THE LANTERN.

Vol. VIII. No. 12.

CHESTER, S. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1904.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
Subscription Price, $2.00 Cash.

The GREATEST SALE Ever Held in Chester

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 9 a. m.

We will begin our sale which we have been preparing to hold for some time. In fact in the early summer we placed large orders with Importers and Potteries for Crockery, Glass Ware, China, Dinner Ware, and large and beautiful assortments of all kinds of high grade China. We intended holding our Great Sale in October, but on account of delayed goods we postponed it until November 14th. The immense stock of goods that we have gotten in for this sale is much larger than you would suppose.

The Whole Stock Is of the Newest Designs and Decorations.

This sale, we assure you, will be a record-breaker—one where your money will buy you more useful House Furnishing Article, Dishes, and Pretty China than you can believe. No matter what it is you want, if only a 20 or 25 cent Dish.

Come and Buy It for 10 or 15 Cents

This is the way we are going to cut and slash prices. You really can't help getting what you want at your own price.

It Would Hurt Us Far More than You

If we were to make assertions in this announcement that our sales would not bear out you wouldn't believe us the second time, for one thing, and it is doubtful if we could have your patronage. The statements we are making may seem like exaggeration; but a visit and a trial Monday will convince you that we have stated only facts.

Artistic Beauty in China.

Porcelain and Blown Glass is what you will see when you examine our handsome and unique designs in anything embraced in this line. We are showing fine French China Dinner Sets of 100 pieces in exquisite patterns and new designs, and Tea Sets, Ice Cream and Berry Sets and Toilet Sets at less than bed rock prices.

This Is the Hunter's Season

And the ladies are now hunting for just such bargains as we are offering in our Great Bargain Sale. They will have to be seen to be appreciated, and you must come and see and avail yourself of these great bargains.

This BIG BARGAIN SALE may continue until the night of November 26th, but in order to get first choice and Biggest Bargains, COME EARLY.

Good Cooks Swear by Them.

Because the Standard Blue Flame Oil Stoves, for convenience, cleanliness, durability, simplicity and practical utility are superior to any other oil or vapor stove manufactured. Easy to operate, economical, it cooks perfectly and quickly and can be regulated as desired. The best stove for cooking that can be purchased. Selling at almost half price.

UNMISTAKABLE BARGAINS

That Will Attract the Economical

Is the splendid values that we are offering throughout our whole great Bargain Sale. Our stock is too large to enumerate, but you may expect to find such bargains as $1.50 Salad Bowls for $2.48, $3.35 China Dinner Sets at $21.65 and so forth. Come expecting bargains and you won't be disappointed.

The New Lamp.

Is a light that shines for all the house. There's brightness where its rays extend. This triumph of invention is the rival of gas as an illuminator, and is a thing of beauty to look on. Send dim and glimmering oil-timers to the retirement of disuse, putting in their place the new lamp giving the highest illumination obtainable from oil, for you can now secure them so cheap at our sale.

TERMS OF SALE: Cash from Monday, November 14th, to Saturday, November 26th.

TUESDAY, NOV. 15, 1904.

About the worst foisted follows in the country were the Republicans who put themselves to the trouble and expense of polling 60,000 fraudulent votes in Pennsylvania so that they had nearly a half million to spend in the State.
An elderly fool as the man who would his clock every night for forty years before he found out that it was an eight-day clock.

When it comes to pass that any set of people laying claim to intelligence have to ask Senator Tillman how they vote on any question as the people of Greenville county did in the Speas Walker contest case, their citizenship ought to be taken from them, and Senator Tillman should be thanked for them. If the people of Chesterfield were to do such a thing we would be heartily glad to see them in Chesterfield Advertiser.

It should be remembered that it was not the people of Greenville county but only six of them that asked for instruction, and that number of pretty sorry voters can be voted on any county. Moreover, they probably thought they knew how to vote themselves but wanted the senator to tell the other fellows how.

According to the Chester Lantern, there is more trouble ahead for the conditional amendment than for the voters on any paper device. It is noted there were illegal, that did not bear the words specified in the act, and that they related to. This, says The Lantern, is the only thing in the act that paper presumes that were faulty tickets in other counties.

This, of course, is a serious matter and will have to be investigated by proper authorities. It is reported in Richard confirmed to the requirements, but it is possible that illegal in Chester County. In some other counties were improperly prepared. Such tickets were not enough to be without having the light contemplated in the act, somebody ought to explain why these tickets furnished are not conforming to the requirements. While those sent to Chester did not or rather, it should be explained why were sent out that did not conform. We suppose they were printed in the same establishment and sent out by the same officials.

Lockhart Letter.
Lockhart, Nov. 13.—Died at Lockhart on the night of Nov. 12th, Mrs. Maggie Byars, in the 19th year of her age. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philo Canupp. Some two years ago she happily married Mr. Marshall Byars, who survives her. Her death was not a surprise to those acquainted with her condition, as she had been lingering with a long and painful consumption. She leaves four brothers and three sisters, viz.: Mr. Julian Canupp of Chester, and Messrs. Daniel James and William Canupp. Lockhart, Mrs. Laura Cookson and Miss Daisy and Claudia Canupp, of this place. Her remains were buried at Brasby Fork church.

