BEWLEY-KLUTZ.

Chester Bay Weds Union Girl—Off to the North.

Union, October 16.—Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Luta Catherine Bewley, of this city, and Mr. Samuel Walkup Klutz, of Chester, which was solemnized at the First Baptist Church of this city, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The handsome church had been appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the pulpit and choir loft were banked with handsome palms, ferns and evergreens. Just before the arrival of the bridal party, "Angel's Serenade" was beautifully rendered on organ and violins, by Misses Lela and Mary Halner, of Chester, and Miss Annie Rodger, of this city. Immediately after this, the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March were heard, and the ushers, Messrs. DeWitt Klutz, of Chester, and B. F. Alston, Jr., of this city, took their position at the foot of the aisle. The tulle bearers, Misses Frances Nicholson, Altheale Bewley, sister of the bride, and Lottie Klutz, sister of the groom, and Lois Sample, of Chester, entered from opposite aisles, bearing rolls of tulle which they unrolled as they went down the aisle, finally fastening it at the foot of the aisle. These young ladies were dressed in elaborate silk costumes of white and lavender, with gloves and shoes to match. Miss Conneli Greer, the first bridesmaid, entered with Mr. S. R. Lathan, of Chester, they proceeding down opposite aisles. They were followed by Miss Nettie McCall, of Quitman, Ga., with Mr. Agerton Keithly, of Columbia. Next Miss Josie McCall, also of Quitman, entered with Mr. Will Bewley, brother of the bride. The maid of honor, Miss Ella Oliver, of Elberton, Ga., who wore a handsome costume of white net over taffeta, entered alone. She was followed by the little daughter of Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, of Anderson, who bore the ring on a silver waiter.

Just as the bride entered on the arm of her dame of honor, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, of Anderson, the groom together with his best man, Dr. J. A. Smathers, of Salisbury, and Mr. C. S. Sullivan, joined the bride at the altar, the bridesmaids and groomsmen having taken their position on the pulpit.

After the short and simple ceremony, which was solemnized by Rev. K. W. Cawthon, the party left the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March.

The bride's dress was an exquisite creation of white diana satin, princess style, en traine, trimmed with bertha of real lace and pearls. The veil, which was of softest embroidered tulle, was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of the same flowers. Her only ornament was a diamond crescent, the gift of the groom. The dame of honor, Mrs. Chas. S. Sullivan, wore a handsome gown of real lace over taffeta.

The couple left immediately on the 5:45 train for Virginia, Washington, New York, Niagara, and other points, and on their return will make their home in Chester. The bride's going away gown, was of brown cloth, with long Prince Chap coat, hat, gloves and shoes of brown also.

The bride, though having lived in Union only a year, has made many friends here, who will regret to see her leave, though wish her much happiness in her new home.

The groom is a prominent young business man of Chester, of sterling qualities, and the good wishes of many friends are his. This wedding has been of much interest in the social circles of Union, and many out of town guests were here for the occasion. Among them were, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Sullivan, of Anderson; Mrs. A. W. Klutz, Mr. Lex Klutz, Mrs. A. N. Sample and Miss Lois Sample, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardin, and Mr. M. A. Carpenter, of Chester; Mrs. Lawrence Dorroh, of Laurens; Mrs. J. T. Whiteside, of Elberton, aunt of the bride; Mr. Theo. Klutz, Miss Catherine Klutz, and Miss Frances Griffith, of Salisbury.

A beautiful reception was given in honor of the bridal party Tuesday evening, when sixty guests enjoyed the charming and bountiful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bewley, parents of the bride. Special to The Chester Reporter.

State Prohibition.

Senator Otts, of Cherokee, has announced that he intends to introduce a state prohibition bill at the next session of the legislature, with a provision in it retaining the local option feature of the Carey-Cochran act, with this modification: The whole state is to be made prohibition, and then if any county wants the dispensary it can get it by the usual petition and election.

As it is now, a county that has a dispensary and wants to get rid of it has to get up a petition and secure an election and vote it out—and when they vote it out they do not get rid of it then, as is shown in the case of Laurens and Kershaw and Chesterfield and perhaps other counties, where the majority voted against the dispensary and the courts kept it fastened on them, through some technicality, in spite of the vote.

