RED CROSS WAR FUND

In speaking of the Red Cross War Fund this morning, Mr. B. Caldwell, who has charge of the matter as far as Chester County is concerned, offered suggestions as to how to contribute. He had over 1700 subscribers, and the total amount subscribed was $181,721. The amount collected to date is $181,841. This means that there is still $120,000 to be collected.

NEW FALL GOODS

Our store is now full of new FALL GOODS. We have never shown a better selection in our history, and it is a well known fact that we have ways led in this market when it comes to style.

You have heard a great deal about high prices, and there has been some advance on certain lines, but you will be surprised when you visit our store and shop around through the various departments to find how little our prices are advanced over last year. For instance, we can sell you just as good Suit, Dress or Coat as you have ever bought for the same money you have always paid. You can see in advance in our DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

You can buy just as good Wool Serge for 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00 as ever. Our shoes were bought nearly a year ago. You will be delighted at the prices, both in children's and grown-up shoes.

All goods are in inspection of our FALL STOCK. Come in, look around, get our prices. You do not have to buy unless suited. You are always welcome.

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Club presided a meeting on Friday afternoon, Mrs. C. E. Brown, the president, presided. The subject for the afternoon was "Contagious Diseases". Mrs. W. F. Andrews read an interesting paper on "Prevention". A paper prepared by Mrs. R. H. McFadden on "Treatment of Diseases," was discussed by the club members, and a paper by Mrs. Claude Edwards on "The Advantages of More Frequent Inspection of Schools". The hostess demonstrated different kinds of disinfectants. Mrs. Marion Leckie assisted the hostess in serving a delightful salad course.

A very lovely party of Wednesday morning was when Mrs. John Henry Hill entertained a large number of friends at bridge. The spacious living room and dining room were very attractive in quantities of cut flowers, here tables were arranged for the games. At noon when cards were laid aside, and the card tables spread with dainty covers, a delicious salad course and coffee was served, the hostess being assisted by her sister, Miss Rita Witherspoon, of York, Miss Margaret White, Ellen Hamrick, Betty Hemphill and Bigham. The out-of-town guests present were: Miss Curry, of Utah; and Mrs. Dorothy Carr, of Florida. Mrs. Hemphill entertained again in the afternoon. Forty-two friends were enjoyed by a number of friends.

Mrs. R. E. Sims was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Forty-two club and a few additional friends. Seven tables of players enjoyed an afternoon of delightful games, during which time mints and salad tops were enjoyed. The club having done away with refreshments for a while, Madeline H. M. DeVeon, Jordan and Edith Hill assisted in keeping score. Mrs. Bruce Saunders, of Dantzle, was an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Bruce Saunders, of Dantzle, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Saunders, who is the guest of Mrs. and Mrs. E. P. Calhoun.

MUCH INTEREST IN COUNTY FAIR

(By The Chamber of Commerce)
With the interest growing daily there is every indication that the 1917 Chester County Fair will be a record breaker in exhibits and attendance.

The interest in this year's fair is not confined to Chester County but is spreading throughout the surrounding counties, and thousands of visitors will be present on the four Tennessean shows, beginning next week. Sent indications point to an attendance of over 50,000, including the school children who will be the guests of the fair on the last day.

Work on the new exhibit building is being pushed and it is hoped to have the building ready by the first of the month so that applications will be given for the preparations required for the arrangement of the exhibits of the different departments that will be housed in this building. New cattle barns will also be erected for the protection of the cattle to be shown and this exhibit will surpass by far any cattle exhibit in this section.

A feature of this year will be the Mercantile and Manufacturing exhibit, a large number of applications for space having already been made by the local merchants. While a completed canvass of the merchants of the city has not yet been made it is highly probable that the larger and better than last year.

This exhibit, a feature of the year's fair, was commenced upon by almost every store in the fair, and a number of prominent business men and state officials of this and other states, advised the secretary that the exhibit was the best of the kind they had ever seen. A large give-away cup will be awarded the merchant who exhibits the best goods.

The Chamber of Commerce school is looking for the guests of the fair and a conference held on Tuesday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce building, Tuesday, October 23rd, at 7 o'clock.

