanied by any formal ceremony or public demonstration.
 During the morning Brig. Gen. Funston conferred with Mr. Taft regarding the location for the camp for the first division of the American troops to be landed here. The sites have not yet been selected. Funston will command all the troops in Cuba, which will number about 7,000.

Habana, Sept. 29.—Provisional Governor Taft's proclamation declaring intervention in Cuba, as published in the Official Gazette today, was as follows:
 To the people of Cuba:—The failure of congress to act on the irrevocable resignation of the president of the republic of Cuba or to elect a successor, leaves the country without a government, and in a state when great disorder prevails and requires that, pursuant to the request of Mr. Palma, the necessary steps be taken in the name and by the authority of the president of the United States to restore order and protect life and property in the island of Cuba and the islands and keys adjacent thereto, and for this purpose to establish the provisional government. The provisional government hereby established will be maintained only long enough to restore order, peace and public confidence by the action of the national president of the United States, and then to hold such elections as may be necessary to determine on those persons upon whom the permanent government of the republic should be devolved. In so far as is consistent with the nature of a provisional government established under the authority of the United States, this will be a Cuban government, conforming with the constitution of Cuba. The Cuban flag will be hoisted as usual over the government buildings of the island, all the executive departments and provincial and municipal governments, including that of the city of Habana, will continue to be administered as under the Cuban republic. The courts will continue to administer justice, and all the laws not in their nature inapplicable by reason of the temporary and emergent character of the government, will be in force. President Roosevelt has been most anxious to bring about peace under the constitutional government of Cuba, and he made every endeavor to avoid the present step. Longer delay, however, would be dangerous in view of the resignation of the cabinet.

Until further notice the heads of all the departments of the central government will report to me for my instructions, including Gen. Alejandro Rodriguez, in command of the rural guards and other regular government forces, and Gen. Carlos Roloff, treasurer Cuba.
 Until further notice the civil governors and alcaldes will also report to me for instructions.

I ask all citizens and residents of Cuba to assist me in the work of restoring order, tranquility and public confidence.
 (Signed) William H. Taft,
 Secretary of War, United States.
 Habana, Sept. 29, 1906.

Habana, Sept. 29.—The work of disposing peacefully of the revolutionary forces in Cuba against the Cuban government is already practically under way. Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston, chairman of the disarmament commission, had two amicable conferences today with Gen. Pine Guitra and Del Castillo and arranged a programme perfectly satisfactory to all concerned. In fact Gen. Funston said this evening that the wind up will be quick and rapid that it will take much less time than had been anticipated.

The first landing of any considerable number of Americans took place tonight when 450 marines came ashore from the squadron in the harbor. This force proceeded to Cienfuegos at 9 o'clock this evening on a special train. It was explained that this movement was not made on account of any actual trouble in Cienfuegos, but for the purpose of exerting a calming influence on the local situation, which contains some possibility of a conflict by reason of the tense feeling existing between the government volunteers and the insurgents.

The game was played according to the new rules and while rugged and slow was keenly enjoyed by one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a football match in Charlotte.—Special to The State.

Mrs. Louisa M. Sheppard Dead.

Edgefield, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Louisa Mobler Sheppard, in the eightieth year of her age, died this morning in Edgefield, under the roof of her son, ex-Gov. John C. Sheppard. And in her death, a life of long, varied, noble experience, whose one or two latest years were fraught with intense physical suffering, has been exchanged for the rest of Paradise. Mrs. Sheppard came of a Salsola family, the Moblys, prominently and patriotically identified with Edgefield county since the days before the Old Revolution—Special to The State.

OPERA HOUSE.
Minstrels Were All Right.
The Donnelly and Hatfield minstrels, the first minstrel show this season here, have pleased large audiences at the Academy yesterday afternoon and last night. In spite of the chilly, drizzly weather, the matinee attendance was away above the average, and at night the best audience of the season turned out.
The show is a good one throughout; that part of the performance known as the first part furnishing the first handsome ending in a minstrel show in these parts for some time. The program calls for a stupendous spectacle. The evolution of minstrelsy, or minstrelsy a tribute to the Twenty-first century, etc., and the "dime party" about fills the bill. Tommy Donnelly, who has served as a comedian, was one of Al. G. Field's chief fun-makers, heads the bunch of laugh creators with his show, and Solo de Miller, with a splendid lyric tenor voice, leads the show.
Features of the "second part" are "Teddy's Bear Hunt," with Tommy Donnelly as President Roosevelt, and "The Independent Order of Fossoms," a burlesque on modern jingo melodrama, and that of Frank Jaygo, a character, and other features of the program. The way of entertainment. Daily News, Newport News, Va., Sept. 1902. Opera House, Oct. 3rd.