Senator Otts' proposed bill would guarantee to the people the right to vote a dispensary in if they so desired, and it would protect them from having a dispensary forced on them through technicalities of the law and the shrewdness of liquor dealers. Newberry Observer.

Collision on C. & N. W.

Laurens, Oct. 17.—As the passenger train on the C. & N. W. railway slowly entered the yard here today, as some boys had opened the switch, it ran into some box cars, shaking up the passengers considerably but seriously injuring only one passenger. One coach had every glass broken and two box cars were badly torn up. Charlotte Observer.

A number of farmers of the McConnelville country have tried the Williamson plan with very great success this year. There are several, especially good farmers immediately around McConnelville, who knew how to make corn according to methods of their own; but who have found in the Williamson plan a very considerable improvement.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Mr. Sam Newman, a Mexican veteran, 89 years old, died at his home near Ridgeway last week. He was a great hunter and walker too, and retained his physical facilities in a marked degree up to the time of his death. He was perhaps the last veteran of the Mexican war in Fairfield county.—Fairfield News and Herald.

Married, Monday evening at the Presbyterian manse, by Rev. J. M. Holladay, Miss Carrie Elliott, of Wadesboro, and Dr. J. G. McMaster, of Florence.—Fairfield News and Herald.

Local News.

Rev. J. P. Knox, of Columbia, passed through this morning on his way to Rock Hill to assist Rev. A. S. Rodgers with a communion meeting.

Mr. F. M. Hicklin and family moved here from Bascomville Wednesday morning and are occupying the Ratterree house on Pinckney street.

Mrs. Mary Youngblood returned to her home in Rock Hill this morning, after spending several days at the home of her brother, Mr. J. W. Cowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham and baby, of Rock Hill, came down this morning to spend a few days at the home of Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McDowell.

Miss Carrie Taylor, of Rock Hill, who has been here several days for the Woods-Thornton marriage, went to Columbia on No. 27 last night to nurse a patient.

Mr. T. B. Woods arrived from Charleston yesterday morning to attend the marriage of his sister, Miss Evelyn Woods, and Mr. A. G. Thornton, and left on No. 29 last night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. James and baby returned from Columbia yesterday afternoon and left for Salisbury, N. C., this morning to spend about two weeks with his relatives.

Miss Susie Lee Mikel, of Edisto Island, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark, at Mr. J. A. Hood's, left for her home this morning. Miss Mikel is a niece of Mr. Clark.

Mr. E. A. Crawford, Jr., who went to East St. Louis a few weeks ago to accept a position with a railroad company, has returned to this city. Mr. H. W. Morris, who accompanied him, came back to Gastonia.

According to Col. Lumpkin, there seems to be plenty between himself, Auditor Hood and Col. Reed as to their looks.

Mrs. Nancy Caldwell was painfully injured a few days ago by a fall on the street. The worst bruises were about her face. She is quite old and infirm and is subject to attacks of vertigo.

Mr. John Charles McNeill, of the Charlotte Observer, died yesterday afternoon after a wasting illness of several months. He was a very brilliant young man. His home was in Scotland county, N. C.

Fire on Mr. E. G. McCorkle's platform yesterday about 1 o'clock called out the fire department. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done, only a few bales being slightly scorched.

Applicants for teachers' certificates are gathering at the court house for examination. At 10 o'clock there were about 12 whites and 20 colored, females outnumbering males two to one.

The Y. P. C. U. convention of the First and the east wing of the Second presbytery, which was to have convened at Union A. B. P. church immediately following the meeting of the 1st presbytery at Edgemoor next week, has been abandoned on account of the ill health of the general secretary, Miss Lillian Morrison.

The Southern Mind.

Dr. J. W. Daniel delivered his famous lecture on "The Southern Mind" at the Methodist church last night. There were many amusing hits, which were used to point morals. The larger part of the lecture, however, is quite serious. Dr. Daniel is a very graceful and pleasing speaker and of rare rise to eloquent flights.

Old Veterans Prostrated.

Mr. Osborn Gibson, of Heath, was prostrated with a stroke of paralysis Wednesday morning just after he left home to come to the Rally and is in a critical condition. He is 83 years old and a veteran of Co. H 24th regiment.

