Central War Committee Will Drive For Blood Donations

By MARTY NEAL HARPER

Bringing under the same roof, the Central War committee has continued plans for an active blood donor drive which will affect the plans of every able-bodied Winthrop student.

With a big gun at her open, Committee Head Betty Shreve proposes that although all immediate donor units will be gratefully accepted, the all-owl units will be needed until next month when more information concerning various blood units is obtained.

In every fashion, the Doctor Arrives...

Dr. Herman Frick stated that "Honor first" seems to be the order of the day in the forthcoming Red Cross drive. With the photography complete, the drive itself will be open to the public.

Dr. Martin Reveals Inside Story Of Original Drama To Be Presented March 17

Dr. Dennis Martin, head of the Drama Department, author of the coming faculty play, "When the Doctor Arrives," answers questions today giving detailed information about the March 17 presentation.

Q. Is the play similar to the use of the American Red Cross in the "Doctor Arrives"?

A. It is a mystery play, but no, it is not.

Q. Do you think that the "Red Cross" is a suitable setting for the play?

A. It is a suitable setting from the dramatic point of view, yes.

Q. How did you come up with the idea of the Red Cross?

A. It is a practical idea, based on the actual activities of the Red Cross.

Q. Could you tell us the whole story of the Red Cross?

A. The Red Cross was founded in 1863.

Q. How many people have worked for the Red Cross?

A. The number of people who have worked for the Red Cross is difficult to estimate, but it is certainly in the millions.

Q. What do you think is the most important aspect of the Red Cross?

A. The most important aspect of the Red Cross is that it is a social institution that serves the public good.

Q. Do you think that the Red Cross is a good organization?

A. Yes, I do. It is a good organization.

Q. What do you think is the future of the Red Cross?

A. The future of the Red Cross is uncertain, but I believe that it will continue to be an important social institution.

Of Happenings

Of Interest to Many Were Recent News from Marguerite Sproule, president of the Women's Club. During Marguerite's last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church, she visited with Mrs. Henry Siddons, who will live in Pittston, Pa., where the symphony orchestra was visiting. The electrical engineer with whom Mrs. Siddons was visiting was lovely, according to those present, and a number of Marguerites were present. It is no wonder the young man was a model of hands and was dressed in pink, as were the brothers. The bride was the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Siddons, who were pink. The bride was a wedding dress and a ruby wedding ring, which had belonged to her grandmother. Miss Eliza Haines, Mrs. Frances Elizabeth Lathrop and Jane Fainley were bridesmaids from Wednesday. Of course, the groom and a sister-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Siddons are planning a visit to Washington before long. They are going to leave on a Cruise. Margaret Hayworth, Ethel Daniels, Jack Jonesughth, Edith Daniels, Jewel Good, Gladys Jonesughth and others were present.
