CITE GERMAN PLEDGE ABOUT THE BELGIANS

No Real Help Except to Drive Out the Germans, Says the War Trade Secretary.

London, Nov. 21.—In the House of Commons today Lord Robert Cecil, War Trade Minister, confirmed statements made on the floor that 25,000 Belgian men had been deported from Belgium to work in Germany, coal, iron and steel industries in the Rhine Province and Westphalia. He said that after the surrender of Antwerp the Military Government gave Cardinal Mercier a solemn written assurance that no Belgians should be deported, and that this assurance was confirmed by Field Marshal von der Goltz, now dead, who at that time was Governor General of Belgium.

Lord Robert added that the German officer under whose orders the first deportations from Flanders were carried out was formerly Goussart, but the only one really responsible for the execution of Nurse Cavell.

The British Government, Lord Robert added, would support every Belgian protest, but the only way the war with all our powers, and make it a cardinal point to secure the complete of Belgian territory from the grasp of the German oppressor.

The Common Council of Antwerp has refused to deliver lists of the unemployed to the German occupying force to a Rupture's Amsterdam dispatch quoting the Telegraf. As a consequence, the dispatch says, the Germans are now sending men of all classes to the police stations in Amsterdam as to the identity of these persons. These men are said to have the choice of a German labor contract, or to serve as many as six months' immediate deportation to Germany.

The Telegraf adds that an official letter has been sent to all Belgians remaining pockets of unoccupied territory, ordering all deporting citizens of all classes to Germany.

The Belgian Refugees' Committee at Flushing has petitioned Queen Wilhelmina to intercede with Germany in an endeavor to stop the deportations of Belgians, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Amsterdam.

40,000 H. P. PLANT AT FISHING CREEK PUT IN OPERATION

James B. Duke and Other Officials Present When Big Hydro-Electric Station Started in Electric-Is Biggest Plant of All.

The first of the power water wheels at the Fishing Creek Power plant of the Southern Power Company were set in motion Tuesday afternoon as the immense gates were lifted which admitted the mountain flow of water through them. The water is being used for generating power in a series of turbines above, which in turn produce the mysterious force denominated electricity. The first of a better name, James B. Duke, president of the Southern Power Company and a host of lesser officials were on hand when the machines were turned over to the company being one of the most interesting throughout this country. The station, which is located just about three miles above Trout Falls on the Catawba River, is the largest of the Hydro-Electric plants of the Southern Power Company, occupying by healthily many the site situated at Trout Falls, N. C. The power plant, which is now in operation, is about one mile apart. The fishing creek plant will generate about 40,000 horsepower and will supply about 200,000 kilowatts of electricity. ## DEUTSCHLAND FREED OF LEGAL RESTRAINTS Bonds Supplied in Damage Actions—Repairing of the Submarine Still Uncompleted.

New London, Conn., Nov. 20.—There is no further legal obstacle to the sailing of the Deutschland. The German undersea freighter was freed today of the writs of attachment which held her in the custody of Federal and State officers as a result of suits growing out of the collision early Friday morning, in which the submarine sank a conveying tug.

Once more the time of her departure on the second attempt, to return to Bremen, seems uncertain today, when it became apparent that the repairs to the bow which was twisted in the accident had not been completed. It was reported, that her berth was now high out of water, and that cases of rubber had been piled forward upon her deck, evidently in preparation for her departure.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 24,

In the larger cities it is necessary to keep a traffic officer posted at the intersection of many of the streets where the traffic is heavy and these officers have experienced a great deal of discomfort on account of cold feet during the winter season. The honor falls to the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as being the first city to remedy the condition. A practical foot-warmer has been devised, which consists of an iron plate 18 1/2 inches square and 1-1/2 inches thick. It is connected with an electric plug and switch on a pole at the curb. The officer, when he leaves his post, or when the weather is mild, carries his heater, the curb and disconnects it. The heat is controlled by a switch which permits four temperatures, the highest of which cannot burn the soles of the shoes. The current is less than that required for two ordinary forty watt bulbs.

This new foot warming device is called a "tooththerm."

LAND, MIDDLEMEN AND CONSUMERS.

Telling the National Grange that we should increase farm "product at every point where it can be increased" and that "circumstances which the present policy does not permit when man can make as if the supply was so short that the middle man could charge what he pleased." President Wilson put the food and farm question in very few words.

