School Book Investigation.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 15.—The legislative committee to investigate school books, which was organized last week, has today issued a report. The members are B. E. Byrd, E. P. O'Connell and A. S. Scales. Mr. Byrd, in continuing the work of the committee, reports to-day, said that members of the school board under a new contract awarded were called to tell all they knew about the school children in Virginia being required to pay more for school books than were the children of other states.

"The inquiry will also extend to the prices contracted for by the publishers," said Mr. Byrd. "There will be a comparison between the prices of school books, for which there is enormous sale, and books of a general utility character."

What reason is there for charging a fixed price for school books of which there are many thousands in use, when a similar book of general character is sold for from 100 to 200 per cent. less by the same publisher? Why the difference in price? The condition in other states and foreign countries will be compared, and it will also look into the matter of having the books printed by the state. The inquiry will also be along lines to ascertain why school children cannot get books without paying for them, the pay of the book agents, which have been for a long time an important factor in the matter of school books.

"We will most likely call upon the public printer to give us some information on the subject of cost and mechanical production of books and the most profitable binding and other such information."

Big Railway Merger.

Omaha, Neb., November 16.—The Bee today said:

"Within a week the equity which the Northern Pacific now holds in the Burlington will pass into the hands of the Great Northern and within fifteen days the Burlington and Great Northern will be merged into one vast system with James J. Hill in control."

"This statement was made to a reporter of the Bee by a man close to the official family of the Roads who has just returned from Chicago where the intricate operation of this gigantic transaction is being carried on."

"So far as the lines of the Great Northern Pacific and Burlington are concerned, the merger will be one little link now of being in fact one great system. When the shut out from Billings to Great Falls, Mont., is completed, the unification will be complete. The terms of the Burlington in Billings where it meets the Northern Pacific line has been in process of construction for some time. The line to Great Falls, where the Great Northern runs on its way to the coast."

"The line will be soon finished and when it is the Great Northern will be joined and merged physically into one vast system."

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tucker, of Alliance Ky., as a year of blood; which meant so much to him. Mr. Tucker's lungs that death seemed very near. What thinking of the bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that my cough and my blood were completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured. I am now strong and healthy. Coughs and Colds, at the Chester Drug Co. and Standard Pharmacy. Price 50c and 1.00. Trial bottle free.

Lytle Letter.

Lytle, Nov. 19.—In spite of the occasional shower, the farmers are trying to finish gathering their crops. The carpenter hammer is still on the ring. Messrs. A. G. and R. H. Woodcock are having some new tile laid in their houses.

Mrs. L. Boyd and nephew, Lytle Boyd, of Leslie, spent Saturday night and Sabbath with the former's sister, Mrs. G. W. Woodcock, and cousin, Edgewood A. B. P. church Sabbath.

The meeting which began Friday and closed Sabbath morning, conducted by Rev. W. H. Maloney, was very much enjoyed. Mr. Simpson is an able speaker, delighting to expound the holy scriptures to his hearers.

Dr. James W. Walker and wife arrived at Edgewood Saturday and will spend several days with his mother, Mrs. M. M. Walker, and other relatives at this place, before returning to their home in New York.

Mr. W. T. Allen, of Florida, will visit relatives here soon.

The health of our community is very good.

Had a Close Call.

A dangerous surgical operation, involving the face and the big question, was as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was provided by the reputation of Dr. W. H. Maloney, of New York, A. C. Scales, of Millers, W. V., who was called in. Our son, James and father, who at the Chester Drug Co. and Standard Pharmacy.

Mr. Wade H. Manning.

Mr. Wade H. Manning, formerly private secretary to Gov. Hampton, has written several interesting articles for this issue of The State. Mr. Manning is the founder of a beautiful story of a boy which modestly presents him from telling. He was born in the Hampton mansion, now the College for Women, his father being Gov. John Manning. Mr. Manning attended in succession the famous Belknap academy at Vevy, Switzerland, the Royal Military school of Sandoy at Dresden, and the Military School of Prussia at Berlin. He left the latter in opposition to the wishes of his father, and enlisted in the Charleston Light Dragoons. He was detailed at Haws' Post to act as orderly to Gen. Hampton. At Trevilian's Station he was in captivity for three hours, being recaptured by Gen. T. L. Rosser. Mr. Manning was being prepared for West Point when the war was started.

