3-13-1926

The Johnsonian March 13, 1926

Winthrop University
To the Failures

For years and years—even since I left college—I have lived, and given all home to the pursuit of success. I have worked and struggled to reach the height of my ambition. But I have failed. I should like to get up on the stage and tell the people that I have failed.

There are those who have really failed. They have failed in life, in a sense, because they have not reached their ambition. But I think that we all have a right to fail. The idea that failure is a disgrace is an idea that is gradually coming to pass. We should not be ashamed of failure, but rather should be proud of it.

The only despicable failures are those who fail and do not attempt to learn from their failure. They are the only ones who are truly worthy of condemnation. But even they have the right to fail.

Great is the man with a sordid dream.

and

the man who failsということ。

The world goes on its way

and

the man who has the heart to say, "I tried, but I failed, and that is why I am a failure," is the real man. He is the one who has the heart to say, "I tried, and I failed, but that is why I am a failure.

What Other Editors Think

The Milwaukee Journal has a new look, which has been most welcome. The editor, Mr. John Doe, has been most successful in his efforts to improve the quality of the Journal. The paper now has a much more professional appearance, with a more modern typeface and a more colorful layout.

The Milwaukee Journal is a fine newspaper, and I am proud to be associated with it. I am confident that the Journal will continue to grow and improve in the years to come.

Isn’t it The Truth?

Better an old-fashioned way with a new-fangled one. You can’t have the one without the other. Money talks, but you can’t talk to a pig.

The fact is, we are all poor. Some of us are born poor, some of us are made poor, and some of us are become poor in poverty upon others.

Opinions differ on their impress, and clung long never bothered women in the old days. But that women have the brains, and the brain is what the brain is worth.

If you want to be sure of no more failure.

Do’s and Don’ts from the Etiquette Book

Whispering is rude. It is better to say what you want to say clearly and distinctly.

The golden rule of “Thank you” is to say “Thank you” as often as possible.

A Perfect Asset

Traveling in the mountains, a man who has all the time and leisure in the world can enjoy the quietness of the woods and the beauty of nature.

The trouble with the book is that it is always in the library. Especially if you have a large home, it is a good thing for the spring term, when you have time to read, to get out of the old books.

Savvy

Savvy is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Rock of Ages

The Ringer

The Ringer is a fine baseball team, and I am proud to be associated with it. I am confident that the Ringer will continue to grow and improve in the years to come.

Inspirational可以代替な名作。

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

Inspirational is a very good new non-fiction book about how to live in the world. It is written by Mr. John Smith, who has been a successful manager for many years.

The Indispensable Guide and help of all good social workers.

The book is called “The Best of the Best” and it is a real find. I recommend it to all my friends.

We are, and should be, proud of those dignified uniformed dressed coats, but of course you will want to greet your friends while at home on your spring holidays in new spring coat and dress.

We are showing a charming selection of Sport Sticks and Coats, the newest creations from New York.

They are reasonably priced $12.75 to $35.00.

Come to see us before you leave, anyway.

FRIENDHEMS

The NATIONAL UNION BANK

Saying of Prominent People

but women need them for the same reason.
WOLFFORD STUDENTS DISCUSS IDEAL GIRL

Our Line of Fresh Meats, Fish & Frozen Goods

Brooks’ Market

New Spring Fabrics

36-in. Rayon, printed, special... $6.50 yd.
36-in. Rayon Chiffon, special... $9.50 yd.
32-in. Printed Tulle Satin... $2.50 yd.
36-in. Printed Crepe de Chine, special... $1.95 yd.
Face Powder

We offer...

Cotton and Silk Lingerie

Catalina Lumber Co.

All Kinds of Building Material

Make Our Store Your Store

EFD’S

Department Store

We OFFER

One 200-Car Box Name Brand Face Powder

Any Shade, for 50c Each

With each 2/$5.00 purchase of toilet articles.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

J. I. PHILLIPS DEPARTMENT STORE

“Most Popular Place in Town"

Catalina Lumber Co.

All Kinds of Building Material

BECHELL’S REPAIR DEPARTMENT

Face Powder and Watchband Repairing

BEACH-HIRE JR. LUMBER COMPANY

OLD RELIABLE LUMBER

A WARM WELCOME

AWARDS WINEHURST GIRLS AT

THE PERITWINO ROOM

WE OFFER

Make Our Store Your Store

KODAK FILMS

and you will be satisfied with the work

ROCK HILL DRUG COMPANY
It comes creeping in—and you do not know it!

If you girls, and men, too, remembered this fact that cattiness spreads, you would never dare to say anything that might harm another person. You walk down the street without thinking of it. You see a handsome man, and think of him as a "show-off," or you see a woman, and think of her as a "shopper." You never think of her as a person, with emotions, with a soul, with a heart.

And what is the result of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.

And what is the end of all this cattiness? It makes people lonely and unhappy. It makes them shut themselves up in their little world, and never try to understand the feelings of others. It makes them think only of themselves, and never think of others. It makes them think only of what they want, and never think of what others want. It makes them think only of what they can get, and never think of what others can get. It makes them think only of what they can show, and never think of what others can show. It makes them think only of what they can say, and never think of what others can say. It makes them think only of what they can write, and never think of what others can write. It makes them think only of what they can do, and never think of what others can do. It makes them think only of what they can think, and never think of what others can think. It makes them think only of what they can feel, and never think of what others can feel. It makes them think only of what they can hear, and never think of what others can hear. It makes them think only of what they can see, and never think of what others can see. It makes them think only of what they can smell, and never think of what others can smell. It makes them think only of what they can taste, and never think of what others can taste.