Only culture and fertilizer stand between fifteen bushels of wheat to the acre and fifty bushels. Fertilizer is mainly a matter of nitrate. Look Backland, the eminent chemist, tells us in Scribner's that we cannot have cheap nitrate drawn from the air by water-power, as in Norway, because water-power is scarce here, capitalize for ten times their investment, and every dollar of securities calls for its profit.

Why should the vulgar-southern middleman be allowed to stifle the farmer and the field and the fertilizer, demanding ten profits? Why, after production is imperfectly accomplished, should milk cost more to market in New York than the farmer receives?

Why should fruit that tenement children crave rot for lack of transportation in orchards a day's walk from the city?

Cheap food, traditional in this country, cannot for years be again cheap. Meat, especially, must remain dear while the world stocks with cattle, and will never again be low. The more reason why foods that can be plenty and fairly reasonable in price should be made so. The more reason why private greed should be shackled in the public interest.—New York World.

For those establishments which do not use space regularly in the newspapers the show window is a retailer's best advertisement. The window should advertise the goods sold in the store and like a newspaper advertisement it should, first, attract attention; second, excite interest; and third, induce a person to purchase. The first can be accomplished by novel and artistic arrangement of the goods and color schemes to attract the eye and properly display the goods; the second and third by showing the latest styles, newest goods and offering special values or bargains.

Much has been written regarding the methods used in dressing up show windows, but more attention should be given to the color of the background used in displaying goods in order to attract the eye of the passerby and to make the goods show up more prominently. The designers have devoted so much time and study to neat and artistic arrangements that they have overlooked the background color which has a great deal of the effectiveness of the display depends.

There are some set rules to go by in selecting a color for the background of show windows and will profit a store to learn and put in use.

Backgrounds should be of a color which will be complementary to the color of the goods shown. The principle to follow is that light-colored articles stand out more prominently on the darker background, and dark-colored goods on the lighter background. The art lies in selecting the color which will harmonize with the color of the goods to be displayed. Stated backgrounds should be, whenever possible, of a color that is complementary to the color of the articles to be displayed; in other words, backgrounds and goods should be contrasts of harmony. A great many people are almost as sensitive to color or harmony as to harmony of sound. A discordant note in music shocks the ear, and badly selected colors offend the eye and reflect unfavorably on the goods which attract and hold the eye.

Every color has its complementary color, and when used together the two colors each other and reflecting to the eye. Why this is so can be explained by the fact that when the eye looks at an object of one color, not the color itself, but the leaves, that is, its complementary color is absorbed by the eye. If the eyes are closed the object will be seen in the color the eye saw when open, but in its complementary color. For instance, if you look at a red-colored object until your eyes are saturated with that color and then close them, the object will be seen in green, the closed eyes, in a bright green, the complementary color for red. If you look at a bright yellow until the eyes are filled with that color, it will be seen with the closed eyes in a rich purple, which is the complement of yellow. For an orange the eye will absorb blue, its complementary.

From the above it is quite evident that when one color is seen, it is important that the next color to be seen shall harmonize with the first. The mixture has formed in the eye, or an unpleasant color will be seen, and the pleasing sensation of harmony destroyed.

GOOD CAUSE FOR ALARM.

These Figures Will Make Chester People Talk

Deaths from kidney disease have increased 70 per cent on twenty years. People overlook nowadays in so many ways that the constant filtering of poisonous blood weakens the kidneys. Because of this disease, when backache or urinary suggest weak kidneys, use Doan's Kidney Pills. Use carefully, taking three or four every evening. Doan's Kidney Pills command confidence, for no other kidney remedy is so widely used or so generally successful. When endorsement is the best resident's word.

Mrs. Mattie Wint, Company House No. 55, Chester, says: "My back ached and often I did my work in pain. I tried to get on and pick myself up anything, sharp cuts, but it never came across my kidneys. Night, I couldn't rest. In the morning, I felt stiff and lame and it was all I could do to bend to buy some Doan's. After taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Lettner's Drug Store, I no longer had any pains across my back and my health improved. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wint had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

FORGET YOUR ACHES

Stiff knees, aching limbs, lameness, backache, a burden, if you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleanser and more effective than any other liniment or poultice. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At your Druggist, 25c.