Mr. Manning served as private secretary to the following governors: Wade Hampton, William D. Simpson, Thomas B. Jeter, Johnson Hagood. Mr. Manning was closely related to the following: Gen. J. P. Richardson, was governor in 1868. His grandfather, James B. Richardson, was governor in 1868. His grandfather, Richard Irvine Manning, was governor in 1824. His uncle, John P. Richardson, was governor in 1841. His father, John Lawrence Manning, was governor in 1852. His mother, Wade Hampton, was governor in 1876. His cousin, John P. Richardson, was governor in 1886.—The State.

Famous Strike Breakers.

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are Dr. King's own, on strike, long and short, and the purifying work goes right on. They cure constipation, biliousness and dizziness. 25c at the Chester Drug Co. and Standard Pharmacy.

Death of Mr. Israel Hood.

Tuscaloosa friends learned with deep sorrow of the death Friday afternoon about five o'clock of Mr. Israel Hood, one of the city's oldest residents. Mr. Hood had not been in very good health for some time, and suffered a protracted paralytic stroke on last week being unable to get out of bed. He was a devoted wife, Mr. Adeline Hood. Mr. Hood was a well known and highly regarded citizen of Tuscaloosa, and for some time has been one of the largest property owners. He was for over fifty years a member of the Presbyterian church, from where he will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He was the father of many children, his family being heartily sympathetic to them in their grief.—Tuscaloosa, Ala., Times Gazette.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of B. C. Balfy, school superintendent, at St. Albans, Vt., when his little boy, who was suffering from the dreadful complaint he named. His little boy, who was suffering from the dreadful complaint he named. His little boy, who was suffering from the dreadful complaint he named.

"The Little Boy"

Greenville, Nov. 19.—"The Little Boy" will attend the Hampton memorial exercises in Columbia, S. C., on Monday next. The boy is in his eighth year, and is a bright child, but he was carried to the Hampton Legion and is still one of the unfortunates. He is now about ten years of age, but had been in the hospital for some time. He was carried to the Hampton Legion and is still one of the unfortunates. He is now about ten years of age, but had been in the hospital for some time.

Women Who Paint Miniatures.

The New Idea Women's Magazine for December contains an article of some pages in length concerning the painting of miniatures by American women. It is a very interesting article, and is well worth reading. It tells of the work of the artist, and of the various styles of painting. It also tells of the work of the artist, and of the various styles of painting.

Manzan Relieves Instantly the Pain.

Manzan relieves instantly the pain caused by those blind, bleeding, itching and scabbing piles. It is such a relief that it can be applied where the trouble is, and it is not very long before her name became known as a miniature artist at home and abroad.

Pulling Together Through a Crisis.

A period of business depression or failure, the loss of position or other reverse, the cutting down of income and the many dangerous sequels to this kind of disease, may bring the husband and wife face to face with a financial crisis. It is the entrance to a time of stringency, strain and sacrifice, with no end made visible, even by the telescope of optimism. It means a reconstruction of the home regime on steeper lines; there is a classifying of household expenses and a re-arranging of the budget. Many are comforted, and many are dismayed, from consideration, and many of the luxuries class. Financing arises from a mere subsistence, the dignity of a member of the household is lost, and the duty of two or three. Chaffing restrictions take the place of the old freedom, wants grow more insistent, and a new atmosphere fills the home. It is a situation requiring great care of watchfulness as that of a sea captain, standing on the bridge of a vessel, and directing the small progress of his ship under slow steam, through a heavy fog.

Cleveland's Tribute to Hampton.

By perpetuating the memory and career of Wade Hampton, South Carolina honors her greatest citizen. South shows fitting appreciation of the constancy and devotion of its distinguished leader in time of strife and its wise and sympathetic friend in the days of the pacification, while the illustration is reminded of his splendid illustration of the best modern traits.

Carnegie Will Help Carroll.

Columbia, November 19.—The Rev. Richard Carroll, of Columbia, has just received a letter from Mr. J. P. Carnegie, containing the good news that he would send him $5,000 for his work. Mr. Carnegie writes his congratulations to Carroll for his work, and is particularly pleased that he has been so well as both roads.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. C., writes: "Before I started to see Dr. King's New Life Pills, I had been in bed for twelve to twenty-two days, and my back was so stiff that I could not get up. I had been in bed for twelve to twenty-two days, and my back was so stiff that I could not get up. I had been in bed for twelve to twenty-two days, and my back was so stiff that I could not get up."