The movement of South Carolina troops from Camp Jackson, Columbia to Camp Sevier, Greenville, commenced Tuesday and will continue through the 25th. Practically all of the boys sent from Chester will be among those who are being transferred to Greenville. The object of the change is to retrain the National Guard to war strength. Several of the Chester men do not approve of the change, stating that they believe same will mean that they will go to the front much sooner than if they were allowed to stay in the National Army.

Mrs. William James, of Pineville, N. C. is the guest of Mrs. Beattie Walsh.

It was a most amusing morning about the time it started raining, to notice the city sprinkler being sprinkling the street. The man did not stop; that one might ask his idea but it is presumed that he was just trying to outrun the rain. Poor fellow, he has a hard job to weather in order to get the street sprinkled.

Among the recent social events was a Forty-two party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. P. Calhoun at her lovely home on Foote street. After a number of interesting forty-two games were enjoyed, a delicious sweet course was served, the hostess being assisted by Mesdames H. S. Heyman and W. A. Gillis. Mrs. W. A. Corbitt, in a charming manner, presented gifts to the honor guests, Miss Hazel Thomas, a bride-elect and Mrs. Bruce Saunders, of Dantzle, in behalf of the hostess.

Col. A. L. Geston is in receipt of instructions to send Chester's next contingent of colored men to Camp Jackson on Saturday October 27th. There will be twenty-three men in the group according to the present plan.

Wanted—You see John T. Peay, before you sell your beef cattle, hogs, hides etc. Will pay best market prices.

The many friends of Mr. Herbert L. Parrish and Mrs. Mattie Freshley will be interested to learn of their marriage which took place Wednesday in St. Albans, Nev. J. C. Roper, former tax of this city officiating. Mr. Parrish is a member of the Chester police force. Mrs. Parrish is the sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pheasley, of Chester Road 3.

The National Exchange Bank for the collection of city taxes for the first day of November, 1917, and will remain open until the 31st day of December, 1917, next, without penalty. On January 1st, 1918, one per cent penalty will be added on February 1st an additional one per cent penalty will be imposed and the penalty will be 3 per cent. There will be added making seven per cent extra for taxes paid during the first five months of the year. For purposes 10 per cent rate for mills for interest on debt and create a sinking fund per capita on debt $1.00 direct tax $2.50.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Crosby.

(Special to The News)
Legis. Sec. Oct. 17, 1917.—Our community was greatly shocked yesterday morning when it was learned that Mrs. Elizabeth Ester Crosby had died, the night before. She had been in ill health for a year or more, but her death came to us unaccountably. She was about sixty-two years of age at the time of her death, and had lived here and near here all of her long married life, and by her gentle and friendly manner had won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends.

She was a good neighbor, displaying charity with a free hand when called upon. She was a fond and loving wife and mother. She loved her home and its surroundings, and it pleased her to have her children and grand-children and friends around her. She was a woman of deep piety and a regular attendant when permitted, at her church, a devoted member of Cool Branch Baptist church, always taking an interest in church affairs and other movements for the good of the community.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. W. M. Crosby, and her children, Dr. C. A. Crosby, Mr. C. E. Crosby, Mrs. Thomas DeBarre, Mrs. Will McFadden, twenty-five grand-children and many other relatives in Chester, Fairfield and Union Counties.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. T. Wiles in a very able and impressive manner, and just as the sun was sinking behind the western horizon, her body was lowered into the grave in the presence of many sympathizing and sorrowing relatives.

DON'T PUT IT OFF

Make Your Entries Now For The Big Chester County Fair

You'll save time and trouble for yourself, for the officials of the different departments—help eliminate the last minute confusion on the opening day of the fair—have your own exhibits displayed better—help to have the display better in all ways—help to have all the judging done more promptly. In fact it's a bigger help than you may realize.

DON'T

bring your articles with you—simply fill out your entry blank and bring it or mail it to the Fair Bureau of the Officer Chamber of Commerce and you will have the entry tag and claim check mailed to you. All that is necessary then is to take the article, with the entry tag fastened to it, to the department in which it belongs.