Death of Mrs. Sponholtz.

Mrs. P. F. Sponholtz, who was Miss Jennie McGarity before her marriage, died at her home at Richburg last Sabbath, after many months of declining health. The remains were buried at Union, after funeral service by Rev. W. A. Fairly.

Was on Wrecked Train.

Mr. R. G. McAlley left yesterday evening for Baltimore to take a course in medicine in the University of Maryland. He was on No. 34 of the Southern, which was wrecked near Greensboro, but he sent a telegram back from Danville to his brother, Mr. C. C. McAlley, saying that he went through safe, being in one of the sleepers!

Rally Day Echoes.

Two old soldiers were recounting their war experiences in front of the court house on Wednesday just after dinner. "Jim," said one, "Do you remember the time we captured those beavers from the Yankees? Well, I never even got a sight of them."

Colonel Lumpkin kept the audience laughing Wednesday night at his jokes. "My wife has an ugly husband," was the way he began and from that time on he had the crowd.

Horse and Money Recovered.

Mention was made in Tuesday's Lantern of Mr. J. W. Bigham's having had a horse trade with the Gyp-sies to turn out badly. He has recovered his own horse, the money given as the difference and the magistrate's fee. Constable Hedgpeth handled the business, and the party were convinced that it would be better to settle the matter than to take the risk of further trouble.

Wreck on the Southern.

Greensboro, Oct. 18, 2 a. m.—North-bound passenger train No. 34, of the Southern Railway, traveling at the rate of 60 miles an hour, ran into an open switch at Riddick's small station four miles north of here, last night about 10:30, striking a freight head-on and killing and injuring many persons. At this hour the name of only one person killed can be ascertained, Mrs. Jane Thomas, of Danville, Va., wife of a freight engineer. A foreigner is known to be dead and the fireman of the freight is thought to be.

The first day coach was entirely split open and the engine of the passenger was completely demolished. The wreck did not catch fire, however. The Pullman coaches and passengers therein did not suffer. Practically all the persons in the first day coach were injured, about 25 in number, it is thought. They were brought in the Pullman coaches to Summit avenue crossing, this city, where they were met by carriages and carried, the dead to the undertaker's and the wounded to St. Leo's Hospital, half a mile away. A newly-married couple, of Gastonia, it is thought, was in the day coach, and the bride is reported as mortally wounded. At this time it is impossible to get more details of the catastrophe.—Charlotte Observer.

The friends of Mr. John S. Douglas will be pleased to know that after a severe operation at Johns Hopkins hospital several weeks ago, he returned to the city yesterday almost entirely restored to health.—The State.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19TH HAFNER BROS.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Greatest of all Bible Plays.

A play which makes a universal appeal to all hearts will interest not only the regular patrons of the theatre, but those whose attendance is infrequent and those who attend at all because of prejudice—such as a play in Chester, South Carolina, the most successful drama of action—"The Holy City," which tells the Bible story of the passion and death of Christ in dramatic form. It will be presented at the Opera House on Saturday night. Seats now on sale.

A Fatal Accident.

Mr. H. P. Burris, "Doc" was painfully hurt last Friday afternoon by being cut with a moving machine. The accident occurred on Mr. John Braden's place about three and a half miles west of McConnellville. Mr. Burris was assisting with the work of cutting peanuts and when he stepped to whip up a lagging mule, his leg was cut as the result of a sudden lurch made by the animals. The cut, though severe was not of a nature to leave permanent injuries. No leaders were at Mr. Burris was sent to the hospital at Chester, and information from him this morning was to the effect that he is getting along very nicely.—Yorkville Equivator.

Mr. Burris died Wednesday morning about 4 o'clock from heart failure. The remains were taken to McConnellville on the train and buried at Bethesda, after funeral service by Rev. J. K. Hall. Mr. Burris left no family or very near relatives. He was a son of the late Mr. George and Mrs. Henrietta Moore Burris.

Capt. and Mrs. C. S. Whetson returned yesterday from a few weeks' visit in New York. Mr. James H. Hardin, of Tampa, Fla., arrived this morning to visit his father, Mr. W. A. Hardin.

Rev. W. C. Alexander, of Memphis,

Tenn., has been spending a few days with relatives in the city.