The Salvation Army.

To the Editor of The State. My heart was stirred to its depths by the rousing service and general feeling of good-will which extended to the small band of Christian workers known as the Salvation Army at the First Baptist church this evening. The weather, this place, the music, the speaker and listeners all seemed to be in one mind. It is a fact that "in union there is strength," and surely this strength will go forth a mighty power to succor and reclaim to good those so often in need of Christian sympathy and influence.

I know the members of the army here, having kept closely in touch with them since I ventured to call out the captain in deepest distress, and received at his hand the comfort and consolation of a loving Christian friend who takes one by the hand and leads them to Him, who promises to care for us at all times. Every church in the city should rally to the support of these good people, and see that they are not on the ground long.

They do not ask much and will make a little go a long way. So give them all the help you can and watch their results. An Observer.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch cold during which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any cold but the genuine in a yellow package.—Lettner's Pharmacy.

Sponsors and Mails Cut Out.

Gaillard, Miss, November 16.—Resolutions to dispose with the sponsors and mails of honor at reunion of United Confederate Veterans were adopted to-day by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in convention here. The resolutions were introduced by Mrs. Carrington Mason, of Memphis, Tenn., who offered them, she said, in half of more consideration for the Veterans.

Paul Brice Taken Home.

Mr. Paul M. Brice, editor of The Evening Record and one of the best known newspaper men in South Carolina, was taken to his home in Winnsboro yesterday evening. Mr. Brice has been ill for some time.—The State.

The Great Gosh Comes.

"While the gobster mused there passed of his pane. A beggar drenched by the driving rain. His called him from the weary scene. And gave him shoes for his bruised feet."

The beggar went and there came a crown. Her face with wrinkles of sorrow. And she was spent with the wretch and rack. He gave her his hat and steadied her feet.

As she took her way on the weary road. Then to his door came a little child, lost and afraid in the world so wild. In the big, dark world. Catching it he gave it the milk in the waiting breast.

And lead it home to its mother's arms, out of the reach of the world's alarms. The day went down in the crimson weed. And with it the hope of the blessed feet.

And Conrad gazed as the world turned gray. "Did I say, Lord, that your feet be day?"

"Lift up your heart, for I kept my word. Three times I came to your friendly door. Three times my shadow was on your floor. I was the beggar with bruised feet. I was the woman you gave to eat. I was the child on the homeless street."

—From a poem by Edwin Markham, in The December Delinquent.

Pennumonia Follows a Cold.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. Lettner's Pharmacy.

Heart's Not Run.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 19. William R. Hearst, recently democratic candidate for governor of New York, was here yesterday for a few minutes on his way to Monterey, where he has mining interests. He is accompanied by the members of his family in discussing what his future course will be in reference to politics in New York, he said.

We are pleased to announce that.

Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Lettner's Pharmacy.

Mr. John C. McFadden Resigns.
Yesterday Mr. John C. McFadden went to Gov. Hayward his resignation as clerk of court of Chester county, to take effect just as soon as his successor can be appointed, which will be on the recommendation of the legislative delegation.
It is known that Mr. McFadden has been unable to attend to the duties of his office for several months, and he was very distinctly misled at the last term of court, as he had not failed before to do at the clerk's desk at a term of court in 22 years, having been elected clerk in 1901. A whole generation has grown up to whom the clerk of court means John C. McFadden.
Anyone who knows with what care Mr. McFadden regarded the accuracy of every detail in his office will know that the responsibility of it still resting upon him would be very much against the improvement of his health.

WEDNESDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler celebrated their 5th anniversary, on Wednesday, the 20th, which was the golden wedding. Their home was thrown open to quite a number of relatives and friends, who greatly admired the tasteful decorations that made one think of the "old fashioned" weddings of long ago. Mrs. Fowler wore the dress she was married in and appeared as youthful as she did 5 years ago. The presents they received were most useful as well as handsome articles too numerous to mention. All who were present expressed themselves as having had a most charming day and sincerely wish that Mr. and Mrs. Fowler may have many returns of such happy occasions and live to celebrate their 50th anniversary.