YORK COUNTY PIVER BRIDGE TO BE ERRECTED AT CHERRY SITE.

The York county commissioners have decided to build a steel bridge which was located between Fort Mill and Rock Hill, just below the plant of the Catawba Power Co. and which was washed away in a recent flood. The bridge will be a direct line between Rock Hill and Fort Mill.

This news, no doubt, will be read with interest by a number of Chester people since, it will shorten the distance between this point and Charlotte some six or seven miles. If the National Highway project be built from Charlotte to Columbia this will be an ideal location for same.

In case the construction of this highway comes up there is a strong probability that Chester and Rock Hill will join times in pulling for it. It is understood that the plans for the bridge will be started at once and that the contract will be let as soon as possible. It will require several months to build the bridge.

RHEUMATISM FOLLOWS EXPOSURE.

In the rain all day is generally followed by painful twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Sloan's Liniment will give you quick relief and prevent the twinges from coming tomorrow. It quickly penetrates without rubbing and soothes the sore and aching joints. For sore, stiff, exhausted muscles that ache from overwork, Sloan's Liniment affords quick relief. Bruises, sprains, strains and other minor injuries to children are quickly soothed by Sloan's Liniment. Get a bottle today at your Druggist, 25c.

EARS.

The human ear is a mishap of half way between the bald spot and the throat and used for the purpose of gathering information. Ears gather two kinds of information—useful and foolish. The useful information goes into the ear, and the foolish goes into the head in a straight horizontal line, and makes its exit through the nose. Foolish information gains entry by both ears and lodges in the brain cells as firmly as an enthusiastic book worm in a North Carolina library.

There are many different types of ears. The green and red country boy, who will later develop into a railroad president, has ears that stand out away from his head like a porcupine's quills. The natural-born liar has ears glued close to the head at the bottom. Gossips have large, wide-spreading ears that lie close to the head when not in use, but leap out the lens forward slyly, like a 33rd degree fan when the bases are full, if someone is relating a bit of nasty scandal.

Ears will not make proper growth unless they are kept clean and without fertilizer. This is proven by the fact that small boys have unusually large ears and preserve them under a rich coat of top-soil. This soil is removed once each week, in order that air may touch the surface of the ear and supply necessary nitrogen. As boys grow older they scrub their ears more frequently and discourage further growth.

The ear is a very delicate organ and highly serviceable, but it is not complete. It needs an automatic stopper to shut out all sound at the approach of a life insurance agent or a scandal monger, a politician or a man who desires to tell why this country is going to the dogs.

People who are addicted to the habit of snoring have these automatic stoppers. I have never seen them, but I know they have them. Give your ears a wake themselves up. Fountain Inn Tribune.

AT 81 DOCTOR IS READY TO TRY MARRIAGE AGAIN.

George T. Harrison of Virginia Will Wed Mrs. Cora Seymour, 55 in S. Thomas's.

New York, Nov. 22.—Dr. George Tucker Harrison, eighty-one years old, will marry Cora Seymour today at No. 2, East Fifty-third Street of St. Thomas's Church, Fifth Avenue and Fifty-third Street. She is twenty-six years his junior.

Clerks at the Marriage License Bureau, where the couple appeared yesterday, said they were surprised when they learned Dr. Harrison's age, for his hair and beard were white, his tall figure was borne with soldierly erectness and his countenance was ruddy. Mrs. Seymour, a big tall-male, was a good-looking woman, but she is her third marriage.

CHARGE OF MURDER.

George Rogers Jailed in Spartanburg. Nov. 23.—George Rogers, a negro man, has been indicted in jail here charged with the murder of John Nesbit, another negro. The killing occurred at a "hot supper" in the Fair Forest mill where the two negroes were employed. Before the shooting occurred there had been no trouble. A quarrel, however, arose, and Rogers drew a pistol and shot Rogers. The ball took effect in the shoulder and ranged downward, producing death in a short while. Jim Nesbit, a brother of the dead man, is in the county chain-gang, serving a life sentence for murder.

TO TRY TOM WATSON.