I learn that Miss Ora Crawford, who is at Columbia, is quite ill.
Mr. M. W. Wade, of Wilkesburg, paid us a visit one day last week.
H. C. Brainerd, Esq., has been with us a few days this week.
The ginney commenced operations yesterday. The new power is electric. There are thirty sets of the latest improved gins and two presses, which have the capacity of ginning a bale in fifteen minutes. One can run his wagon over the gin, and the bale, which will convey it to the gin, and the lint is conveyed to the press, which is arranged that it does not even tramp up to the gin, and is discharging it in a bale. The work is all done by machinery, all but putting on the ties. The seed is conveyed to the room and the cotton is packed on an empty it can be driven under a place especially constructed for that purpose, and by pulling a lever, the seed is loaded. This is a great convenience to the farmers, as a great deal of cotton is marketed here and also much cotton seed. Now the farmers can haul their cotton to the gin and run up to the office and get their money and go home rejoicing.
No, as much sickness here as there was some time ago.

James Jamison is on a visit to Columbia. Hoos.
Wireless Telegrams to an Airship.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—The result of a scientific experimental balloon ascension made today from the aerostatic concourse on the world's fair grounds the practicality and accuracy with which wireless messages could be received both as to altitude and distance were satisfactorily proved. More than thirty messages were transmitted from the world's fair wireless tower and received by the operator in the aerial craft. Paul Koenigsmann of Toledo, accompanied by the operator, W. MacQueen, of Guntah, O. T., and W. S. Foreman of St. Louis made the ascension. After making a successful journey through the air one hour and a half duration, Aeronaut Koenigsmann made a safe landing four miles southwest of the concourse.

The balloon was carried back in a wagon to the aerostatic. The ascent was made in the afternoon. The highest altitude reached was estimated at about 10,000 feet.

The Flower Show.
The flower show was the absorbing topic of the city last Thursday and Friday, the ball being crowded both nights. Never before in the history of Chester has such a magnificent array and great variety of flowers been gathered in one place—potted plants, palms, ferns, begonias, were arranged with the most charming effect and formed a harmonious background for the gorgeous chrysanthemums which were brilliant in coloring and perfect in shape. The gay yellows and reds reminded one of the autumn season. The lovely pinks and creams were like sea shells and the rosy dawn. The white, most beautiful of all, in its purity resembling a bride's attire, white shells showed to advantage amid the ferns and foliage of living green through which it was scattered "like the sparkling of beautiful snow."
The flower designs showed much skill and ingenuity—being formed into pretty golden baskets, crimson hangings, variegated rugs and large wedding bells. The Italian display, scented sweet made throughout the evening, playing the march for the flower drill. This drill was taken part in by six little girls, who dressed themselves like flowers in their pink, fluffy paper dresses, three in pink, three in white, crowned with a wreath of chrysanthemums, the white sticks they carried being decorated with ribbon and the same flower. The perfect time, the graceful movements and beauty of the parade, would be hard to surpass. They were Misses Kittle James, Somerville Booth, Cary Hood, Lottie Knitz, Vivian Paxton and Abigail Bewley. Three little flower girls with baskets of chrysanthemums were very attractive fitting in and out through the crowd like fairies. Misses Paxton, Cary, Margaret Booth, and three (three), all attractions of the flower show, were generously patronized and quite a handsome sum was realized by the display. The kindergarten for this month gave. The net proceeds were $75. The prizes were awarded to the following:
Largest and handsomest exhibit—1st prize—Mrs. Joseph Walker—rocking chair contributed by Nicholson Furniture Co.
2nd prize—Miss Rosa Heyman cut glass vase contributed by J. A. Robinson.

Gen. Kuroki Killed.
Moscow, Nov. 13.—Nemirovich-Danchenko, the well known Russian war correspondent of the Associated Press, telegraphing from Mukden under today's date, says the reports of the death of Gen. Kuroki are confirmed. According to his version, the slaying of a shell struck Gen. Kuroki, splintering a portion of his breast. He died Oct. 4th at Liao Yang, and his body was sent to Japan. A rumor presently circulated that a kinsman of the Mikado, Shomamari, "littly" Mikado, was been appointed to succeed Gen. Kuroki, but the actual command of the army has been entrusted to Gen. Nodzu, who is reviewing operations.

In a disastrous fire and explosion in Knoxville, the Cato Piano Co.'s new 6-story marble front building was wrecked.

OPERA HOUSE.
American play-goers witnessed last night one of the best misadventures of the season here. It was the second appearance of Christy Brown, big company and they will be favored once here in the future. The play was not a dull moment in the whole evening. The show combined all that was best in the old method of misadventure with all that is fresh and diverting in the new. The whole show is conducted with a spirit of dash and vim that is highly entertaining and most enjoyable. The Opera House Nov. 22. Regular prices.
