Dr. R. B. and Rev. J. A. White returned Friday from a most delightful trip to the centennial of Howell U. P. church, near Oxford, Ohio. Dr. White says the history of the church is a reproduction of the story of the mighty church, Howell U. P. church, near Blackstock.

Rev. J. A. White had a place on the program of the centennial, and it is a little remarkable that the present pastor of the congregation is a son of the congregation.

The Rev. C. A. Stiles, a Baptist minister aged 71 years, died Saturday at Eastover.

NEGRO BOY DROWNED. Union, Oct. 11.—About noon today the 12-year-old son of Norman Reed, colored, of Chester county, was drowned in the Loothart ferry. The boy was driving a mule, which backed out of the ferry boat. There were several other teeing in the boat at the same time, but the boy sank so rapidly that nothing could be done to save his life. His body has been recovered, but yet the boy's body has not been recovered.

MR. HORNE'S DEATH. Died at his home on Maiden Lane on the 11th inst, Monroe Minter, in the 70th year of his age. He had been feeble health for some three years, owing to a fall from his piazza, fracturing his thigh bone. He never recovered, sufficiently to get about, with the assistance of crutches.

In 1852 he was happily married to Miss Ann Hardin, who survives him. Of this union were born three sons and three daughters, to-wit: Messrs. W. and George Minter, who live near Chester, and Mr. Thomas Minter, of Texas; Miss Janie Minter, and Mrs. Cynthia Gwin, who lives in Chester; and Mrs. Sallie Patrick, of States.

During the war between the states he served in the 4th reg. of Cavalry Capt. Barber's company, serving throughout the war. There is no doubt that he served his country faithfully.

As a legislator, there was none more kind and obliging.

Among old veterans has passed away. Peace to his soul. B. C.

OPERA HOUSE "Human Hearts"

The powerful and impressive melodrama "Human Hearts", presented by an exceptionally strong company of players, will be given at the Opera House of the town of all that is clean and wholesome in melodrama on the stage, at the Opera House Thursday, Oct. 11th.

"Human Hearts" has been firmly established as one of the most original and interesting of modern dramas. The author has long been famous as a play-writer, but in the present instance, he has surpassed all his former efforts. For ingenuity, strength and brilliancy, "Human Hearts" is a masterpiece of stage craft, done by master hand in stage artlessness. The author has poured out his entire store of "theatrical knowledge in this human interest, it absorbs the most magnificent possibilities for a melodrama play.

The characters are finely drawn, the dialogue is crisp, the human interest is all absorbing, the comedy is charming, the pathos is sincere. Taken on its entirety, "Human Hearts" is probably the best of the scores of plays now shown on the American stage. Parties who contemplate coming to Chester, for the Opera House should arrange to stop in town long enough to enjoy this great play.

Attempt to Escape From Jail.

Lexington, Oct. 11.—A desperate attempt at jail breaking was made here this afternoon, when Abram Jones and George Baxter, two stalwart negroes, attacked Deputy Sheriff Sim J. Miller as he opened the door of the cell to let another prisoner in.

As is the custom Mr. Miller had let Arthur Banks out of the cell earlier in the afternoon to sweep up the balls from the jail and just about dark he went to the cell to lock him up for the night. Just as he opened the big door George Baxter grabbed the deputy and the other negroes tried to knock him out of the door. At the same instant Abram Jones ran up and grabbed the deputy and a desperate struggle ensued. They knocked the lang out of Miller's hands and for several minutes the brave deputy struggled with the negroes. Finally Mr. Miller succeeded in drawing his pistol, but no sooner had he got it out than one of the negroes seized it while the other caught hold of Mr. Miller from behind. They got the deputy succeeded in extricating himself from Jones' grip and the latter gave up, but Baxter the leader of the two, hung on to the hook-top gun, tried to cry out that he was ready to give up and begged the sheriff to turn him loose and not to shoot him. Mr. Miller refused to do so, and the other prisoners were.

Had it not been for the bravery of Mr. Miller upon the chance of long stalling, the jailbreaker is charged with stealing guns and has been held for several weeks. Both negroes have confessed to the job, to assist the sheriff. Special to The States.

Mr. Tapp's Career.

Mr. Sidney G. Tapp, of Atlanta, nominated by the Liberal party for president, is a native of North Carolina. His uncle is John Cannon, of Wake, Andrew Jackson. But unlike Uncle Joe and his Andrew Jackson, Col. Tapp resided in South Carolina from his infancy to his death, and his ambition, South Union Temple Graves, the Georgia-New York-Hearth nominee for vice president on the Independence ticket with Hilsen-Sidney Tapp stayed over into South Carolina from North Carolina and engaged Furman University at Greenville, where he was called the under study of Tom Dixon. He wore his hair long and his trousers short, eating elaborately and dressing scantily. He had pains, women's pains, sprains, etc. get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. All dealers.

Edgemoor Letter.

Edgemoor, Oct. 12.—The trees are putting on their autumnal robes of golden red, reminding us that summer is going, and that Jack Frost will soon be here.

Mrs. Hoke, our excellent school principal, has moved into the new school house. Miss Janie Chambers is her assistant. The school is not as large yet as it will be when the rush with cotton is over.

We believe Edgemoor will get on a boom at last, as there are some good families coming in from the country, to send their children to school. We will join The Record as it says, "push Rock Hill!" we say, "push Edgemoor!"

We have the best preacher in the First presbytery. The principal of Edgemoor high school is a graduate of Whitworth college.

We have two E. F. D. routes going out from Edgemoor, carried by man of honor and trust.

Our depot officials are good moral men. They attend church every week.

Our physician is prompt in business, courteous and kind to his patients, and is building a nice home in Edgemoor.

We have a first class ginners, that is turning out ten or twelve bales of the finest staple every day. Our motorists, Messrs. Glass and Willis, carry a nice line of dry goods and groceries.

The Dupuis hotel is progressing most rapidly. The principal of Edgemoor high school is a graduate of Whitworth college.

STRANGE-ROBINSON SHOE CO.

The purchasing power of your money goes the farthest in our store. There are not empty words because we stand right behind them and guarantee every pair we sell. Our shoes appeal to those whose aim is style and quality at modest prices. We should like to demonstrate this to you.

The next semi-annual examination of applications for teachers' graded certificates will be held the 2nd Friday, 11th day of October, 1908. Applicants will provide their own stationery. Trustees cannot employ a teacher who has not a certificate.

County Supt. of Education, Chester, S. C., Sept. 5, 1908.

All teachers in the public schools holding teachers' graded certificates not registered in the office of the county superintendent of education, are requested to send them forward at once (for registration in this office, as required by the school law). The school law and regulations of the state board of education require that all persons teaching in the public schools have the county superintendent's office. To have these certificates renewed the law requires that the holders of the same attend another examination or attend either a county or state summer school and to satisfactory work there or take the "Teachers' Reading Circle" course and take the examination questions on it prepared by the state board of education.