Case Will Be Taken-Up Monday Morning. United States, Ga., Nov. 23.—District Judge Thomas W. Watson today tried the case of Tom Watson, a negro man, indicted for the murder of John Nesbit, another negro. The killing occurred at a "hot supper" in the Fair Forest mill where the two negroes were employed. Before the shooting occurred there had been no trouble. A quarrel, however, arose, and Rogers drew a pistol and shot Rogers. The ball took effect in the shoulder and ranged downward, producing death in a short while. Jim Nesbit, a brother of the dead man, is in the county chain-gang, serving a life sentence for murder.

RAILWAY TO BUILD ORANGEBURG DEPOT.

Atlantic Coast Line to Erect $80,000 Station for City by Editor. Orangeburg, Nov. 23.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company will erect a $20,000 depot in Orangeburg shortly. The plans are in Orangeburg and in the possession of W. Eugene Atkinson, president of the Orangeburg Chamber of Commerce. Some time ago a set of plans was forwarded, but was not approved owing to their inadequacy for a city of the size and future of Orangeburg. The plans have been greatly improved and enlarged and from them it appears that Orangeburg will have a fine brick station in the near future.

There have been some here who contend for a union station and this agitation has led to the improvement of the local station by the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, but with the promise of this station it is the opinion here that work should commence at once.

Mr. John M. Wise is at the Pryor Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday morning.

Rev. J. C. Grier, of Tirah, will on next Sunday exchange pulpits with Rev. R. Roy Brown. Services will be held at Pleasant Grove in the morning and at Cornwell's school building at four o'clock and at East Side, in Chester, at seven-forty-five in the evening.

As will be noted elsewhere in this issue, the firm of Drennon & Miller, B. Drennon surviving partner, has been adjudged bankrupt. The liabilities are about $7,200 and assets about $2,850 in merchandise and $9,200 in accounts.

CHANGE IN L. AND C. SCHEDULE SOON

The following letter was addressed to Mr. A. P. McLure, Superintendent of the Lancaster and Chester Railway, November 22nd:

Columbia, S. C., November 22nd, 1916.
Mr. A. P. McLure, G. M.
L. & C. Ry. Co.

Dear Sir:—The Commission in regular session this day, after thorough consideration and after having allowed an opportunity for the fullest and freest expression of the patrons of the L. & C. Ry. Co., have reached the conclusion that the wisest solution of this difficult question, for the present at least, is that the schedule proposed at our hearing at Fort Lawn, S. C. and which was accepted by yourselves, representatives of the citizens of Fort Lawn, tentatively by the representative of the Railroad Commission, and since by the Chamber of Commerce of Chester through its Secretary, Mr. A. O. Lloyd, namely—a schedule leaving Lancaster at 6:00 A. M., Fort Lawn at 10:30 A. M., on return trip leaving Chester at 1:30 P. M., Richburg at 2:15 P. M., arriving at Fort Lawn at 2:50 P. M. and Lancaster about 5 P. M., be adopted and put into operation, and that this schedule become operative not later than November 27th, 1916.

Yours very truly,
JOHN G. RICHARDS,
Commissioner.

Mr. Newman Lasser, of Atlanta, Ga., one of the supreme officers of the Fraternal Aid Union, addressed the members of the Chester Lodge Wednesday evening on the merits of the order. After his address a banquet was served and talks made by Messrs. J. M. Hemphill, Z. V. Davidson and W. H. Newbold. A number of new members were received into the order.

Mr. W. J. Simpson received a telegram yesterday morning informing him that the twin sons born to Mr. and Mrs. Exam A. Elliott, of Birmingham Tuesday Nov. 21st, had both lived only a few hours.

Mr. W. J. Simpson left Wednesday for Birmingham, Ala., to visit his sister, Mrs. Exam A. Elliott.

GLASCOK-DABBES

A notably brilliant event of Wednesday evening at five o'clock was the wedding of Miss Stella Glascock and Eugene Whitefield Dabbs, Jr., which was solemnized at Neely's Creek church, Leslie followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kohath Glascock.

A large cortege of friends witnessed the impressive ceremony performed amid beautiful decorations planned with artistic skill which transformed the church into a place of floral loveliness suitable for the bridal event.

The entire church was abloom with huge clusters of pink chrysanthemums. At the altar a background was formed of stately palms and ferns studded with pink chrysanthemums and unshaded burning tapers. Above the altar were extended ribbons of erythronium roses which were formed as to give a mystic cloud effect, under which the bridal party gathered for the beautiful ceremony.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. J. Barron Steele of Rock Hill sang "Calm as the Wind." Her dress was pink messaline with gold trimmings. Mrs. Martin Leslie beautifully powdered in white crepe de chine with over dress of chiffon and lace trimmed, presided at the piano and to the first strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the ushers entered as follows: John Glascock, a cousin of the bride, and Ernest Patton, next came the bridesmaids and groomsmen, Miss Elizabeth Dabbs, sister of the groom with Robert Gotten, followed by Miss Lucile Glascock, a sister of the bride with T. Carlisle Herbert of Columbia. Miss Dabbs was carried in a green crepe de chine and tulle and silver trimmings. The full tunics were edged with narrow ribbons of silver tissue and the bolice was adorned with a fine tulle and frills also edged with the ribbon, and Miss Glascock wore pink satin and tulle fashioned along the same style, they both carried huge bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle.

Next to enter were the little flower girls Misses Cordella Cornwell and Daisy White, charmingly gowned in pink and white dresses, elaborately trimmed in lace. They wore pink sashes and butterfly bouquets of pink on their hair, carrying baskets filled with pink and white chrysanthemums. The ring bearer followed, a veritable little fairy in white carrying the ring in the heart of a huge pink chrysanthemum.

The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Humphreys preceded the bride and entered alone. She was a picture of girlish loveliness in a dress of white satin with quaint overtones of New York and elaborately trimmed in silver. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle.

Next came the radiant bride on the arm of her brother, Howard R. Glascock of Charlotte, N. C., simultaneously the groom entered with his best man, Wallace Pridgen of Newberry, through a rear door of the church and met the bride at the altar, where the Rev. W. R. Stevenson of the West, former pastor of the bride, performed the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. Mrs. Leslie in a sweet low undertone sang "Love's Melody" during the ceremony.

The bride was a picture never to be forgotten in her shimmering robe of Galleo satin, in the ivory shade, lined throughout with silver cloth. The carriage was of tulle trimmed in silver lace, the court train was of satin faced with silver, and her tulle veil was caught up effect being adjusted and pinned to a crown bouquet of bride's roses showered with

After a short reception at the home of the bride, the young couple returned to Rock Hill where they motored to Sutherland for a trip to Florida. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue cloth, with hat, shoes and gloves to match.

After November 30 they will be at home at Mayeville, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of the Woman's College at West and took a post graduate course at the University of Tenn.

The groom is a graduate of the Citadel and at present is a progressive young farmer of the Salem community.

The elegant display of presents attested to the popularity of this young couple.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dabbs of Mayeville, father and mother of the groom; Misses Eveline and Vardelle Smith of Fort Mill, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Glascock of Charlotte, N. C., Miss Julia Boyce of Pineville, N. C.

JOHNSTON-DANTZLER.

A quiet but exceedingly pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at five-thirty o'clock when Miss Virginia Brice Johnston became the bride of Dr. Marion Dantzler at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston, on West End.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. A. D. P. Gilmore of Purity Presbyterian church, pastor of the bride. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony being used.

Only the immediate families and a few close friends were present. For the occasion the home was tastefully decorated in potted plants and cut flowers and lighted with many tapers.

The bride was attired in a very handsome suit of violet velvet, with accessories to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Dantzler left on the Southern for a trip north and will be at home at Elloroe after November 28.

The bride is one of Chester's most attractive and popular young ladies, while the groom is one of the leading druggists of the State and both have a host of friends who join in extending congratulations and best wishes.

FLOUR RIOTS OF 1837.

The panic of 1837 was one of the most severe that this country has ever experienced. Owing to the scarcity of money every sort of business received a sudden and severe check.

Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that on Saturday the 2nd day of December, 1916 at 11 o'clock A. M. I will make my Final Return as Guardian of the Estate of Hon. A. W. Wise, Probate Judge in Chester County, and will apply to Probate court of this county and State for Discharge and Letters Dismissal.

NOTICE OF FINAL RETURN. On Tuesday, December 5, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. M., I will make my Final Return as Guardian of Bee Bravley, late of Chester County, and will apply to Probate court of this county and State for Discharge and Letters Dismissal.
